WEEKLY THOUGHTS

APRIL 7, 2019

Last Saturday, March 30th, forty-four Holy Trinity second graders along with their moms & dads spent the morning on retreat. With the celebration of their First Eucharist less than a month away, they took the time to take the final steps in preparing for their big day. They got the chance to make their blessing cups, ask Father Mark all of their important questions about the Bread & Wine, participate in an educational church tour led by Sharon Provost, and finally they took time to do a service project making cards for the elderly at our local assisted living centers.

Our second graders will make their First Eucharist On Saturday, April 27th and Sunday, April 28th. We ask our entire Holy Trinity faith community to continue to hold them up in prayer during these coming days. They are all so excited to make their First Eucharist and we are so happy for them. Congratulations to all of our second graders and their families!

SPIRITUALITY OF THE READINGS

Reading I: Isaiah 43:16-21
Responsorial 126:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6
Reading II: Philippians 3:8-14
Gospel: John 8:1-11

Caught!

It is a scene from a nightmare.

Yet it turns out well.

Pretend that you are the woman in Sunday's Gospel. You have been "caught in adultery." The officials shove you into a mob of people.

They see your hot shame and how it burns. They recite the ancient law of Moses: "The sacred law says you must be stoned to death for your crime."

Stoned to death! Humiliation would be bad enough! The sin is bad enough. Stoned! No!

There is a man everyone calls the "Teacher." He has been captivating the crowd just before you were dragged in. Now you (= the woman) have become the center of attention.

So the nightmare gets worse. By means of your humiliation the accusers want to trap the Teacher and disgrace him! They are using you for this purpose. Now you see that your devastation is only a mere tool!

They question the Teacher. Doesn't he agree that you should be stoned to death? They have him in a snare, this "teacher," this dreamer, who always preaches about forgiveness and love. If he defends you for the sake of his so-called love, he will break the law of Moses! If he rejects his law of love, he must then follow Moses' law, pick up a stone and throw it.

This teacher leans down, scratching absent-mindedly in the dirt. People hold their breath. The accusers fear. Why is he silent and what will he say? Now they themselves become nervous.

Let us figure out Jesus' answer. Could it be that "the Teacher" is thinking something like the following:

"My Abba has loved each of them through all ages, no matter whether they were sinners or not. 'Be my people,' Abba always begged them. 'Love one another. I love you, and I forgive your sins.'"

But their motto is hatred not love. They want death to happen.

For "Father" Jesus uses an Arabic word that expresses both familiarity and respect, "Abba."

They shout again. "What is your answer? Shall we follow the law and stone this sinful woman?" Remember, reader, you are that woman, and you stand in humiliation, cheeks hot and tears falling. Your heart says in terror, "the accusers are right!"

But teacher lifts his head from the scratchings. He utters a sentence that sums up the Gospel and all of Lent:

"Let the one among you who is without sin throw the first stone." (Gospel)

The crowd creeps away, silently, sunk in their own hidden sins. Now you stand alone before this quiet Teacher, and your terror has gone. There is something about him that supports you, brings you out to solid ground.

"Well, where are they?" he asks. "Has no one condemned you?" You reply, "No one, sir." Maybe he also asks, "Do you condemn yourself?"

You, the woman, spend a long time on this answer because the question is so very hard. Finally you whisper, "I do not wish to condemn myself, Teacher."

"Neither do I condemn you," Jesus answers. "Go and sin no more."

This scene could refashion the whole earth. If we could each accept our own sinfulness and the forgiveness that surrounds it. We would have peace. We would drink compassion from God, who has been there all along, tracing in the sand.

You stammer at last, "I believe, Lord.

"Help my unbelief."

FAITH QUESTIONS

Question for Children: How does the Sacrament of Reconciliation help us experience God's forgiveness?

Question for Youth: Who among your family and friends do you need to forgive so that you can heal a broken relationship and experience newness?

Question for Adults: Against whom do you hold prejudices? Who do you believe is a greater sinner than yourself?

PARISH & DIOCESAN NOTES

Children's Liturgy of the Word

One of the many wonderful ministries we offer at Holy Trinity is Children's Liturgy of the Word. Children ages 5-10 are invited during mass to gather, read, and discuss the Gospel for the week as a small group. This is an opportunity for our children to break open the word and discuss the Gospel with other children their own age. We have a number of adults who lead our Children's Liturgy of the Ministry, and they work very hard to make this an uplifting and fun experience for our children. When Father Mark extends the invitation during mass for our Children to come forward for their Liturgy of the Word, we hope that you child(ren) will join us. Please remember that this ministry is for children ages 5-10. We ask that children any younger or older remain with their families during the Gospel and Homily. If you have any questions about Children's Liturgy of the Word please contact John Mertes, Director of Faith Formation at johnm@holytrinitydm.org or 255-3162, extension 224.

NEXT BAPTISM CLASS

If you would like your child baptized at Holy Trinity, our next Baptism Class is Monday, April 22nd. Pre-registration is required. Please contact the Parish Office at 255-3162 ext. 128 or email parishoffice@holytrinitydm.org to sign up. We look forward to celebrating this Sacrament with your family!

EASTER VOLUNTEERS

Have you ever wanted to look behind the curtain? The Worship & Spirituality team is in need of some people to assist with setting up for Easter. Set-up starts at 7AM on Saturday April 20. We are usually done by 9AM. While we often have great volunteers from the youth and the older parts of the parish we could use some members of the middle agers to assist. Come for as long as you can 30 minutes, 1 hour or more. Hope to see you there!

Bishop Drumm Garage Sale

Bishop Seeks Prayer and Financial Assistance for Flood Victims

During this period of historic flooding in Iowa and Nebraska, including wide portions of the Diocese of Des Moines, Bishop Richard Pates is urging prayer for those impacted and inviting financial assistance for those in serious need. Many families have been displaced and some may have lost everything. Farmers especially have suffered significant loss, a portion of their land is underwater and livestock and grain that was in storage have been affected.

Catholic Charities Des Moines is currently working with Catholic Charities USA to identify and coordinate resources and needs in responding to this tragedy. Bishop Pates encourages financial support at this time either through parish collections or individual donations. All funds should be sent to:

Diocese of Des Moines Flood Relief, c/o Finance Office
601 Grand Avenue, Des Moines, IA 50309

Contributions can be made via credit or debit card online at the following link: <https://dmdioocese.thankyou4caring.org/pages/donation-form---flood-relief> Catholic Charities will also work with parish communities and their needs.

SAINT OF THE WEEK & OUR SCHOOL NEWS

Joseph of Arimathea, Layman, First Century

One of the early saints of the Church, Joseph of Arimathea is mentioned in all four of the Gospels. According to Luke 23:50, Joseph was “a virtuous and righteous man” who was “himself awaiting the kingdom of God” (Mk 15:43). He was a member of the Sanhedrin and was secretly a disciple of Jesus. Like many Christians of that time, he kept his discipleship to himself “for fear of the Jews” (Jn 19:38).

When Jesus was brought before the Sanhedrin to be condemned to death, Joseph opposed their decision. After Jesus died on the cross, however, Joseph “courageously” went to Pilate and asked for his body. Pilate consented, so Joseph wrapped the body in clean linen and laid it in a new tomb which had been hewn out of rock.

Legend tells us that Joseph went with Philip the apostle to Gaul to spread the Good News. Philip later sent twelve missionaries, under the direction of Joseph, to the British Isles. Though he did not accept Christianity, the king gave the missionaries an island, later to become Glastonbury, on which they constructed a church in honor of Our Lady. Joseph is also said to have inherited the chalice used by Jesus at the Last Supper, the Holy Grail, which has been the subject of many fictional quests. In the Middle Ages, when these legends reached the peak of their popularity, British clerics used them to support their claim that Britain was the first country of the western world to accept the teachings of Christ.

St. Joseph of Arimathea is the patron of funeral directors. Though he has no memorial on the liturgical calendar, he is honored on March 17.

Joseph’s message today: After Jesus’ death on the cross, Joseph chose to reveal himself as a follower of Christ, a move which must have caused his expulsion from the Sanhedrin. We too are sometimes asked to make sacrifices in the name of Jesus.

✠ Do you offer those sacrifices which Jesus asks of you willingly or do you try to find a way to avoid them?

At Holy Trinity, we have a saying, “All are welcome in this place.” When finding the right school for your child, it’s important to feel comfortable, safe and that you belong. We’re not just your child’s teachers or your neighbors. We’re your second family. We’re a community of educators, parents and advocates who are dedicated to taking this sacred journey together - with you.
