BABY BOTTLE DRIVE

RESPECT FOR LIFE MONTH

Holy Trinity's Respect Life Group is again sponsoring a bottle drive to support InnerVisions HealthCare, a local unplanned Pregnancy and STD medical clinic. Their mission is to empower women in vulnerable situations to choose parenting or adoption.

On Saturday, October 17 and Sunday, October 18, you'll find baby bottles at the back of the church; please take a bottle, fill it with change, cash, or checks and return it on the weekend of October 24 and 25. Holy Trinity has raised over $10,000 over recent years in support of Innervisions' pro-life services.

If you have any questions, please contact Bryan Gonzalez at 515-280-4706, to learn more about the life-affirming work of InnerVisions HealthCare, visit www.ivhcare.org.

Pastoral Care. Nourish for Caregivers is for anyone juggling the challenges of life, health and career while caring for an aging parent, grandparent, or spouse, either in your home, in town or at a distance. Nourish provides family caregivers practical and emotional supports, shared experiences and useful tools, all with a Christ-centered view. Check out future bulletins for upcoming dates!

Letter From Father Ray

Bishop Joensen was here last Sunday to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation with 25 of our 10th graders. We thank Bishop Joensen for his ministry and we pray that the Holy Spirit will guide and empower the newly confirmed.

This Sunday we celebrate the 100th anniversary of World Mission Sunday; a worldwide Catholic celebration held annually on the second-to-last Sunday of October. The theme chosen by Pope Leo XIV for the 100th anniversary is One in Christ, United in Mission. We are "invited to renew our commitment to global evangelization through prayer, sacrifice, and spiritual solidarity." There will be a second collection supporting Pontifical Mission Societies operating in over 1,000 missionary dioceses and territories, helping build churches, open schools, run hospitals, and train local priests and religious.

Keep Pope Leo in your prayers. He spent the last week in the hospital. He had surgery to remove a localized nodule in his lung.

The gospel for the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle A, is the familiar story of Jesus debating with the Pharisees about paying taxes. They were trying to trap him. If said he said not to pay the tax then he was breaking Roman law. If he said to pay the tax then he was betraying his fellow Jews by giving honor to Caesar. However, in his unique way Jesus turned the tables on them. He asked them for a coin. One of them was carrying a coin. By carrying a coin with Caesar's image on it (a false god), they made themselves unclean and unable to enter the Temple.

"Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

PARISH NEWS

WEEK 4: "DEEPENING OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD"

"Curious About Meditation? Try Something Older."

"You've learned the method. You've sat in the silence of Centering Prayer. Now what? Our final session looks at how Centering Prayer becomes a lifelong practice -- one that slowly, quietly deepens your relationship with God over months and years. We will talk about where we go from here and best practices to continue this prayer. Come complete the series, and leave with a practice you can return to every single day. Join us Wed., Oct. 14 at 6:30 p.m. in the school's Media Center.

Registration is not required.

BOOK CLUB

Join us as we read in faith!

Are you interested in meeting people in the parish community who like to read? Are you interested in seeing fiction through our Catholic Faith? Consider joining our book club this fall. We'll be meeting at the Franklin Library in a small conference room from 6:30-8:00 PM. If you have questions, email Sarah Sullivan Bigelow at ssullivanbigelow@gmail.com

The next scheduled Book Clubs are:

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Note from Most Rev. William M. Joensen, Bishop of Des Moines

On October 18, Catholics around the world will celebrate World Mission Sunday, joining together in prayer and support for the Church's missionary work. We especially remember the missionaries, priests, religious, and lay leaders serving in 1,130 mission dioceses worldwide. This year marks the 100th anniversary of World Mission Sunday, with the theme "One in Christ, United in Mission." We are reminded that through our baptism, we are all called to share the Gospel and support the Church's mission.

We also celebrate the recent beatification of Blessed Fulton J. Sheen, who often spoke of his deep love for the missions.

Our generous support of this collection honors his legacy and helps continue the missionary work of the Church.

May World Mission Sunday renew our commitment to be One in Christ, United in Mission!

NOW HIRING

SS. John & Paul Parish

Director of Music. This PT position selects music for liturgies, including funerals and weddings, recruits, trains, and schedules musicians. Collaborates to plan Holy Week, Christmas and other holy day liturgies, and acts as a resource for faith formation events and sacramental celebrations.

Find complete job descriptions for both positions at <http://ssjohnpaul.org/employment-opportunities>.

OUR FAITH EXPLAINED

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Luke, Evangelist, First Century

Luke is the author of the third Gospel and of the Acts of the Apostles. He was the only Gentile Christian among the four Evangelists and his Gospel, written in Greek, was unquestionably written for Gentile Christians. Tradition has him as a Greek-born, from Antioch. Saint Paul called Luke "our beloved physician" (Col 4:14) and Luke was known to have traveled with Paul on his second and third missionary expeditions in Greece and Rome. He also accompanied Paul on the dangerous journey to Rome, where Paul wrote, "only Luke is with me" (2 Tim 4:11).

Like the other Evangelists, Luke's message is with us today as it has been throughout the history of the Church. They have given us the Gospels, which enable us to learn about Jesus' life and ministry. Further, the Acts of the Apostles give us grounding in the work of the Holy Spirit in the early Church.

Luke is the patron saint of artists, brewers, butchers, glass workers, notaries, painters, and physicians. A feast honors this saint on October 18.

Luke's message today: Like the other Evangelists, Luke's message is with us today as it has been throughout the history of the Church. They have given us the Gospels, which enable us to learn about Jesus' life and ministry. Further, the Acts of the Apostles give us grounding in the work of the Holy Spirit in the early Church.

CHASTITY

Virtues, Explained!

All human beings have a body, just as all human beings have a soul. Since mankind fractured his relationship with the divine, the inclinations of the body are often at odds with the well-being of the soul.

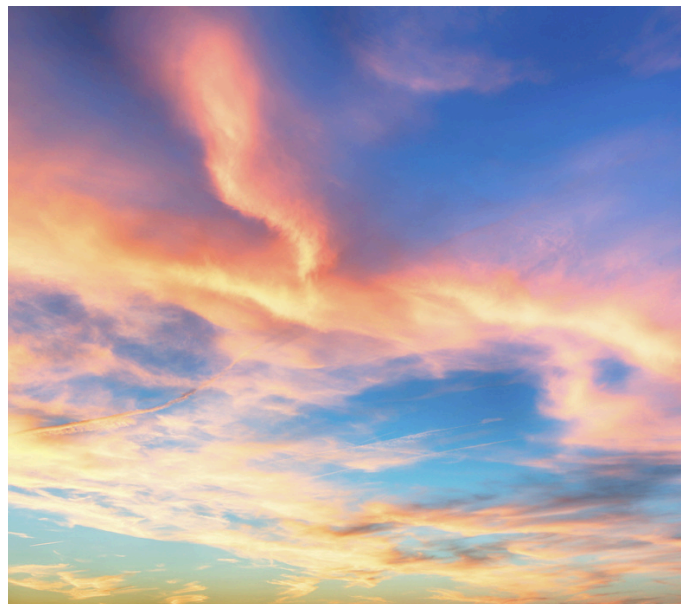

Through the virtue of chastity, these inclinations become once again integrated.

In the Catechism, we read that chastity "includes an apprenticeship in self-mastery which is a training in human freedom" (CCC 2339). True freedom is impossible when a person is subject to any of his or her passions.

The sins of lust, pornography, and prostitution are principal offenses against the virtue of chastity, because these things undermine the integrity, or wholeness, of the human person's physical and spiritual dimensions.

All people are called to chastity, even those who are not called to celibacy, because all people have a physical self. Chastity is one of the twelve gifts of the Holy Spirit, which sustains moral life.

PRAYER & READINGS

READINGS

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I : Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

I have called you by name.

Reading II : 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b

We thank God for your faith!

Gospel : Matthew 22:15-21

Keep your priorities clear.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Question for Children: In your young life, who has helped you know Jesus as a friend?

Question for Youth: We are supposed to give to God the things that are God's. What in your life is dedicated to God? How to you keep those things sacred?

Question for Adults: If you were to write a thank you note to someone or to a group who has helped you grow in faith, to whom would you write and what would you say?
