Pastoral Care. Nourish for Caregivers is for anyone juggling the challenges of life, health and career while caring for an aging parent, grandparent, or spouse, either in your home, in town or at a distance. Nourish provides family caregivers practical and emotional supports, shared experiences and useful tools, all with a Christ-centered view. Check out future bulletins for upcoming dates!

Letter From Father Ray

Suddenly it is November. This is a busy month. We begin the month with All Saints Day and then All Souls Day the next day. With those somber feast days to start the month, we dedicate this month as a month of remembrance for those who have died. We will celebrate Thanksgiving on the 26th . Advent begins the new Church year on November 29.

The long election cycle will soon be over. Soon there will be no more political commercials on TV and flyers in our mailbox. We vote on Tuesday. The Catholic bishops of the United States publish a document every election year titled Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship. Voting is a “moral duty.” They do not endorse specific candidates. We are to be informed voters. “Catholics must form their consciences using sacred scripture, Catholic social teaching, and reason—not partisan talking points or personal feelings. ...The responsibility to make choices in political life rests with each individual in light of a properly formed conscience. ... Pray often, letting faith inform your political participation.” So, we inform ourselves on the issues, pray and then vote.

The gospel reading for the Solemnity of All Saints is from Matthew chapter 5. This is the Sermon on the Mount, specifically the Beatitudes. I had a professor in the seminary who said that the Ten Commandments are what we stand on while we reach for the Beatitudes.
“Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you [falsely] because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven. Thus they persecuted the prophets who were before you” (Matthew 5:11-12).

IOWA ESA HALF-YEAR APPLICATION DEADLINE

November 15th, 2026

Iowa's Students First Education Savings Account (ESA) half-year application window is open October 15–November 15, 2026. Families who were not approved for a full-year ESA may apply by Sunday, November 15, at 11:59 p.m.

Approved students must attend an accredited Iowa nonpublic school and have tuition and fees paid through the ESA portal by January 14, 2027, at 11:59 p.m., to receive and retain half-year ESA funds.

For application and payment questions, contact Odyssey Support at 515-368-9564 or help.ia@withodyssey.com.

FAQ ABOUT ESA

And why are they good for Iowa...

The Iowa Catholic Conference estimates the state spent about $330 million on Education Savings Accounts during the 2025-2026 school year, representing under 4% of total government spending on education. Public school districts collect around $1,600 for every student in a nonpublic school who receives an ESA. ESAs are restricted solely to tuition at accredited nonpublic schools or pre-approved educational expenses.

Why are Education Savings Accounts good for Iowa?
Parental Choice: Parents hold primary responsibility for their children's education. ESAs empower families to choose the best educational environment regardless of financial standing.
Strengthening Communities: Catholic schools contribute significantly to the common good. Nonpublic education serves as an effective anti-poverty tool by combining high academic standards with moral foundation and character development.
Academic Improvement: Robust school choice improves overall academic performance across both public and nonpublic sectors.

OUR FAITH EXPLAINED

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Simon, Apostle and Martyr, First Century

Perhaps the least known of the Apostles, Simon is only mentioned in the lists contained in the Gospels. Matthew, Mark and Luke all refer to this saint as "Simon the Zealot." Since he received no mention in the Acts of the Apostles which largely concentrated on the activities of the Apostles around Jerusalem and the eastern Mediterranean, Simon may have begun his missionary work among the Jews of Egypt. He may then have worked his way westward through Libya and into present-day Tunisia. There is some evidence that Simon then took the Word to Britain where Christianity seems to have been introduced before the Romans established the island as a colony in the year 43.

Simon was ardent in his preaching the Word of God. This passion carried him from almost one end of the known world to the other. While we are not asked to travel to the ends of the earth preaching the Word of God, we can set an example of Christian living for all of those with whom we come in contact.

A feast honors this saint along with his companion, St. Jude, on October 28.

Simon's message today: Whatever the origin of Simon's nickname, we can believe that he was ardent in his preaching the Word of God. This passion carried him from almost one end of the known world to the other. While we are not asked to travel to the ends of the earth preaching the Word of God, we can set an example of Christian living for all of those with whom we come in contact.

SERENITY

Virtues, Explained!

The word "serenity" is only found once in the Catechism of the Catholic Church: in the section describing the effects of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, quoting the Council of Trent when it declared that a good confession "is usually followed by peace and serenity of conscience." (CCC 1468)

This may give the impression that serenity is not a foremost Catholic virtue, but the succinctness of the Catechism's reference is actually proof of serenity's importance.

What is serenity? It is an attitude of calm, one that can only be identified when contrasted with turmoil. It is stillness in a storm. It is Christ, walking steadily across the raging waves.

That the Catechism links it exclusively with reconciliation to God tells us all we need to know about this virtue. Where can we find calm in turmoil, stillness in storm? Where can we find serenity?

There is only one place: the merciful embrace of God in His sacraments.

PRAYER & READINGS

READINGS

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

Reading I : Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14
We are made clean in Christ's death and resurrection.

Reading II : 1 John 3:1-3 We are God's children.

Gospel : Matthew 5:1-12 The Beatitudes

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Question for Children: When have you become a peacemaker? Among your friends? In your family? At school? Other times?

Question for Youth: All Saints Day gives us a chance to remember the saints of our Church and of our lives. Who are the people who have been saints in your life?

Question for Adults: When you heard the Beatitudes today, which one did you hear most clearly as a summons for your own life?
