MANY HANDS MAKE LIGHT WORK THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

For many of us, a Thanksgiving dinner is simply part of the season. But for a neighbor who is struggling to make ends meet, putting a special meal on the table can be impossible. As a community, we know we can change this – and ensure that families end their holiday nights with full bellies.

DMARC is preparing at least 1,000 holiday food boxes for people who visit our Food Pantry this season. We need your volunteer help to pack and distribute them. If you've had good intentions that haven't quite gotten checked off this year, now is your chance to act! This will be a super fun and high impact effort to join.

Holiday Box Packing:

Because we believe in raising children in a community of caring and modeling how to be of service, we have specially designed weekend volunteer shifts for families which are appropriate for those with children of all ages alongside their parents or guardians. These shifts will be inside our warehouse.

Family Shift: Sat, Nov. 7 | 9–11am | Open to all!
Family Shift: Sat, Nov. 14 | 9–11am | Open to all!

Because companies also want to show their community spirit, we have also designed weekday volunteer shifts for groups of adults or those over 16. These shifts will be inside our warehouse.

Adult/Group Shift: Tues, Nov. 10 | 10am–12pm
Adult/Group Shift: Thurs, Nov. 12 | 10am–12pm | 2–4pm

Registration link: https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20F0D44ADAC2FA0FCC52-66671996-thanksgiving#/:

Distribution Day:

Join us on Saturday, Nov. 21st for one (or more) 2-hour shifts to see first-hand the impact of your labors and help with drive-thru distribution. You must be at least 14 years old (under 16 must volunteer with a parent or guardian). This opportunity will take place mostly outside.

9–11am | 25 volunteers 11am–1pm | 25 volunteers
1–3pm | 25 volunteers 3–5pm | 25 volunteers

Pastoral Care. Nourish for Caregivers is for anyone juggling the challenges of life, health and career while caring for an aging parent, grandparent, or spouse, either in your home, in town or at a distance. Nourish provides family caregivers practical and emotional supports, shared experiences and useful tools, all with a Christ-centered view. Check out future bulletins for upcoming dates!

Letter From Father Ray

You may have heard about Bishop Joensen's visit to Washington, D.C. Shortly before the election, 12 American bishops had a meeting with administration officials at the White House. They were ushered into the Oval Office where they were pictured praying over President Trump. The bishops felt they were used because the picture makes it seem as if they are endorsing the President and his policies. The bishops have apologized for the misrepresentation. Bishop Joensen said on Oct. 25 that he wished he would have heeded the words of Jesus before praying in the Oval Office, invoking Jesus warning that he was sending sheep out into the midst of wolves. I wish I had been more shrewd and less simple, like those who exploited our meeting for partisan political purposes.

I want to thank the many people who stopped in at my farewell wine and cheese gathering last week. Thank you for the gifts. They are much appreciated.

The holidays are fast approaching. Thanksgiving is Thursday November 26. It is not a Holyday of Observation but we do gather that day to give thanks to God for his goodness and love. Mass will be celebrated at 9:00 am. As we give thanks for the many blessings God has bestowed on us, we remember those without material blessings.

Pope Leo XIV in his Apostolic Exhortation Dilexi Te called to reach out to the poor as one of the obligations as a Christian.
"When the Church bends down to care for the poor, she assumes her highest posture".

Fr. Ray

IOWA ESA HALF-YEAR APPLICATION DEADLINE

November 15th, 2026

Iowa's Students First Education Savings Account (ESA) half-year application window is open October 15–November 15, 2026. Families who were not approved for a full-year ESA may apply by Sunday, November 15, at 11:59 p.m.

Approved students must attend an accredited Iowa nonpublic school and have tuition and fees paid through the ESA portal by January 14, 2027, at 11:59 p.m., to receive and retain half-year ESA funds.

For application and payment questions, contact Odyssey Support at 515-368-9564 or help.ia@withodyssey.com.

WHY ARE EDUCATION SAVINGS ACCOUNTS GOOD FOR IOWA?

Parent Choice

Parental Choice: Parents hold primary responsibility for their children's education. ESAs empower families to choose the best educational environment regardless of financial standing.

Strengthening Communities: Catholic schools contribute significantly to the common good. Nonpublic education serves as an effective anti-poverty tool by combining high academic standards with moral foundation and character development.

Academic Improvement: Robust school choice improves overall academic performance across both public and nonpublic sectors.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT (CCHD)

Collection Weekend: November 14–15, 2026

On November 14–15, 2026, our diocese will take up the annual collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. This year's theme, "Working on the Margins," calls us to support our most vulnerable neighbors.
While 75% of donations support national efforts, 25% stays in our diocese to fund local programs, including disability ministries, inclusive youth activities, and services for low-income families.
Please give generously to help bring those on the margins into the heart of our Church. Thank you for your prayers and support.

— Most Rev. William M. Joensen, Ph.D.
Bishop of Des Moines

OUR FAITH EXPLAINED

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Cecilia, Virgin and Martyr, Third Century

Much of the knowledge about Cecilia is based on Tradition. Cecilia was born in Rome, the daughter of patrician parents, and was raised as a Christian. When of a suitable age, she was married against her will to Valerian. After their marriage, she converted Valerian and his brother, Tiburtius, to Christianity. Valerian and Tiburtius devoted themselves to good works until they were arrested by the Roman prefect, Almachius. They were martyred, together with Maximus, a Roman official, who had been so impressed by their witness to Christ that he too became a Christian. These three martyrs are also saints. Cecilia buried the three and was, in turn, arrested and called upon to renounce her faith. Instead she converted her persecutors. She was ultimately martyred for her faith and we honor her for that today.

Only a very strong faith could withstand the pressures and threats that faced Cecilia and the martyrs of her time. Instead of caving in to those pressures, Cecilia, her husband, and brother-in-law brought more converts into the Church. By word and by example, we too can both strengthen our faith and bring others to Christ.

Saint Cecilia is the patroness of musicians and singers and is often portrayed with an organ or viola. A memorial celebrates the life of this saint on November 22.

Cecilia's message today: Only a very strong faith could withstand the pressures and threats that faced Cecilia and the martyrs of her time. Instead of caving in to those pressures, Cecilia, her husband, and brother-in-law brought more converts into the Church. By word and by example, we too can both strengthen our faith and bring others to Christ.

LOYALTY

Virtues, Explained!

Pope Paul VI, in Ecclesia Suam, considered "loyalty, perseverance and self-sacrifice" to be the distinguishing marks of a Christian in a modern world that increasingly embraces relativism.

"The follower of Christ is not pliant and cowardly, but loyal and strong," he wrote.

The virtue of loyalty is closely linked to the virtue of obedience, wherein we freely submit ourselves to rightful authority. As Catholics, we are called to be loyal to our bishops, to Scripture and Tradition, to the teaching authority of the Church (the Magisterium), and to the Christian way of life.

Loyalty is distinct from admiration for a person or institution, and even from respect. Admiration and respect can be rightfully earned and rightfully lost. Virtuous loyalty does not swerve from its object, and it flows forth from the one who gives it.

PRAYER & READINGS

READINGS

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Reading I : Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31
The wise woman receives her reward.

Reading II : 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6
You are children of the light.

Gospel : Matthew 25:14-30
We must use the gifts we have been given!

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Question for Children: Name one talent or gift that God has given you and tell how you have used it.
Question for Youth: Name three talents that you have. How can you use these talents in the next week to make someone's life better?
Question for Adults: Using Jesus' parable as your starting point, describe in your own words how you are using your own gifts to enrich the reign of God.
