IGNITE!
A LIFE. A CHURCH. A COMMUNITY.
Campaign for the Catholic Diocese of Des Moines

THE IGNITE! CAMPAIGN UPDATE In a few months, after the Annual Diocesan Appeal is complete and after Easter, Holy Trinity will begin the Ignite! Campaign. The campaign is a wonderful opportunity to address the needs of our parishes and the Diocese. Each family at our parish will be asked to make a meaningful gift. Please know that the request for support will be an invitation, not an expectation. Our parish has assembled a team of volunteers who will help with the campaign in the months ahead. They will be serving as an extension of Bishop Joensen and Fr. Mark to provide information, answer questions and invite you to participate. Your charitable gift will benefit future generations of Catholics in Southwest Iowa!

FREE COVID-19 PCR TESTING The JoinCareTeam presents "Spring Health Fair" powered by CErtintell Telehealth. FREE COVID-19 testing will be available at the Catholic Pastoral Center (Sixth and Grand in Des Moines) on Sunday, March 20 from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. In addition to testing, free health screenings and vaccine education information will also be available. Medical interpreters for 200+ languages will be present. All are welcome to take advantage of this opportunity.

Generations of Faith

Holy Trinity's Faith Formation Department will be hosting two Lenten Generations of Faith evenings. Our own Deacon Randy Kiel will present with our theme being Is There Water in the Desert? This is an opportunity for all members of our Holy Trinity parish family to come and learn more about their Catholic Faith.

Sunday, March 6 from 4:30-6:30PM
Wednesday, March 9 from 6-8PM

The presentation will be the same for both days so parishioners can choose which option works best for them. Both days will begin with a simple supper. Please sign up for the event here:

Are you a family that would like to transfer your students to our school? Children in grades 1-7 receive $1500 each toward tuition costs! Here are some benefits of our school:

- STREAM: We integrate Science, Technology, Religion, Engineering, Arts and Math into our curriculum. This means your student is receiving a well-rounded education with 21-century skillsets taught alongside a foundation of faith and creative thinking. Holy Trinity has won the Governor's STEM grant 7 times.
- INDIVIDUALIZED INSTRUCTION: We are right-sized to ensure your children have more one-on-one attention in the class. Most grades average about 15-19 students per class.
- COMMUNITY: We offer a place where not only your child, but your whole family feels welcome. We believe that education is a journey we take together as teachers, admin, staff and parents.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO GET $500 OFF TUITION?
Holy Trinity offers its school families $500 for each family they refer who enroll. Please have them contact us at holytrinity@htschool.org.

ARE YOU READY TO ENROLL YOUR CHILDREN AT HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC SCHOOL?

Holy Trinity Catholic School is a community of teachers and parents who labor in love to care for, and raise, the stewards of our future.

We recognize and respond to the spirit and dignity of each child as they grow and achieve excellence in life and learning.

We believe all things are possible with God, and so will your child.

TUITION ASSISTANCE FOR 22-23

Beginning Feb 1, applications are available at Holy Trinity
2926 Beaver Ave DSM IA 50310 515 255 3162 or apply online at fairapp.com.

INCOME GUIDELINES 22-23

The first qualification for families to receive tuition assistance is income. State law requires families to be at or below the following income guidelines. Once a family qualifies, they can receive tuition assistance based on their financial need.

FAMILY SIZE*	MAXIMUM INCOME	FAMILY SIZE*	MAXIMUM INCOME
2	$73,240	5	$129,880
3	$92,120	6	$148,760
4	$111,000	7	$167,640

*Family Size includes parent(s)/guardian(s) and total number of dependents plus others living in household
Families/Households are eligible for CTO assistance if total income is at or below the above listed income level reported on line 9 of Federal Tax form
Add $18,880 for each additional dependent

Bottom line? It's for your KIDS...and their futures.

APPLICATION DEADLINE IS APRIL 1, 2022

UPDATE FROM THE DIOCESE Based on the new CDC guidance and in consultation with our local medical experts, the Diocese of Des Moines is now removing its strong recommendation for mask use, and will no longer require masks to be used during the distribution of Holy Communion. Effective immediately, the following guidance will be provided on our website: Masks are optional for the faithful and clergy during Mass and other indoor activities. We encourage everyone to discern the use of masks based on their own health and potential immunity to COVID-19. Information about your local situation can be easily found https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/your-health/covid-by-county.html

NOTES ON THE MASS MAR 6 2022

You Are My Beloved

In Sunday's reading, Jesus has been swept into the desert by a voice that said "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." (Luke 3:21-22).

These were God's words.

Notice that they are nearly the same as what God had uttered eight hundred years before, as follows:
Behold my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen in whom my soul delights, upon whom I have put my spirit; he shall bring forth justice to the nations" (Isaiah 42:1-4).
The voice of God still speaks again to his servant, making it quite clear that Jesus is that chosen one.

Was Jesus surprised to hear this? In some ways, no. He already knew in his deepest soul and all the way outwards how close he was to God. Yet he was simultaneously human, and completely so. Therefore, in another way, he was shocked. He had read and re-read the Isaiah passage above since he was at his mother's knee. Now it all clicked into place.

He was to be the chosen one.

Jesus needed to ponder this stunning message. He had to listen in silence and with an openness so holy that it would seem almost like emptiness. So he went to the desert.
The devil, for his part, had already known about Jesus, with a dumb and greedy knowledge. He saw that this great servant of God could be used for ulterior motives. From the moment the Jesus-child was born, all this, his strength, his God-like holiness, the fame he would acquire, could become a tool for subjecting the world to Satan.
"No point in being empty," the sly tempter said to the hungry Jesus. "Just give a Godly command and this stone will turn into bread." You are God, aren't you? Take whatever you want. Have a great life!
Note to reader: How do you relieve your hunger?
Jesus answered from the scriptures. "One does not live by bread alone." These words paraphrase Moses' great second speech to the people of Israel:
Not by bread alone does man live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the Lord"
(Deuteronomy 8:3).

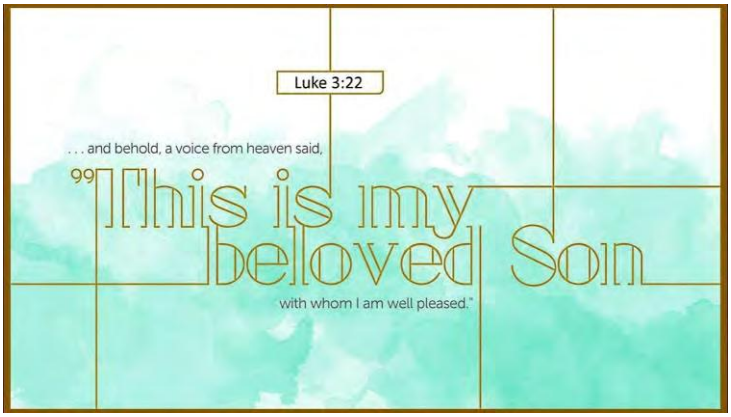
The devil, rapacious, scurried on to a second temptation, this time an invitation to glory. Join me, worship me. All the kingdoms of the world will be yours, as they already are mine. (Translation: you can be bigger than this heavenly father of yours.) Jesus answered, "You shall worship the Lord your God, and him alone shall you serve" (see Deuteronomy 6:13).

Note to the reader: what do you and I worship and serve—instead of God?

Two temptations had now failed. As we know, "even the devil can quote scripture," so he uses Psalm 91—the part about God commanding angels to guard the beloved one (verses 11 and 12). Just throw yourself off the heights of this temple, the devil suggests smoothly. God's angels will have no choice, they will have to come save you. Take advantage of who you are.
Note to the reader: Don't you want to show off your power sometimes?

Jesus again answers from the same book of scripture (Deuteronomy 6:16). "You shall not tempt the Lord your God." The meaning: God the Father is above all. If you think you can bribe him to save you, then you might seem to yourself equal to him! But you aren't.
Note to all people: do we sometimes think we are God?
Instead, imitate the Son of God.

John Foley, SJ



BRING THE GOSPEL HOME MAR 6 2022

READING I Deuteronomy 26:4-10

PSALM 91:1-15

READING II 1 Romans 10:8-13

GOSPEL Luke 4:1-13

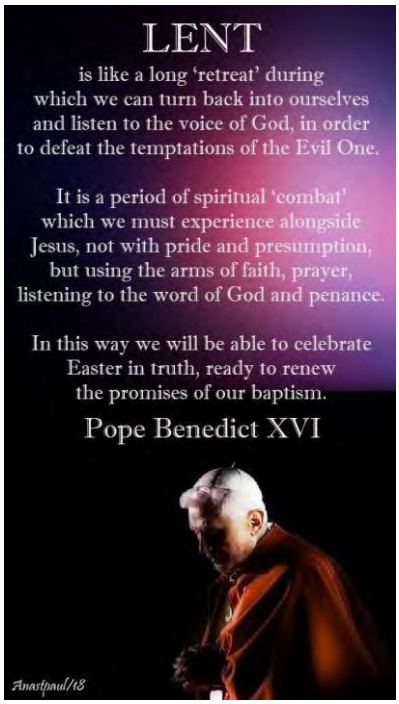
Question for Children: When you feel tempted to do wrong, how do you remain strong in your faith?

Question for Youth: What is one thing you will do during Lent to become more open to God in your life?

Question for Adults: As you come to understand the temptation of Jesus in the desert, which one of the devil's offerings is hardest for you to resist?

Use these activities to further reflect:

- While there is a tradition of "giving something up" for Lent, this year consider instead "doing something extra" for someone who could use help or assistance. That might include volunteering to take an elderly neighbor shopping or helping him or her with spring chores.



SAINT OF THE WEEK

Jerome Emiliani, Religious

Jerome was born in Venice and became a commander of the League of Cambrai and was captured and imprisoned during a battle. He spent the time in prison learning to pray. When he escaped, he returned to Venice and began studies for the priesthood and was ordained in 1518. He decided to devote himself to care for orphans during the plague and eventually founded the Clerks Regular of Somascha to care for orphans and to educate children and priests. He died of an infectious disease that he caught while caring for the children. He is the patron saint of abandoned children and orphans.

Jerome's message today: Jerome was a good and caring person, even a heroic one. Though we may not be able to help abandoned children and orphans in the same manner as he did, we all know someone who has been abandoned by friends or family, or who is spiritually "orphaned." We, like Jerome, can reach out to these abandoned ones.

Is there someone in your life who needs God's healing touch right now? As a follower of Christ, are you willing to offer it?
