FROM THE CHURCH JAN 23 2022

PROVIDE LUNCH FOR THE HOMELESS Holy Trinity Parish has committed to help provide and serve lunch the last Thursday of each month at The Connection Cafe. We'll be providing sloppy joe sandwiches, fruit, chips and cookies for a sack lunch on Thursday, Jan 27th. Lunch will be served at St. John's Lutheran Church, 600 6th Ave, Des Moines. The entrance is off the alley. Please sign up to donate food or to help serve using this link for dates in 2022: <https://signup.com/go/Qbkvmy>. Thank you so much for your support of The Connection Cafe!

FOOD PANTRY The Des Moines Area Religious Council (DMARC) has provided a food pantry service to the Des Moines area for the past 45 years. It now provides food security to families from 14 partner food pantries and 31 mobile food pantry sites located throughout the city. During this time of Pandemic, more people are being assisted now than at any time in the program's history. We are still accepting donations here at HT. Those wishing to provide their support may drop either food or non-food items (diapers, wipes, personal products, etc.) into one of the green collection tubs located at the Holy Trinity Church entries. DMARC also welcomes cash/check donations as they are able to buy items at discounted prices and realize savings with their purchases. Checks written should be made payable to Holy Trinity (noted for DMARC) and placed in the collection basket. Thank you for your continued support.

ALTAR SERVERS NEEDED We can have 3! Eligible servers are students already trained with Parental Permission. Parents—email student's name and Mass time availability to carolynr@holytrinitydm.org.

FAMILY PROMISE VOLUNTEERS NEEDED Family Promise Greater Des Moines (FPGD) provides shelter to homeless families with the help of area religious institutions. Holy Trinity is scheduled to assist FPGD with hosting duties January 30 through February 6. The organization is asking people to help that week as either a meal volunteer or overnight volunteer. These volunteer opportunities all take place at the gathering house at Faith Lutheran Church located at 10395 University Ave in Clive. The gathering house is the duplex with the large ramp just off the church's north parking lot. Meal volunteers deliver food to the gathering house entrance between 5:15-5:30 PM each day. This is a "no contact" delivery as food is left in a cart placed by FPGD staff outside entrance. Overnight duties are simple and limited. Social distancing with our guests is strictly enforced to ensure limited exposure. Your primary job is to sleep on beds provided at the gathering house. If you are interested in volunteering for this vital service, please email Jim McWeeny today (jim.mcweeny@sciowa.org)

IGNITE! CAMPAIGN TO BEGIN THIS SPRING

In the spring, Holy Trinity will participate in the IGNITE! A life. A church. A Community. Campaign. This milestone fundraising effort is the result of many months of prayer and preparation following a successful planning study that concluded in late 2020. All 80 churches in our Diocese will take part in this historic campaign, designed to benefit all Catholics in Southwest Iowa.

The focus of the campaign will be to improve access to Catholic education, increase funds for seminarian education and priest retirement, and to invest in all our parishes. Detailed information about campaign priorities and goals will be sent to every registered household in the months ahead.

Our parish is participating in the first wave of the campaign, and preparations are beginning this winter. We need many volunteers to assist our parish for this campaign to be successful. If you are interested in volunteering and helping our parish, please contact Fr. Mark for additional details.

Taking the Journey TOGETHER

NOTES ON THE MASS JAN 23 2022

SPIRITUALITY OF THE READING

Two New Eras

Two men unroll parchment scrolls and each reads his to the people. Their proclamations signal the beginning of a vast new era. One man is Ezra the scribe, and the other is Jesus of Nazareth. Four centuries separate their readings. Let's look.

We find Ezra in the First Reading. He is in Jerusalem after the return of the Jewish exiles from captivity in Babylon. What is the "captivity in Babylon," you ask? Perhaps it will help to have more of that story.

Ancient Israel was captured by the Babylonian empire 586 years before Christ. They took Jerusalem itself. They demolished the great temple built by Solomon centuries before and deported all productive citizens to Babylon, leaving peasants to run the holy city, if they could.

After fifty years or so of their captivity, Cyrus the Great, king of Persia (now Iran), came into possession of Babylon and he let the captives go. Many had switched their faith by this time in favor of foreign gods and customs, but the remainder, perhaps 5000, made ready to return home. By this time a lot of them had never even seen Jerusalem. There were great caravans. Ezra—priest, scribe and teacher—led one of them on the four-month journey across the desert.

They arrived to find Jerusalem a ruined city with widespread moral decay.

Reconstruction of a urban center is immensely difficult, as we know from our own day. Ezra worked long and hard to bring back the ecclesiastical and civil fiber of Jerusalem and the nation.

At last a new temple was finished in 516 BC, and the ruined city walls were rebuilt.

At this point Ezra stood up on a high wooden platform built for the occasion so he could be heard and seen, and he "read plainly" from the scroll that held "the book of the law." He started reading at daybreak and continued until midday! Not only did they have their city again, but also they now had heard the Word of God again. And finally there was again a temple where they could worship.

Their new era had begun!

Four centuries later we find Jesus of Nazareth making a similar return. He is going back to Galilee, the region where he grew up (Gospel). He has been baptized and has spent time in the desert. His trip is now "in the power of the Spirit," Luke says, and it takes him to his home town of Nazareth. Like Ezra, he takes up a scroll, this one containing the book of Isaiah—much of which, coincidentally, had been written during the Jewish exile.

He reads the passage, which says that the Spirit of the Lord has sent him to "bring glad tidings to the poor, ... to let the oppressed go free," to proclaim a time of favor from the Lord (Is 61:1-2). This is what Ezra had done in the First Reading, but Jesus' mission is much, much more.

A far greater new era has begun.

He sits down now, at the same level as the people. He says almost casually, "today this scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

His mission is to rebuild their hearts, not just their city, to return them to God, who is their real home. Would they accept this startling new epoch?

Will we?

Stay tuned for more next Sunday.

John Foley, SJ

READING I Nehemiah 8:2-10

PSALM 19:8-15

READING II 1 Corinthians 12:12-27

GOSPEL Luke 1:1-21

Question for Children: Jesus is present to each of us in a different way. Tell about a time you knew Jesus was with you.

Question for Youth: Name a moment or situation in your life where Jesus was present. What are some situations or places where you wish that Jesus was more visible?

Question for Adults: Jesus came to bring glad tidings to the poor and set free the enslaved. How has this mission of Christ in the world affected you personally?

Use these activities to further reflect:

- Have each family member write one or two statements from Scripture that they will live out this week. Post the statements on the refrigerator. At the end of the week, before dinner, talk about what each family member did and how he or she felt Jesus' presence during the week.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Titus, Bishop, First Century

Titus was a Greek and a close friend of Saint Paul's who interceded or mediated for Paul in Corinth more than once. He accompanied Saint Paul on his third missionary journey and acted as Paul's secretary at the council in Jerusalem. Paul's first letter to Titus advises him on how to conduct his mission as a bishop. He tells him to be blameless and have a firm grasp of the Bible so he can preach with sound doctrine and refute those who dispute that doctrine. He died in Crete, probably at an advanced age.

Titus' message today: In his letter to Titus, Paul mentioned many qualities which a bishop should possess. All good Christians should also possess many of these qualities: hospitality, a love of goodness, and prudence, among other things.

Are you an active part of your church community? Have you welcomed others into that community?
