Holy Trinity Families – Hello!

Welcome to Catholic Schools Week. We are proud to carry on this annual tradition and hope you join us on Sunday January 30 between 11:45AM and 1PM at our school for our OPEN HOUSE event.

Holy Trinity Catholic School recognizes and responds to the spirit and dignity of each child as they grow and achieve excellence in life and learning every day. We believe all things are possible with God, and so will your child(ren). This weekend is your chance to learn more about what your students have been doing or see what your children might like to be part of. We hope to meet you on Sunday!

We will have early education presentations from 12 to 12:15PM and 12:30 to 12:45PM in the gym for all of you who may have a new student starting their educational journey for the first time.

We will offer tours, treats, information and the chance to just have some family fun.

Early enrollment opens after the event for all those who have filled in this inquiry link: https://htschool.schooladminonline.com/portal/new_inquiry.

For everyone else, it starts the following day.

Signing up early is so important! Our early education classes fill right away and sometimes placement comes down to a timestamp. We'd hate for you to miss out on the chance to get your student into class.

I would also like to THANK ALL of you who have your students already enrolled at Holy Trinity Catholic. We are so honored to have the privilege to care for, and help raise the stewards of our future with you. We truly appreciate the work you have put in, to make this the BEST Open House ever!

God Bless you,

Ms Morrison, Holy Trinity Catholic School Principal

FOOD PANTRY The Des Moines Area Religious Council (DMARC) has provided a food pantry service to the Des Moines area for the past 45 years. It now provides food security to families from 14 partner food pantries and 31 mobile food pantry sites located throughout the city. During this time of Pandemic, more people are being assisted now than at any time in the program's history. We are still accepting donations here at HT. Those wishing to provide their support may drop either food or non-food items (diapers, wipes, personal products, etc.) into one of the green collection tubs located at the Holy Trinity Church entries. DMARC also welcomes cash/check donations as they are able to buy items at discounted prices and realize savings with their purchases. Checks written should be made payable to Holy Trinity (noted for DMARC) and placed in the collection basket. Thank you for your continued support.

FAMILY PROMISE VOLUNTEERS NEEDED Family Promise Greater Des Moines (FPGD) provides shelter to homeless families with the help of area religious institutions. Holy Trinity is scheduled to assist FPGD with hosting duties January 30 through February 6. The organization is asking people to help that week as either a meal volunteer or overnight volunteer. These volunteer opportunities all take place at the gathering house at Faith Lutheran Church located at 10395 University Ave in Clive. The gathering house is the duplex with the large ramp just off the church's north parking lot. Meal volunteers deliver food to the gathering house entrance between 5:15-5:30 PM each day. This is a "no contact" delivery as food is left in a cart placed by FPGD staff outside entrance. Overnight duties are simple and limited. Social distancing with our guests is strictly enforced to ensure limited exposure. Your primary job is to sleep on beds provided at the gathering house. If you are interested in volunteering for this vital service, please email Jim McWeeny today (jim.mcweeny@sciowa.org)

USHERS NEEDED! As we are now required to maintain our holy obligation for Sunday masses, we need you! Please contact Andy Negrete 255-3162 ext. 129 or andyn@holytrinitydm.org

IGNITE! CAMPAIGN TO BEGIN THIS SPRING

In the spring, Holy Trinity will participate in the IGNITE! A life. A church. A Community. Campaign. This milestone fundraising effort is the result of many months of prayer and preparation following a successful planning study that concluded in late 2020. All 80 churches in our Diocese will take part in this historic campaign, designed to benefit all Catholics in Southwest Iowa.

The focus of the campaign will be to improve access to Catholic education, increase funds for seminarian education and priest retirement, and to invest in all our parishes. Detailed information about campaign priorities and goals will be sent to every registered household in the months ahead.

Our parish is participating in the first wave of the campaign, and preparations are beginning this winter. We need many volunteers to assist our parish for this campaign to be successful. If you are interested in volunteering and helping our parish, please contact Fr. Mark for additional details.

NOTES ON THE MASS JAN 30 2022

SPIRITUALITY OF THE READING

The Carpenter's Son?

This week the other shoe drops. Last week Jesus spoke in a Nazareth synagogue and now we will hear the people's reaction to his message.

A hint: they will try to throw him off a cliff.

To see why, look at how bold Jesus was. First he searched out a prediction of the Messiah from the book of Isaiah. Here are the words he read in the synagogue:

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me
to bring glad tidings to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free,
and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord. (Isaiah 61:1-3)
The people loved him for this. But then he applied the reading to himself!

He said, "today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing" (Gospel)! "This scripture passage" was known to all as referring to the Messiah. They saw clearly that Jesus was actually claiming to be the Messiah! The synagogue was stunned. He had grown up in their midst. He was the carpenter's son, the one they used to see weekly in this same synagogue. Why in the world would a local man come up with such a bizarre story?
We already know why.

At the Jordan river, when he had received baptism, the heavens opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him and a voice from the heavens said, "You are my beloved son, and in you I am well pleased" (Luke 3:21-22)!

The Father's voice, out loud! Jesus' public ministry had begun. He was openly the anointed servant of God. Immediately he fled into the desert to brood and to pray. His divinity formerly had been lodged mainly at the depths of his human awareness. Now it had to be drawn up into consciousness and dealt with.

He was human, as well as knowing the divine answer deeply, and so he was attracted to the wrong answers too, ones suggested by the devil. Turn his divinity into self-satisfaction, into power, into reputation. He was authentically tempted. But each time he refused.

Now, as Luke says, he came back to Nazareth in the power of the Spirit. It became obvious why he had selected that passage from Isaiah in the synagogue. Isaiah's words were about him! He had heard it from God at his baptism. How were the Nazarenes supposed to have any understanding of this? He looked like a madman claiming equality with God! To them he was simultaneously insulting his hometown, his people, his country Israel, and God.

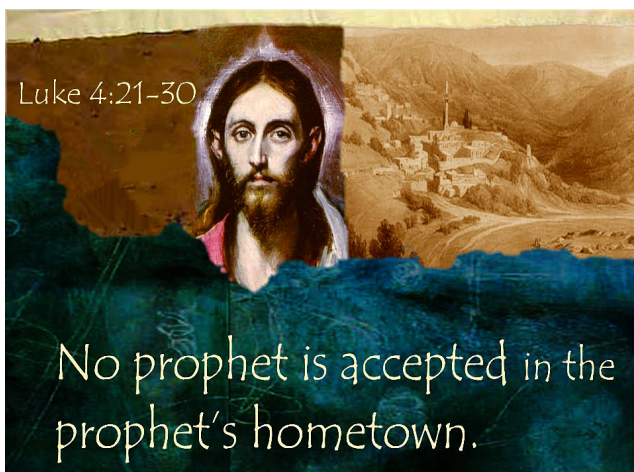

"He is out of his mind!" they shouted.

Jesus tells them that neither Elijah and Elisha, great prophets, could work their miracles in Israel, but went elsewhere to do them. "No prophet is accepted in his own native place," he says.

Suddenly he is claiming to be one of the prophets! They pull him out to a cliff to throw him off, planning to annihilate such a blasphemer. He escaped somehow but now the ball was in motion. This scene—and it is the first one described in his public ministry—forecasts his remaining life. First loved and accepted, then led to his death.

In the coming months we will see him carry out all of this. What will he do? We must find out, because we are to be filled with the same Holy Spirit.

READING II 1 Corinthians 12:31-13:13

GOSPEL Luke 4:21-30

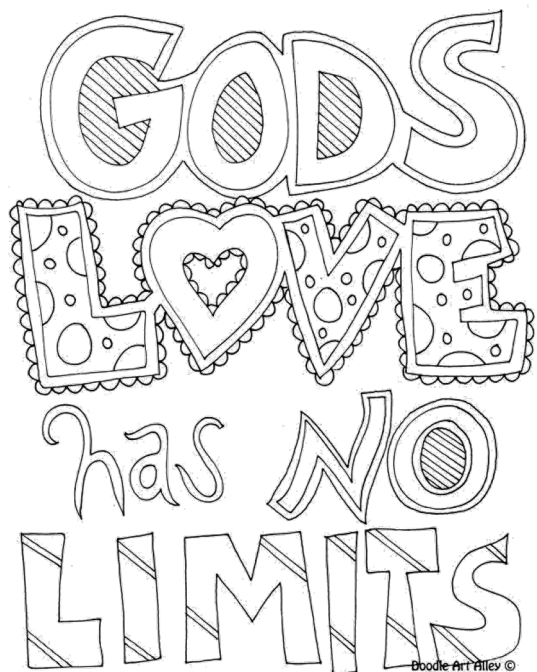

Question for Children: What ways do you show God's love to someone who is lonely or hurting?

Question for Youth: Who are the people in your life who mean the most to you? How do you show them how important they are to you?

Question for Adults: What is a way you show members of your family your love for them?

Use these activities to further reflect:

- Prepare a meal from another culture. Have your children help cook the meal. Discuss how the meal is similar to and different from meals that are common in your home. Remind family members of God's love for all people.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Dorothy, Virgin and Martyr, c. 303

The governor of Caesarea, Fabricius, imposed cruel punishments on Dorothy because of her refusal to worship idols or to marry. Dorothy spoke of the garden to which God would take her and the sweet fruits of the garden. The crowning blow for Fabricius occurred when women, sent to induce Dorothy to give up her faith, were themselves converted. This led to execution. As Dorothy was being led to her death, a young lawyer in the crowd, Theophilus, jeered at Dorothy and yelled at her to send him fruits when she reached the garden. Dorothy promised she would. Just before execution, Dorothy knelt and prayed. An angel appeared with a basket containing three apples and three roses which Dorothy sent to Theophilus, telling him that she would wait for him in the garden. After tasting the fruit, Theophilus became a Christian and, later, was himself martyred.

Dorothy's message today: Dorothy is a witness to the importance of forgiveness, something all of us can imitate today. She forgave the one who callously taunted her, inviting him to share the glories of paradise.

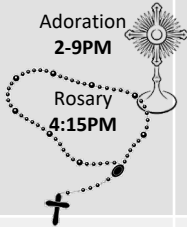

Are there people in your life who taunt you for your choice to follow Jesus more closely? Do you pray for them? Forgive them?
