THANK YOU COMMUNITY GARDEN VOLUNTEERS!

We appreciate everyone who put in their time and effort to make this Community Garden happen. The fence and shed are up and next steps will be to build the garden beds.

There will be 6-8 beds in total with each one designed so that it is easy for younger or older parishioners to plant (but that won't be happening until spring 2022).

Until that time the school is organizing curriculum for all grades, the seeds are getting ordered, the specifics of each bed are being chosen, the bench is being ordered and signage for the garden is being created.

Please consider how you and your family want to support this wonderful project moving forward.

You can always contact us at

NOTES ON THE MASS NOV 14 2021

SPIRITUALITY OF THE READING

Getting Ready for Getting Ready

Jagged and dark.

These are the kind of images we find in the main readings for Sunday.

"A time unsurpassed in distress"

"Some shall live forever, others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace."

"The sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken."

They are called "apocalyptic literature."* Why such horrible imagery, especially now with beautiful Advent just a few weeks away?

One reason is so that we might find within us a need for relief from all the turmoil. In other words, for the coming of the simple Christ child. Recall that in our 21st century we find just the opposite of this: competing ideologies striving to take over.

Look at the advertising world:

Shampooing your hair will make you ecstatic (with a corn-cob-eating grin on your face as you use the product). A car can "save your soul"! Casual sex without commitment is taken for granted. Free cable movie channels practicing the blasphemous use of God's and Jesus' name, censoring out only—sometimes—words referring to bodily functions.

Of course, in addition to such dehumanizing media forces, the world is faced with crises every bit as bad as what apocalyptic literature might suggest. The pandemic, to begin with. Economic crises that more than wrecks people's lives, toxic wastes, holes in the ozone layer, tsunami and hurricanes, major climate changes. You can certainly add more. Our readings do contain a few grains of hope.

At the end of the First Reading we find a beautiful promise of rescue:

*... the wise shall shine brightly
like the splendor of the firmament,
and those who lead the many to justice
shall be like the stars forever.*

Such a passage can give us peace ...

... and a problem. Should we be nourished by such lovely words, at a time when the greatest tribulations in human history are staring us in the face?

An awareness of our tribulations is not wrong. It is right. But how can you or I have any effect on the enormity of our situation?

Maybe we should get hyper-active instead, reforming television, recordings, movies, video games, and so on. No.

Try this:

First, Get smart. Examine carefully what we are able to do and with what effect. We are not helpless, no matter what we feel.

*God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change;
courage to change the things I can;
and wisdom to know the difference.*<sup>**</sup>

Second, let our courage rest in divine help.

*I know well the plans I have in mind for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you and bring you back. (Jer 29:11)<sup>***</sup>*

That is what Advent will aim towards. Use Sunday to wait for Advent waiting.

READING | Daniel 12:1-3

PSALM 16:5-11

READING II Hebrews 10:11-18

GOSPEL Mark 13:24-32

Question for Children: If Jesus came to visit you today, what would you do? What would say? How would you act?

Question for Youth: If today was your last day, what would you be most thankful for? What would you regret?

Question for Adults: If today was your last, what would you do with it?

Use these activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- To help your family focus on the promise of happiness with God forever in heaven, take a walk in nature. Notice how nature is getting ready for winter. Talk about the promise of new life in spring.
- Gather together as a family. Talk about some of the endings that have occurred in your life and family and how you were able to survive.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Frances Xavier Cabrini, Teacher & Religious

Frances Xavier Cabrini was the first citizen of the United States to be canonized as a saint. Born Maria Francesca Cabrini at San Angelo, Italy, she was naturalized as a citizen of the United States at Seattle in 1909. She joined the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart, and their ministry was the Christian education of girls. In 1889, Pope Leo XIII asked Frances to sail to the United States to work among the Italian immigrants there, and Frances left for New York with six other sisters. Within three months of their arrival, Mother Cabrini had already founded an orphanage and a school. In the thirty-five years before her death, she was to open sixty-seven hospitals, schools, orphanages, convents, and other foundations in the United States, Central America, and South America. Despite a great dread of water, Mother Cabrini sailed the oceans more than thirty times in her missionary work.

Mother Cabrini's message today: The strength of the United States has come from those who have emigrated from other countries to our shores. Mother Cabrini was sent to tend to the needs of these people. Today, we seem to have lost sight of the richness which immigrants have brought to our country.

Would you turn immigrants away or do you seek justice for them?

ALL GOD'S PEOPLE

WOMEN (AND MEN) STUDY SCRIPTURE, DISCOVERED GOD'S PROMISES
 ALL THROUGH THE WORLD. PEOPLE NOT ONLY A PERSONAL WORKING WITH NATURE (AND) HOW WE CAN USE GOD'S PEOPLE?

What type of people would          you like to help create? Why?	What would be the name of          your mission? What the name?
What would you need for          a work, mission, (promise)?	How would you receive the          people? In what way would          you share Jesus with them?

St Frances Xavier Cabrini

Almighty and Eternal Father, in Your goodness, You have given unto Your Church the life and witness of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini.

Through the merits of your faithful servant, may we persevere in living our call to be good citizens of our country and faithful children of Your holy church.

Lord Jesus, we implore the assistance of our friend, St. Frances Xavier Cabrini.

May she help us to serve others with joy,
even during trials and suffering.

St. Frances Cabrini, beloved spouse of the Sacred Heart, answer our prayers and needs that we offer to you in this moment.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, pray for us.
