FROM FATHER MARK NOV 28 2021

GREETINGS.

As we prepare to enter the holiday season and the season of giving, I wanted to share a few reflections and encouragements. As we begin the holy season of Advent, we are reminded that it is both a season of anticipation and season of giving thanks. In Advent, we anticipate the Incarnation, the coming of God into our world as one of us. We look forward to the birth of Jesus; Emmanuel; "God with us". Additionally, during this season, we are reminded of all the ways that we can recognize God among us.

Advent is also a time of thanksgiving. It is season of taking stock of our lives and even amidst the challenges and difficulties that we all face, we are encouraged to take the time to give thanks for the many and varied blessing in our lives.....the people, the relationships, the opportunities that are placed before us on a daily basis.

In that vein, I would like to share some information about an organization here in our parish for which we can be very thankful. I am speaking our Holy Trinity Foundation. The HT Foundation is a separate entity from the parish that was set up in 1974 to provide funds when large or unexpected needs arise in the parish. The foundation has provided funds over the years for many projects. I am sure there are probably some of which I am even unaware. Over the years, projects supported by the HT Foundation have included such things as a phone system, purchases of adjacent properties over the years, our baptismal font, church air conditioning, our cry room and the Plaza, to name just a few.

The foundation is a great asset to our parish and something for which we can be very thankful to those who established it and those who continue to support it. The ultimate goal of the Foundation is to ensure the continued vibrancy of our parish for decades to come. The more our foundation grows, the more it can help our parish. There are many ways to give: bequests, cash, stock/bond gifts, memorial gifts in honor of a specific person, etc. More information is available from the church office (515-255-3162) or you can see me.

Have a good week.

November 16, 2021

Dear Friends in Christ,

The weekend of the Third Sunday of Advent, December 11 – 12, 2021, we will take up a special collection for our retired religious--an appeal that benefits 26,000 elderly Catholic sisters, brothers and religious order priests. Recently Pope Francis noted that “there is no retirement age from the work of proclaiming the Gospel.” Surely this is true for our senior religious who never retire from their vows.

Instead, these holy women and men continue to be spirited ambassadors of the joy of the Gospel. In their younger years, they laid the foundation for the Catholic schools, hospitals and other works of mercy. Today many serve in volunteer ministry and continue to advocate for the needs of the poor and the powerless. Others remain wholly committed to their vocations, accepting the limitations of aging and embracing the opportunity to spend more time praying for our Church and the world.

The Diocese of Des Moines has been abundantly blessed by the dedication and ministry of religious throughout our history. Our gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious offers support that enables religious communities to care for older members while also ensuring younger members can sustain the mission of those who paved the way before them.

The Third Sunday of Advent is traditionally known as “Gaudete Sunday,” where the joy of the approaching birth of Jesus quickens hearts and stirs hope. The priest at Mass may elect to wear rose-colored vestments. We may not send roses to our retired religious, but our participation in this appeal is a spiritual and material bouquet on their behalf. I recognize that you may be experiencing your own financial challenges. I ask only that we give what we can. Most importantly, please join me in praying for God’s continued blessing on our nation’s elderly sisters, brothers, and religious order priests.

Faithfully in Christ,

NOTES ON THE MASS NOV 28 2021

SPIRITUALITY OF THE READING

Advent—A Time to Learn How to Wait

Carlo Carretto, the renowned spiritual writer, spent many years living alone as a hermit in the Sahara desert. He wrote a number of books from that place of solitude, including one entitled, Letters from the Desert. In that book, he has a message for those of us who live busy lives in the world. "What is God trying to say to us in our busy lives?" He suggests this:

*Be patient!
Learn to wait—for each other,
for love, for happiness, for God!*

Learn to wait! That's not something we do easily and many of our problems flow from that. We often don't wait properly for things.

Annie Dillard shares this story about proper waiting: She had been watching a butterfly emerge from its cocoon and was fascinated by the process until she grew impatient with how long it was taking and, to speed things up, took a candle and heated the cocoon, albeit very gently. The experiment worked, but it was a mistake in the long run.

The butterfly emerged more quickly; however, because adding heat violated something within the natural process, the butterfly was born with wings too weak to fly. Haste and prematurity had stunted and deformed a natural process. Some things can't be rushed.

Dillard understood immediately what had gone wrong. A certain chastity had been violated. Impatience had triggered an irreverence that had interfered with and damaged the natural order of things. In essence, the Christmas gift had been opened too early; the bride had been slept with before the wedding; a process that needed an allotted period of time had been short-circuited. There hadn't been enough advent.

Advent means waiting.

Among other things, it celebrates the idea that the messiah must be born from a virgin. Why? Is sex something unworthy of God? If Jesus had been born in a natural way, would that somehow have given him less dignity? This is a dark underside in some spiritualities, but Jesus' birth from a virgin has nothing to do with that.

Scripture and Christian tradition emphasize that Jesus was born of a virgin to underscore the fact that he had no human father and also to teach an important truth, namely, that in order for something sublime to be born there must, first, be a proper chastity, a proper time of waiting, a season of advent.

Why? The answer lies in properly understanding chastity. Chastity is not, first of all, something to do with sex. Chastity has to do with how we experience reality in general, all experience. To be chaste is to have proper reverence—towards God, towards each other, towards nature, towards ourselves, towards reality in general, and towards sex. Lack of chastity is irreverence, in any area of life, sex included. And reverence is a lot about proper waiting. We can see this by looking at its opposite: to lack chastity, to be irreverent, is to be impatient, selfish, callous, immature, undisciplined, or boorish in any way so that our actions deprive someone else of his or her full uniqueness, dignity, and preciousness. And we do this every time we short-circuit waiting.

Thus, it is understandable why the prime analogate for chastity is proper reverence in the area of sex. Sex, because it so deeply affects the soul, speaks most loudly about chastity or lack of it. Sex is only chaste when it is not short-circuited by impatience, selfishness, or lack of respect. Sadly, because sex is so powerful, these things are often short-circuited. We violate chastity in sex whenever there is prematurity, unfair pressure, subtle manipulation, crass force, taking without giving, posturing an intimacy we don't mean, lack of respect for previous commitments, disregard for the wider relationships of family and community, or failure to respect long-range happiness and health.

Annie Dillard's metaphor basically captures it: There is a fault in our chastity when we put a candle to the cocoon so as to unnaturally rush the process.

Chastity is about proper waiting and waiting is about patience in carrying the tensions and frustrations we suffer as we live the unfinished symphony that constitutes our lives.

There are some wonderful refrains in apocalyptic literature around the importance of waiting. Before the messiah can be conceived, gestated, and given birth to, there must always be a proper time of waiting, a necessary advent, a certain quota of suffering, which alone can create the proper virginal space within which the messiah can be born:

God is never in a hurry!
Every tear brings the messiah closer!
It is with much groaning of the flesh that the life of the spirit is brought forth! (Nikos Kazantzakis)

All of these phrases say the same thing: What's sublime depends upon there first having been some sublimation; a feast can only happen after there has first been some fasting; love can only be a gift if the gift is fully respected; and (as Carretto so poignantly puts it) we must learn to wait—for God, for love, for the bride, and for Christmas.

BRING THE GOSPEL HOME NOV 28 2021

READING I Jeremiah 33:14-16

PSALM 25:4-14

READING II 1 Thessalonians 3:12-4:2

GOSPEL Luke 21:25-36

Question for Children: What helps you to grow in your faith? Who helps you?

Question for Youth: Advent is the Church season when we prepare for Christ's birth at Christmas. What is one thing you can do to prepare yourself spiritually for Christmas?

Question for Adults: Paul exhorts us to "make greater progress" in our spiritual lives. What one step could you take to make greater progress in your own life?

Use these activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Make and bless an Advent wreath for your home. Recall the circle reminds us of God's eternal faithfulness. The four candles represent the four Sundays in Advent and Jesus who is the Light of the world. During Advent, focus your daily prayers around the Advent wreath.
- Together as a family do a Christmas craft or project that reflects the message of Christ's hope and promise. For example, make homemade Christmas cards or Christmas tree ornaments.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Catherine Labouré, Religious

Zoe Labouré was born in southern France. Her mother died when she was eight years old. Following her mother's funeral, she went into her bedroom, picked up a statue of the Blessed Mother and said, "Now, dear Lady, you are to be my mother." She eventually joined the Daughters of Charity and she often would see apparitions of Saint Vincent de Paul and Jesus. She once saw an apparition of Mary standing on a globe with rays streaming from her hands toward the globe. This would become the Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception Medal. Within a few years, millions of medals had been made and were found to be miraculous. It was near Zoe's death that she revealed her visions.

Catherine's message today: With God's grace one does not have to be a strong, outgoing type to accomplish much in the world. In the years since the Miraculous Medal was introduced, many miracles have been reported.

Have you prayed for the grace that you need to carry out God's will in your life?

God of light and life,
give us hope as we wait
