FROM FATHER MARK MAR 21 2021

GREETINGS.

Last week, I provided some information regarding the Annual Diocesan Appeal. I have some further news about this year's appeal. Our parish assessment for this year has increased slightly from $108,155 to $111,754. As you know, we made our assessment the last two years and we want to continue this trend each year.

The week before I shared how the appeal helps to support the priests and seminarians of our diocese. There are many other essential programs and ministries also supported by the Annual Appeal that a single parish simply cannot do on its own.

Another important ministry supported by your appeal pledges is our Catholic Charities. Catholic Charities assists in many areas and each year helps with the following:

- Counsels hundreds of individuals and families who are dealing with various issues and challenges
- Provides expanded sexual abuse and domestic violence programs in our diocese
- Assists refugee families from a variety of countries and assists them in finding shelter and work
- Feeds and clothes thousands of individuals at no cost through St. Mary's Family Emergency Center
- Houses families who are homeless and provides services to assist in transition into a self-sustaining situation

The above is yet one more essential ministry supported by your contributions to the Diocesan Appeal.

I invite all to give this your most prayerful consideration. All gifts, no matter the size, will help us to do our part as members of Holy Trinity Parish to support the work of our Church. Again, we need everyone's help; long time Parishioners, newer Parishioners, school families; all of the Holy Trinity community is needed in this annual effort.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish and its work in furthering the Gospel message.

Have a good week,

Fr Mark Neal

"Through the intercession of St. Joseph, we can well consider how we, too, are called to serve others through similar acts of creative, heroic charity. In the face of difficulties, St. Joseph was able to "bring out resources we did not even think we had" (Patris Corde, nn. 4, 8, 5.1)."

COMMUNITY IN MADAGASCAR Poor nutrition can lead to devastating long-term consequences for individuals, communities and entire countries. That's why communities must work together to ensure that all children have access to better food and nutrition. New planting and cooking techniques are helping many communities in Madagascar improve the health and wellbeing of their children. How does your community work together for the good of others?

DETAILS & REGISTRATION INFO IN THE MARCH ISSUE OF THE CATHOLIC MIRROR

hosted by your Des Moines Diocesan Council of Catholic Women

Please join the DM Faith Committee for Peace for a virtual ecumenical prayer service to raise voices in support of justice and peace and an end to racism. This will be on Palm Sunday, March 28th at 3:00 pm. We will remember the true meaning of Palm Sunday. It will be live-streamed from Capitol Hill Lutheran Church. THE DUBUQUE FRANCISCAN SISTER WATER PROJECT (SWP) Committee Invites Participants to "Walk for Sister Water" from March 12 - March 22 (World Water Day) to raise awareness of global water issues and raise funds for SWP. How the walk works:

1. Dedicate time (March 12-22) to walk the distance of 5K (3.1 miles) all at once or in segments. While you walk, consider that this is the distance some people have to walk daily to obtain clean water.
2. From March 12-22, follow the Sisters of St. Francis on Facebook

(<https://www.facebook.com/dubuquefranciscans/>) and Twitter (@DBQFranciscans) to see why others are walking and how villagers in Honduras and Tanzania have been helped by the Sister Water Project. Take photos of yourself walking and post on social media with #WalkForSisterWater or email to communications@osfdbq.org

3. After your walk, consider making a donation to the Sister Water Project at 3390 Windsor Ave, Dubuque, IA 52001 or online at <https://www.osfdbq.org/swpdonate>.

For more information, contact Sister Maureen Leach at (563) 583-9786 or leach@osfdbq.org or visit <https://www.osfdbq.org/swpwalk>.

NOTES ON THE MASS MAR 21 2021

SPIRITUALITY OF THE READING

Coming to Pieces

A tiny grain plants itself deep within the soil. It tucks its self into complete darkness. It is fearless, comforted by the tough, safe shell that is its home. It belongs there, and knows it. In quiet. In growth. Home.

Then calamity.

It is an ultimate, intractable, stupefying barrier.

The shell-shelter turns tight and invading and painful. The growing seed finds its peace replaced by shock. Its formerly great protector is now opposing it, holding it back. Crushing it. Then, suddenly, as if planned from all eternity, the protecting shell cracks right open. "Wait, wait, I need you," shouts the seed. Nothing doing. The shelter goes to pieces! Moisture trickles in, and bits of dank, cold soil. Anything and everything can now wriggle right into the heart of what was a quiet, pure place.

The seed goes crazy. What is left of it copes somehow, wildly extending a new, thin arm outward, then slithering out its whole self. "Steady by jerks" through the cracks in its shell. It had to get out of there, so it dares its way into the rough, cold mud. How foolish and how shaming. Stay where safety is, you fool!*

But the slowly transforming tiny self seems to take on a new life. Is this its new home now, in the slippery soil? It moves with caution. It is going upwards.

Too much is in its path, including a huge, unyielding rock. A jagged, rough, uncaring rock, heedless of tiny green shoots. And so the story ends.

Except that the former seed appears to have will power. It is seeking something—urging itself toward some pressing objective, rooting its way with intuitive ambition. Along the under-edge of the rock, brutally, fearfully and with rending pain. After what seems like years it achieves the far under-edge of the gnarly rock and, guess what. It starts upward again.

Now there are hard clods to press through and plenty of pebbles. The higher it goes the more dry the surrounding soil becomes. Then the top crust. It forbids any penetration. It is an ultimate, intractable, stupefying barrier. And so the story ends.

Except for one voice from deep within. Push. Push, it murmurs. I am with you.

Now just a thinnest lesion in the tough skin. With a certainty that might have been written on its heart, this vine-to-be gets to the place it was meant to be. In a heaven of light and warmth, bathed in the sun's astonishing rays, it is now a plant and it stretches and yawns in the wafting breezes of Spring. This is just like our own journey, isn't it? Dark mud can take a chokehold on our life.

But Jesus says, do not worry, child, trust me. "Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit" (Gospel)

GOSPEL: John 12:20-33

Question for Children: Name one thing you can do or stop doing that will help you have a better friendship with Jesus.

Question for Youth: Sometimes one thing needs to die in order for something new to be born. When have you experienced this in your own life? What do you need to let go of now for something new to grow?

Question for Adults: Name one area in your life that you need to let go of, to die to, in order to rise with new life.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Turibius de Mongrovejo, Bishop

As a young man, Turibius (or Toribio) was educated in law and soon recognized as a brilliant scholar. Much to his surprise, he was later ordained and made Archbishop of Lima, Peru, where he showed strong leadership and wisdom. He was surprised because he did not seek such a lofty position within the church. Peru at that time was beset with challenges, but Turibius kept faith and demonstrated great courage. He helped build the church into a stronger witness of the Gospel. The charities of Turibius were numerous. The bishop recognized that many of the poor Spaniards would not accept charity publicly or from anyone they knew. In these cases, he provided assistance without the beneficiaries knowing where the help came from.

Turbius' message today: In his lifetime, Turbius became known as a wise, humane, and just administrator, first during the Spanish Inquisition, then during his tenure in Peru. He met strong opposition from many who preferred the excesses of abuse and corruption. But this did not deter Turbius from seeking justice for the oppressed.

Many of the stands that we, as Catholics, take are not fashionable in our culture now. Nevertheless, we are obliged by our faith to take the moral high road, rather "politically correct" or not.
