Prayer for the Third Sunday of Easter

God of life, soften our hearts to your way, that our lives
may be a witness to a world
longing for your love.
May we have courage to walk with open hands and hearts to the places where we would rather not go.
Amen.

LIVESTREAMING UPDATE At the Easter Vigil, we experienced a power outage. Part of our LIVEstreaming hardware was damaged and will be replaced hopefully soon. This is the reason for the static and sound distortion currently. We have installed a second camera and are gradually learning to control it. We will need our parishioners to step up to help with this during Masses. Please contact Andy Negrete 255-3162 ext. 129 or andyn@holytrinitydm.org for more information.

NEXT BAPTISM CLASS ON MONDAY APRIL 19 If you are planning on baptizing your child at Holy Trinity, a Baptism Class is required. We will offer class on Mon, April 19. Please sign up for class by calling the Parish Office at 255-3162 ext.128. We look forward to celebrating this beautiful Sacrament with you!

WE NEED HELP!! Mass attendance is picking up. We are in need of more Ushers for all masses. If you are interested in helping with this ministry, please contact Andy Negrete 255-3162 ext. 129 or andyn@holytrinitydm.org

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS! To advertise, contact Andy Negrete 255-3162 ext. 129 or andyn@holytrinitydm.org

ALTAR SERVERS NEEDED We can have 2 Altar Servers at Weekend Masses. Eligible servers are students already trained with Parental Permission. Parents—email carolynr@holytrinitydm.org with student's name and Mass time availability. We could really use more Altar servers to rotate and support each other. Thank you!

PLEASE REMEMBER THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED...

of our Parish

NOTES ON THE MASS APR 18 2021

SPIRITUALITY OF THE READING

The Rest of the Story

We have all heard the story before. Two disciples walked to a small town, about seven miles from Jerusalem, Emmaus. They were sorrowful—I suppose in the same way all people tend to be when a relative has died. The disciples' hero was dead, the man they had thought was the messiah.

In fulfillment of these words the apostles experienced a conversion.

Suddenly, they were joined by a stranger. He began explaining to them the story of Christ as foretold in the Hebrew scriptures. When the three of them arrived at Emmaus, they ate, and, as he broke the bread, the men knew in a flash, just who he was. Then suddenly he disappeared. Mysterious.

These same men ran to Jerusalem as fast as they could, to tell the eleven apostles about this extraordinary revelation. Sunday's Gospel tells this part of the story. Surely they were babbling and prattling, being so excited. But in the midst of this excitement, suddenly, without warning, Jesus appeared. "They were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost."

Jesus replied that ghosts do not have flesh and bones, do they? Touch me and know I am real. He showed them his hands and feet, with the wounds of the cross now made beautiful by God's love.

Then comes Jesus' best move, a compassionate one. He says he is hungry. How much more un-ghostly could you get? He helps himself to the baked fish they bring him, just as he had done so often in their life together.

He begins to explain the events which had seemed like pure disaster: the passion, death, and burial in particular. He recalls everything written about him "in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms," just as he had done for the two men on the road to Emmaus. He tells why the Son of Man had had to suffer, die, and be then be raised.

How did he put it?

Surely he referenced the book of Job, a man who had been loving and moral, but had lost absolutely everything, which led to a direct encounter with God (maybe a prefiguring of the crucifixion).

And of course, the Book of Isaiah must have been part of it:

It was our infirmities that he bore, our sufferings that he endured, while we thought of him as stricken, as one smitten by God and afflicted. But he was pierced for our offenses, crushed for our sins, Upon him was the chastisement that makes us whole, by his stripes we were healed (Isaiah 53:4-5).

This passage is the heart and soul of Hebrew scriptures, and of the fulfillment that was Jesus, according to our Christian and Catholic belief.

What about the resurrection? Here is Isaiah again, words had been written centuries before Jesus:
Because of his affliction he shall see the light in fullness of days; Through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear. Therefore I will give him his portion among the great, and he shall divide the spoils with the mighty (Isaiah 53:11-12 italics added).

In fulfillment of these words the apostles experienced a conversion. Peter went off to preach what God "had announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer," (First Reading), and would die and be glorified.

This is the "rest of the story" of Emmaus. And now, since Easter, the rest of our own story.

BRING THE GOSPEL HOME APR 18 2021

READING I: ACTS 3:13-19

PSALM: 4:2-9

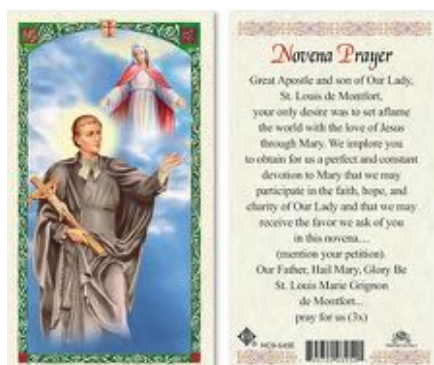

READING II: 1 John 2:1-5a

GOSPEL: Luke 24:35-48

Question for Children: Name times when you know Jesus is with you.

Question for Youth: What are some ways that you know that God is with you? Who are the people, where are the place, and what are the occasions when you feel closest to God?

Question for Adults: When have you had an "Aha" moment, when you suddenly realized that God was with you?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Louis de Montfort, Priest

Born in France, this saint was the oldest surviving child of a large family. Even as a young child, Louis exhibited a remarkable spiritual maturity. At the age of twelve, he was sent to the Jesuit College of St. Thomas Becket in Rennes where he developed a strong devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Awareness of the needs of the poor and the sick also developed during his years at St. Thomas. Together with some of his classmates, Louis spent some holidays tending to the needs of the poor and nursing the sick in hospitals. His studies were interrupted by his own works of charity as he cared for all those within his reach. Finally, he was ordained and lived a holy life as a priest.

Louis de Montfort's message today: All of us meet obstacles in life's journey. St. Louis overcame those that he encountered by frequent prayer and devotion to Mary.

What is your reaction to the difficulties that occur in your life? Try asking Mary and the saints for their intercession.
