FROM FATHER MARK MAY 8 2022

Greetings:

As you know, we kicked off the Ignite Campaign here at Holy Trinity last weekend.

In summary:

- The overall goal of the campaign for the Diocese is $45 million
- Here at Holy Trinity, our goal is $1.36 million
- After reaching 75% of our goal in pledges we will retain 15% for use here at HT...if we collect the entire amount of our goal we would retain $204,000
- For any funds collected beyond our goal we would keep 75%...this is our opportunity

To be clear this is separate from ADA or regular tithing; those go toward annual operating expenses at the Diocese and here in our parish.

This is an extraordinary request, but I do believe we have an extraordinary opportunity in front of us. We need all parishioners to take advantage of this opportunity, for both our Diocese and our Schools as well as Holy Trinity Parish.

There are a number of initiatives that will be funded by this campaign. Part of the campaign is a parish share portion. Here at Holy Trinity, our plan for the future is as follows: 1. Construct a designated gathering space 2. Add classroom space. To accomplish this, we would likely need at least a two-level building.

We are presently setting funds aside and will continue to do so. We may well need to do more future fundraising, but we want to minimize that as much as possible. This is our opportunity to start down this path.

I am inviting all parishioners to participate in this campaign. It is crucial to our Diocese, our Catholic Schools and our Parish. Finally, I want to wish all the mothers a Blessed Mother's Day.

Have a good week

Fr. Mark Neal

THE IGNITE! CAMPAIGN IS UNDERWAY, AND THE GENEROSITY OF OUR COMMUNITIES IS ON FULL DISPLAY! Many thanks to the volunteers who are working diligently and the donors who have given so generously in the early stages. To date, the campaign has already raised over $15 million! In the coming weeks, volunteers may be contacting some of you.

VOLUNTEERS – DUAL DONATION The volunteers who are contacting families are just that – volunteers. They have graciously agreed to donate their time and talent for the betterment of our parish and diocese. Please treat them with respect, give them a little of your time, and thank them for helping the parish and the diocese in this capacity. They are not trying to twist your arm, they just want to briefly explain the campaign goals, answer your questions, and encourage you to participate.

YOUR GIFT MATTERS Remember the letter you received from Bishop Joensen and Fr. Neal includes a financial request, not an expectation. It is an invitation. You may not be able to give what was asked. You may be able to give more than asked. Whatever you decide, know that your commitment is deeply appreciated and a true blessing.

Taking the Journey TOGETHER

NOTES ON THE MASS MAY 8 2022

Knowing from the Heart

Shepherds were extremely important to the well-being of a flock. They guided the sheep, made them safe, led them to food and drink. Today, Jesus said sadly that the people looked like “sheep without a shepherd.” Let us take this opportunity to reflect on animals and their humans.

Look at the endearing way domestic beasts recognize their owners. Dogs collapse into a frenzy of delight when you come home, even if you have been gone only for an hour. Hysterics are the least they can do.

Somewhere there may be a cat like this, but most of them have the opposite reaction to the heartsick dogs. “Oh it’s you again.”

I know one exception. One of my cousin’s cats models indifference with most people, but when I am in the house this cat makes a quiet bee-line to where I am sitting, making no secret of how it enjoys being petted by me. I am not sure whether to be complimented or not, nor can I explain it. There might be months between visits and still the cat makes its way to the petting machine, with both dignity and craving.

Did Jesus notice such things? He watched life around him carefully, judging from his stories. He certainly watched the relationship between shepherds and their flocks.

So what does he mean by his brief remarks about his sheep this Sunday?

In the Jerusalem of Jesus’ day various flocks of sheep would arrive with their respective shepherds, only to be turned into the same sheepfold together. This made for a rather large gang of sheep, and there wasn’t any practice of branding or marking to tell which was which. You can see the practical problem right away. Sheep, unlike dogs, do not rejoice themselves into knots when their shepherd shows up.

Then how does each shepherd get his own sheep back?

Two ways. One, the shepherd knows all his own sheep by heart. He has a special name for each character in the flock. And second, the sheep themselves know their master’s voice unmistakably. When he calls out, they simply get up and come to him. They follow him out through the sheep-gate. No mistake about it.

And that is Jesus’ reference in Sunday’s short Gospel. “My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me,” he says. You and I are the sheep he is talking about. He says we “shall never perish,” because he holds us in his own hands. In fact, it was the Father who gave us to Jesus, and no one can ever take us out of the Father’s hands.

Think about it. Have you ever longed for someone who could make things alright, who could help lift the responsibility from your shoulders? Someone who knows you by name and cares about you?

Maybe you do recognize Jesus’ voice when you hear it. It might be in the Gospel at Mass. Or when you receive the bread of everlasting life and the cup of salvation—not as a stranger might, but as a member of the well-fed and greatly cared for flock.

This Sunday, what about trying to notice how your spirit automatically inclines to Jesus? How you settle into his grasp for petting. How your soul seeks him. And finds him.

QUESTION FOR THE YOUTH Jesus said "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me." How does Jesus speak to you? What new path is he asking of you?

QUESTION FOR THE ADULTS What is your experience of being a follower of Christ, of being cared for and guarded with him as shepherd?

ACTIVITY OF THE WEEK Spend time this week listening to the Good Shepherd's voice. Turn off the TV and radio, the computer and video games and spend time in silence each day. At the end of the week, gather your family together to talk about the experience.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Anselm of Canterbury, Bishop and Doctor

Anselm was born in Italy and acquired a love of learning from his mother. He knew at an early age that he wanted to become a monk, and did so in 1060. He preferred the contemplative life, but after serving fifteen years as Prior, Anselm was chosen as Abbot of Bec in 1078. He composed many theological and philosophical writings during this time. He gained a reputation as a holy and scholarly man. William the Conqueror, on his deathbed, sought consolation from Anselm. Anselm eventually served as Archbishop of Canterbury the last sixteen years of his life.

ANSELM'S MESSAGE TODAY: Thrust into positions which he did not seek and tried to decline, Anselm nevertheless served well and earned the respect of all but a few of his flock.

How do you approach those unwelcome assignments into which you have been thrust? Do you put your best effort into them? Ask St. Anselm to help you.
