PINWHEELS FOR PEACE Imagine...“Whirled Peace”

September 21, 2021 In today's world, peace needs to become more than just a word. Holy Trinity School plans to take part in this International art, math, science, and literacy project, Pinwheels for Peace, by “planting” pinwheels with messages of peace on our campus. This project started in 2005 by two Art teachers, Ann Ayers and Ellen McMillan, of Coconut Creek, Florida, as a way for students to express their feelings about what's going on in the world and in their lives. At last count, in 2019, over 4.5 million pinwheels were spinning in over 3,500 locations, including the United States, Europe, Asia, Australia, Canada, the Middle East, Africa and South America. Mrs. Sherzan and Ms. Johnson will be coordinating the Pinwheels for Peace project this year. This project is non-political – peace doesn't necessarily have to be associated with the conflict of war, it can be related to violence/intolerance in our daily lives, to peace of mind. To each of us, peace can take on a different meaning, but, in the end, it all comes down to a simple definition: “a state of calm and serenity, with no anxiety, the absence of violence, freedom from conflict or disagreement among people or groups of people.” Your students will create pinwheels – and as part of the creation process, they will either write or draw their thoughts about peace in their own lives on one side and on the other side, they will be able to create a colorful design. They will assemble these pinwheels and on International Day of Peace (September 21) they will “plant” their pinwheels as a public statement and art exhibit/installation. Keep a lookout for the spinning of the pinwheels in the wind to spread thoughts and feelings about peace throughout the country and the world! For more information, go to <http://www.pinwheelsforpeace.com>

NOTES ON THE MASS SEP 19 2021

SPIRITUALITY OF THE READING

Childish Behavior

For the past Sundays Jesus has been shocking the disciples by showing himself as the “The Just One” from today’s First Reading: He was telling them the most intimate fact of his life. Let us trace it.

No human being can become truly and freely human without putting God in first place.

In the First Reading, people known as “the wicked” practiced what we could call a version of childish self-interest. They say,
“Look at this ‘righteous one.’ He thinks he is so wonderful. Let’s take his high opinion of himself and ‘test it.’ Let us see how revilement and torture will affect him. Let us see what a slow death will do to someone supposedly so patient and gentle.”

The Reading quotes these “evil ones” as saying, sarcastically, doesn’t this Just One claim that “God will defend him and deliver him from the hand of his foes”? We’ll fix him.

They practice mockery and cruelty, all based on self-deception.

Mockery: “If he says he is so wonderful, if he has God on his side, surely he will pass our little test. We are just conducting an ‘interesting experiment’.”

Translation: he’s on the wrong side, kill him.

Cruelty: “He thinks he is so holy. We will give him torture, revilement, and a shameful death. This is just reasonable research, to see how he will react.”

Translation: holiness is all a sham, a way for people to get what they want. Well, we want him dead.

Self-deception: we do not need this God stuff. We base our lives in what is real.

Translation: we are more important than God and this Jesus H. Christ. Self-interest will always win.

All these are seductively false. No human being can become truly and freely human without putting God in first place, valuing everything else in relation to God’s love—even power, even wealth, and especially pride.

The disciples, out of confusion, engaged in a long argument, about which of them was the greatest! It was as if they had started fighting for the best toys, just like children.

Instead of this, Jesus says in the Gospel that, in fact, the Son of God was going to be condemned to a shaming torture that the wicked had planned and would be killed. It would look exactly as if God did not care.

“This is what I am going to do,” he says. I will be saying “I love you,” to my Father. But I will do it by not resisting insults and humiliating death because I love God above these things.

And I love the world, everything that is in it.
And I love you, with the fullness and warmth and generosity of God’s everlasting love.

Even if it is hard for us to believe, God’s promise is that, out of suffering and death good can emerge. Ultimately it seems that good can come only out of these.

In the end, God does defend us and deliver us from the hand of our foes.

John Foley, SJ

READING I Wisdom 2:12-20

PSALM 54:3-8

READING II James 3:16-4:3

GOSPEL Mark 9:30-37

Question for Children: What are some specific ways in which you can serve your friends or family members?

Question for Youth: Sometimes, when we strive to be first or be the one that wins, we hurt others. When has striving to be first hurt others? What can you do differently in the future to help others to succeed?

Question for Adults: Is the role of being a servant for others easy or difficult for you to embrace?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Pio of Pietrelcina, Priest

Born on May 25, 1887, in Pietrelcina, Benevento, Italy, the son of Grazio Mario and Maria Giuseppa Forgione, this saint was baptized Francesco Forgione. The boy inherited the piety of his family and knew from a young age that he wanted to be a priest. He entered the Capuchin order months before his sixteenth birthday and was ordained a priest at the age of 23. It was at this time that he became Padre Pio, the name for which he became world famous. This saint was given many gifts by God. In 1918, while praying in front of a crucifix, he was given the visible stigmata, the wounds that Christ received on the cross. Padre Pio was also given the gift of reading the hearts of those who came to him for confession or spiritual guidance.

Padre Pio's message today: During his lifetime, this saint became the spiritual father to many thousands of people, not just those who came to him, but to their families and friends. He promised to wait outside the gates of heaven until all of his children had entered.

Say a prayer to Saint Pio and ask him to adopt you as one of his spiritual children.
