Taking the Journey TOGETHER

“Lift up your heads and see; your redemption is near at hand.”

From Father Mark | December 22nd & 29th, 2023

Greetings,

This letter will be brief. I just want to wish all of the Holy Trinity family a Merry Christmas. It is coming up on 7 years since I became pastor of Holy Trinity; my home parish. I am very grateful for the opportunity to serve in a parish with such a rich history and vibrant faith. I also want to take this opportunity to say thank you to our parish staff, and our school faculty....please express to them your thanks; they do an outstanding job. We also have so many tremendous volunteers; without them the parish would come to a grinding halt. Thanks so much!

A big thanks to all those who made our Christmas Masses so prayerful and joyful; our deacons, Mass coordinators, lectors, Eucharistic ministers, servers, ushers, greeters... and to all of our musicians and singers. Special thanks to Tom Quiner and Eric Sharp for coordinating our musical efforts. Also, a big thanks to Brad Rea and his team of volunteers for decorating our church year around and making it so beautiful for our Christmas season. Thanks also to Bob Zimmerman for repairing our manger barn so that we can continue using this piece built by Fr. Ostdiek.

Finally, thank you to all those who sent cards, gifts and well wishes at Christmas. They were much appreciated!

Merry Christmas,

Father Mark Neal

Fourth Sunday of Advent

Advent The twofold character of Advent calls us to prepare for the remembering of the Word made Flesh at Christmas, and directs us to wait with alertness for Jesus' second coming.

Reading I : Micah 5:1-4

From you will come forth a savior.

- The prophet Micah preached in and around Jerusalem in the eighth century B.C.
- In today's passage, Micah proclaims that hope will arise from another "city of David," Bethlehem, and not Jerusalem.
- The new king, the new anointed one who would bring salvation, would come like David from Bethlehem, and his kingdom would reach to the ends of the earth.

Reading II : Hebrews 10:5-10

One sacrifice instead of many.

- The reading from the Letter to the Hebrews presents the incarnation of Jesus from a different perspective.
- In today's passage, the author discusses the difference between Jewish sacrifice and the one Christian sacrifice, the death of Jesus.
- Jesus' sacrifice of himself, a sacrifice offered only once, was made possible by his assuming a human body and human existence.

Gospel : Luke 1:39-45

Mary visits Elizabeth.

- In today's Gospel, Mary travels to the hill country of Judah, to the home of Zechariah and Elizabeth, where she visits Elizabeth.
- When they meet, Elizabeth proclaims the greatness of Mary's child and John the Baptizer, still in her womb, leaps for joy.
- Luke makes it evident in today's passage, that both mothers and both children are filled with the Holy Spirit.

Bring Home the Gospel | December 22nd, 2024

Reading I | Psalm | Reading II | Gospel

Question For The Children How does the Blessed Virgin Mary help you to follow Jesus?

Question For The Youth When have you experienced the presence of the Holy Spirit?

Question For The Adults What role does Mary play in your own spirituality? If you were Elizabeth, how would you greet her at your doorway, if she were to arrive there?

Activity Of The Week Plan a time to gather the family together around the Christmas tree. Light the tree and ask each family member to reflect on a time when he or she has known the presence of the Holy Spirit. Allow time for family members to share their experiences.

Saint Of The Week Blessed Elisha of St. Clement, Religious, 1901-1927 Born Theodora Fracasso in Bari, Italy on January 17, 1901, this saint knew from a very early age that she was called to be a nun. In a vision, the young girl, about four years old at the time, saw a beautiful lady walking among the flowers in a garden and then disappearing in a bright ray of light. Theodora's mother explained the vision to her. The child decided then that she was being called to become a nun and devoted her young life to preparation for that calling.

Sent to a school run by nuns, Theodora continued to grow in faith. The night before she was to make her First Communion, she had a vision of St. Teresa of Jesus (St. Teresa of Avila) who told her that she would become a nun just as Teresa had. In later years, Theodora joined her friends in groups to study Scripture, the lives of the saints, and one that she especially liked, The Story of a Soul, the autobiography of St. Thérèse of Lisieux.

Introduced by the priest who was her spiritual director to the Third Order Dominicans, Theodora was accepted as a novice in 1914 notwithstanding her young age. Through the years of World War I, she worked as a catechist and to provide support in whatever way she was able to those around her.

Entering the convent in the Spring of 1920, Theodora took the name Elisha of St. Clement. Besides St. Teresa of Jesus, she also chose St. Thérèse of Lisieux as a model, citing her "little way of spiritual childhood where I felt called by the Lord." Her final vows were taken in February 1925.

Sister Elisha's life in the convent was never easy, but she persevered in each of the roles to which she was assigned. The Mother Superior, who recognized the holiness of this young sister as a novice, placed her at the boarding school for girls run by the convent where she taught embroidery. The headmistress of the school was less understanding and felt that Elisha, who showed her love for her students, was too lenient with the girls. Of strict disposition and lacking the skills to deal with people in any other than an authoritarian manner, the headmistress found fault with most of Elisha's actions.

Eventually transferred back to the convent, Sister Elisha continued her prayerful and loving life. The Mother Superior appointed her as sacristan of the convent, but in January 1927, Elisha suffered a severe bout of influenza which led to frequent headaches and illnesses. All of this suffering the sister accepted without complaint and even refused to take medicine.

In December 1927, Elisha again suffered a severe illness and fever which was presumed to be just another episode in the series. Only on Christmas Eve was a doctor called in to see her. In his judgment, her condition was not serious. The next morning, her condition having worsened overnight, two doctors came to see her and stated that her condition was irreversible. She died at noon on Christmas Day, fulfilling a prediction that she had made sometime earlier that she would die on a feast day.

Blessed Elisha of St. Clement was beatified on March 18, 2006.

Elisha of St. Clement's message today: This saint discerned her vocation very early in life, something that most of us cannot do. But, at whatever stage of our life we choose a calling, it should be done with prayer and good judgment.

- If you have yet to choose where you are going with your life, ask Blessed Elisha to pray for you.

Feast of The Holy Family

Christmas During the Christmas season from December 24th until the Sunday after Epiphany, we reflect upon the mystery of love that is made visible in the birth and early childhood of Christ.

Reading I : Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14

Show reverence for God by honoring your parents.

- The Book of Sirach is among the group of writings known as Wisdom Books.
- Today's reading focuses on the duties of children toward their parents.
- Children are to honor their parents as God had ordained through Moses at Mount Sinai.

Reading II : Colossians 3:12-21

Serve the Lord by loving one another.

- The reading from Colossians reminds Christians of their duties toward one another, both in their immediate family and in the wider community.
- Paul instructs family members to remain faithful to the demands of their life-situation.
- In all relationships, forgiveness, love and a positive attitude should prevail.

Gospel : Luke 2:41-52

The boy Jesus stays behind in the Temple.

- In today's Gospel, the Holy Family is on a pilgrimage from their hometown of Nazareth in Galilee to Jerusalem in Judea.
- It is the feast of Passover, one of the high feast days on which devout Jews came to the temple to celebrate.
- Luke stresses in the story of Jesus in the temple that even Jesus' parents only come to know Jesus' divinity and his connection to his heavenly Father, through the gift of faith.

Bring Home the Gospel | December 29th, 2024

Reading I | Psalm | Reading II | Gospel

Question For The Children Why is it important to obey our parents? Why is it important to obey God?

Question For The Youth Jesus was obedient to his parents, even though he was the Son of God. Why is obedience so important? Is it something you struggle with?

Question For The Adults How are you, too, called to our Father's house?

Activity Of The Week Put the name of each member of the family in a bowl. Ask each family member to draw a name from the bowl and to write a thank you letter to that person for what he or she does for the family. Share the letters with the family.

Saint Of The Week John, Apostle and Evangelist, First Century John and his brother, James, were the sons of Zebedee. Like his father and brother, John was a fisherman on Lake Gennesaret until, with James, he was called by Jesus to follow him. John was the youngest of the apostles. He and James were called "sons of thunder" by Jesus because of their volatile temperaments. Many events in all of the gospels attest to the fact that John was among those apostles closest to Jesus. Perhaps the best known incident is at the Crucifixion, where Jesus placed his mother, Mary, in the care of John. And he, representing all of us, was commended to Mary as her son.

St. Paul refers to John, along with Peter and James, as "these leaders, these pillars" of the Church in Jerusalem (Gal. 2:9). According to tradition, John went to Rome during one of the early persecutions under Emperor Domitian and miraculously escaped martyrdom by emerging from a cauldron of boiling oil unscathed. He was exiled to the island of Patmos where he began his writing with the Book of Revelation. Later, after the death of Domitian, John returned to Ephesus where he wrote the fourth gospel and three epistles. He died there in about 100, the last surviving apostle and the only apostle who did not suffer martyrdom.

The writings of John are unique among the Evangelists. In many of the events recorded by him, he writes as a playwright would; first setting the stage, then describing the characters, and, finally, presenting the dialog which took place. Three examples of this quality found in his gospel are Jn 4:5-42 (the woman at the well); Jn 9:1-41 (the man born blind), and Jn 11:1-45 (Lazarus raised from the dead).

St. John the Evangelist is often called St. John the Divine in England and in the Eastern Church. A Feast honors this saint on December 27.

John's message today: Imagine being one of Jesus' closest friends! Imagine living, working, and sharing your life with the Messiah, traveling where he traveled, witnessing his miracles, listening to his stories. Toward the end of his life, John recorded his experiences as a disciple of Jesus so that we can have an idea of what it was like to know Jesus.

- Reading Scripture will help you develop a stronger relationship with Jesus. Start with John's first letter to get an idea of how much God loves you.
