Eighth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Taking the Journey TOGETHER

“The Lord’s kindness is everlasting to those who fear him.”

From Father Mark | March 2nd, 2025

This weekend, we have the official kickoff for this year's Annual Diocesan Appeal. Our goal this year is slightly more than last years, at $105,708 ; a two percent increase from last year. Please carefully consider your pledge to this year's appeal. If you are able to increase your gift from last year, that would be greatly appreciated. If you have not been able to be regular contributor to the Annual appeal, I encourage you to begin this habit. Please be assured that all gifts are appreciated no matter the amount.

The appeal is essential to the administration of our diocese. The funds raised in the annual appeal helps us to do many things that a single parish cannot do on its own. Among the beneficiaries of the Annual Appeal funds are our diocesan youth ministry and Catholic school programs, marriage preparation for those wishing to be a married in the Church, and the thousands of people assisted by Catholic Charities.

The annual appeal also helps to support our seminarians; your future pastors, our retired priests who have dedicated their lives to the service of our diocese as well as the active priests whose medical insurance is provided by the diocese, thereby relieving the parishes of this expense. There are many other programs and ministries supported by your contributions to the Annual Diocesan Appeal. Thank you for your continued generosity to our diocese and to Holy Trinity, and please remember that any amount we go over our assessed goal stays here in the parish for our own use.

Have a good week

Fr. Mark Neal

As we prepare for the beginning of Lent and the start of the Jubilee Year of Hope, please join us for an afternoon of prayer and reflection on the Lenten scriptures. This is a wonderful opportunity to go deeper this Lent as we focus on the Source and Summit of our Catholic faith.

OUR PRESENTER: DR. JOHN HUYNH

Dr. John Huynh is the Director of Social Justice for the Diocese of Des Moines and Catholic Charities. Previously, he served as the director of spiritual faith formation for the faculty and staff of Catholic schools in the diocese. He holds a BA in Philosophy and an MA in Fundamental Theology from Loras College, as well as a Doctorate in Ministry from Barry University. John is committed to making the richness of Catholic Social Teaching accessible and practical for everyday Catholics. As a theologian, he enjoys exploring practical ways to integrate faith into daily life, especially in the context of family and community. Lately, he's been reflecting on how parents can leverage the opportunities youth sports create to pass on the faith, rather than seeing them as competing forces. Outside of his ministry, John is a devoted husband to Amy and a proud dad to three children, all of whom attend St. Francis School. A lifelong soccer enthusiast, he has spent the past 16 years coaching at Dowling Catholic and cheering on his favorite club, Arsenal.

Eighth Sunday of Ordinary

Ordinary Time For a large part of the liturgical year, we devote ourselves to listening to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects unfolded as we seek God's truth and understanding.

Reading I : Sirach 27:4-7

Praise no one before he speaks.

- One's faults show when we are shaken.
- Tribulation is the test of the just.
- One's speech discloses the bent of one's heart.

Reading II 1 Corinthians 15:54-58

God gives us victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

- Death will never be victorious.
- God gave us victory over sin and death through Jesus Christ.
- Be devoted to the work of the Lord.

Gospel : Luke 6:39-45

From the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks.

- Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but not the wooden beam in your own eye?
- A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor a rotten tree bear good fruit.
- Every tree is known by its own fruit. What fruit do I bear?

Bring Home the Gospel | March 2nd, 2025

Reading I | Psalm | Reading II | Gospel

Question For The Children Jesus teaches us to do good. What did you do this past week that was really good, kind or loving?

Question For The Youth Jesus says that our words reveal what is in our hearts. How do your words and actions reveal what is truly in your heart?

Question For The Adults We humans are vulnerable to sin. But we see the sins of others more easily than we recognize our own sins. Why does Jesus warn us not to judge others?

Activity Of The Week Pray, thanking God for your family. Invite each person in the family to name what they are most thankful for in each person.

Saint Of The Week Martin de Porres, Religious Martin was the illegitimate son of a Spanish knight and a freed Panamanian slave. Born and raised in Lima, Peru, he was part of the poorest and lowest level of society. As a young man, Martin applied to the Dominicans to be a "lay-helper" because he didn't himself feel worthy to be a religious brother. He often spent his nights in prayer, while his days were filled with caring for the sick and the poor. He founded an orphanage and looked after the slaves brought from Africa. After nine years, his example of prayer and penance, charity and humility, led his religious community to ask Martin to make a full religious profession.

All of us are children of God and all of us deserve justice in our dealings with others. Martin cared not whether those he helped were slaves or free men, rich or poor. If they needed his help, he was available to them. We should do no less. St. Martin de Porres is the patron saint of interracial justice. An optional memorial on November 3 honors him.

Martin's message today: All of us are children of God and all of us deserve justice in our dealings with others. Martin cared not whether those he helped were slaves or free men, rich or poor. If they needed his help, he was available to them. We should do no less.
