Baptism Class. If you want to baptize your child at Holy Trinity, please attend Baptism Class! The next class is on April 8th at 6:00 p.m. in the media center. Contact Jan Swinton at jans@holytrinitydm.org to register.

BISHOP MAURICE DINGMAN AWARD. Sisters Elaine and Jeanie Hagedorn will be honored with the Bishop Maurice Dingman Award during a celebration April 6 at Holy Trinity Church in Des Moines. Sister Jeanie joined her religious community in 1956, and her sister, Elaine, joined her one year later. The sisters dedicated their lives in service to the poor and vulnerable, and in the work of building peace. They served at Visitation Parish, now called Our Lady of the Americas Parish. Sister Jeanie taught in Catholic schools for more than 30 years, taught English classes for immigrant adults, and coordinated religious education programs for public school students. She served as part of her community's leadership team, and as the peace and justice coordinator for several years. Sister Elaine continued her community and outreach work.

This annual event serves as a fundraiser for the Catholic Peace Ministry. Tickets are $50 or an amount that works for you. Please reserve your tickets through catholicpeaceministry@gmail.com or by calling 515-710-9902.

Now Hiring We are now hiring for a Pastoral Care Minister at Holy Trinity Church. We are looking for someone who is responsible for the integrated care of spiritual, physical, and emotional health for Holy Trinity Catholic Church members and families within the church.

Submit a resume, cover letter, and references to maryg@holytrinitydm.org.

See full job description here: HT Pastoral Care Minister

Catholic Charities Family Shelter. Would you be willing to make and deliver dinner for the residents of the Catholic Charities Family Shelter? The fourth Saturday of each month is reserved for HT parishioners to do so. You are welcome to work together with a group of families or your organization for this purpose.

Please prayerfully consider participating; you can sign up at tinyurl.com/htstjoe or contact Nick Bigelow for more details at bigelow.nick@gmail.com.

Second Sunday of Easter

Easter: The sound of Alleluias fills the 50 days of Easter Sunday to Pentecost as we give thanks for the gift of our salvation. The Easter Triduum recalls the passion and resurrection of Christ in the sacred journey from Holy Thursday to Easter Vigil. "Dying he destroyed our death. Rising he restored our life."

Reading I : Acts 4:32-35

The community was of one heart.

- The readings for the Sundays after Easter reflect on the experiences of the early Church.
- Today's first reading presents an ideal of the early Christian community.
- The result of true Christian love put into practice is justice.

Reading II : 1 John 5:1-6

We are called to keep the commandments of God.

- In the second reading, John makes the point that through Christ's blood and sacrifice; at the moment of Christ's death, the world is saved.
- By our Baptism into the death of Jesus, we are born to new life as children of God.
- Our duty is simply to believe in Jesus Christ.

Gospel : John 20:19-31

Peace be with you.

- The gospel is John's description of the first appearance of Jesus since the resurrection.
- In the first appearance, Jesus gives the disciples peace and joy and breathes new life into them, bestowing on them the gift of the Holy Spirit.
- In the second appearance, Jesus appears to Thomas and by showing his wounds he gives Thomas the evidence he needs to believe.

Bring Home the Gospel | April 7th, 2024

Reading I Acts 4:32-35 | Psalm | Reading II 1 John 5:1-6 | Gospel John 20:19-31

Question For The Children How can you believe in Jesus whom you have never seen?

Question For The Youth Jesus' words of greeting were "Peace be with you," followed by the invitation to forgive sins. How does forgiveness bring peace to you? How does it change the world?

Question For The Adults What strengthens your faith? Why do you believe in Jesus?

Activity Of The Week Read a story about someone who was a witness to Jesus. You may want to find a book of stories about the saints. Check your parish library or a religious bookstore.

Saint Of The Week Peter Chanel, Priest and Martyr, 1803-1841 Peter was the fifth child of Francis and Mary Ann Chanel, peasants living in Cluet, France. Mary Ann recognized that her son could perform great service to God and she dedicated him to Mary. His education was turned over to the priest in their parish who saw him through his elementary schooling. Peter then chose to enter the seminary where he was esteemed by both students and faculty. After his ordination in 1827, Peter was assigned to a rundown and lax country parish which, by simply caring for the sick, he completely revitalized in three years. Peter's ambition had always been to become a missionary, however, and when the Society of Mary (Marist) order was founded, Peter joined in 1831.

Peter's first duties with the Marists were not exactly what he had envisioned. His assignment was to teach at the Marist seminary, which he did for five years. In 1836, the Marists were given the New Hebrides islands in the Pacific as area for their evangelical work. Father Chanel was assigned as the superior of seven Marists sent as missionaries. Upon their arrival in Oceania the band split up and Peter Chanel and a lay brother went to the island of Futuna.

The two missionaries were well received by the pagan islanders on Futuna, and the king, who had recently abolished cannibalism, was among their welcomers. Chanel and the lay brother had some initial success in their conversion efforts, but real progress came only after they learned the islanders' language.

As the number of conversions began to grow, the king realized that the adoption of Christianity by his people posed a threat to some of his prerogatives. When his own son expressed a desire to be baptized, the king sent his warriors to club Father Chanel to death and cut his body to pieces. Thus, on April 28, 1841, Father Peter Chanel became the first Marist to be martyred and the first martyr in Oceania.

A measure of the success of Peter Chanel's mission work is in the fact that within months of his death, the whole island of Futuna was converted to Christianity. St. Peter Chanel, the patron of Oceania, was canonized in 1954. An optional memorial is celebrated honoring this saint on April 28.

Saint's message today: Given the success that he was having and the initial welcome from the king, Peter probably did not expect to suffer martyrdom. That is true of most people today in a civilized world. And yet martyrdom still occurs in our times, even in some so-called civilized countries.
