Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1 : Ex 19:2-6a

In those days, the Israelites came to the desert of Sinai and pitched camp. While Israel was encamped here in front of the mountain, Moses went up the mountain to God. Then the LORD called to him and said, "Thus shall you say to the house of Jacob; tell the Israelites: You have seen for yourselves how I treated the Egyptians and how I bore you up on eagle wings and brought you here to myself. Therefore, if you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people, though all the earth is mine. You shall be to me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation."

Reading 2 : Romans 5:6-11

Brothers and sisters: Christ, while we were still helpless, yet died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. How much more then, since we are now justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath. Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, once reconciled, will we be saved by his life. Not only that, but we also boast of God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Gospel : Matthew 9:36—10:8

At the sight of the crowds, Jesus' heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest."

Then he summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits to drive them out and to cure every disease and every illness. The names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew, Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James, the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus; Simon from Cana, and Judas Iscariot who betrayed him.

Jesus sent out these twelve after instructing them thus, "Do not go into pagan territory or enter a Samaritan town. Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, drive out demons. Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give."

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

For a large part of the liturgical year, we devote ourselves to listening to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects unfolded as we seek God's truth and understanding.

Reading I : Jeremiah 20: 10-13

He has delivered the soul of the needy from the hands of evil men.

- Today's passage comes from the middle of Jeremiah's prayer and it is the most graphic description of this prophet's struggle.
- Jeremiah complains bitterly to God about the cost of his prophetic call.
- Like most biblical laments, Jeremiah's complaint is interwoven with expressions of trust in God.

Reading II : Romans 5:12-15

God's gift to us is nothing like our sin against him.

- In the Letter to the Romans, Paul compares Adam, the first human, to Jesus, the firstborn of the new creation.
- Death is the result of sin; sin separates us from God who is the source of life.
- Jesus was completely obedient to God, and he therefore became the perfect channel of life for all humans.

Gospel : Matthew 10:26-33

Do not fear those who can kill the body.

- Today's passage from Matthew's Gospel is part of the missionary discourse that follows the sending out of the Twelve.
- Jesus reminds the disciples of the great and powerful care of the Father.
- Using the typical argument of the lesser to the greater, Jesus stresses that not even a sparrow dies without God's consent.

Bring Home the Gospel | June 18, 2023

Reading I Exodus 19:2-6a | Psalm 100:1-3, 5 | Reading II Romans 5:6-11 | Gospel Matthew 9:36-10:8

Question For The Children Have you ever had to walk in the dark with no light? How is that like walking by faith and not by sight? What did you have to do to keep going in the dark?

Question For The Youth Do you pray and ask for faith? How do you work on building your faith?

Question For The Adults When do you find it hardest to have faith? Must you “see” answered prayer, or can you peacefully accept God’s will?

Activity Of The Week Make a list of the earthly possessions that mean the most to you. Now make a list of ways that you mimic Jesus and the Apostles to build the Christian that you are. Which list is most important to you?

Saint Of The Week Anthony of Padua

Born Ferdinand de Bulhoes in Lisbon, Portugal, Anthony was the son of a knight in King Alphonso’s court. He began his studies at the cathedral in Lisbon and joined the Augustinians when he was fifteen. Ordained in about 1219, Anthony transferred to the Franciscans in 1221 at which time he took the name Anthony. He was a great preacher, who was renowned for drawing people to Christ through his words. He worked to abolish debtors’ prisons, helped the poor, and worked ceaselessly and untiringly with those whose faith was weak. All of this took its toll on Anthony’s health and he died on June 13 at the age of 36.

Anthony’s message today:

Anthony has been a favorite saint for hundreds of years because of the belief that he intercedes with God on behalf of many who have lost articles. Any Catholic who has, say, misplaced the car keys and said a short prayer to St. Anthony can tell you how they “miraculously” found their keys virtually “under their noses.” We can count on the saints to help us, knowing that they, too, experienced many of the difficulties we encounter in our own lives.

Is there a special need that you have at this time that may be helped by the intercession of a saint?

Bring Home the Gospel | June 25, 2023

Reading I Jeremiah 20: 10-13 | Psalm 100:1-3, 5 | Reading II Romans 5:12-15 | Gospel Matthew 10:26-33

Question For The Children Jesus tells us not to be afraid. Name a time when you were afraid and Jesus helped you.

Question For The Youth Jesus tells us that he will remember us to his Father if we proclaim him to others. How easy is it for you to talk about your faith with your friends? How about your family or people you don't know very well?

Question For The Adults What is your responsibility to Jesus? How and when will you carry out that responsibility?

Activity Of The Week Today's readings remind us that God watches over and protects us. Together with your family listen to the song "Be Not Afraid," by Bob Dufford. Discuss: How does faith in Christ help you when you are afraid?

- Saint John Fisher -

Saint Of The Week John Fisher

John was born in Beverly, York, England, and he was a gifted scholar. He eventually came to serve as bishop, chancellor of the University of Cambridge, and in other high positions. While he was advising Catherine of Aragon, wife of King Henry VIII, he began his final journey. When Henry tried to divorce Catherine, the bishop strongly defended the validity and indissolubility of the marriage. And as Henry took further steps toward separating the Church in England from Rome, John Fisher spoke out in defense of the Church and the supremacy of the pope. Eventually he was beheaded for his loyalty to the Catholic Church.

John's message today:

John Fisher refused to go against his principles. It can be easy to compromise one's beliefs for worldly gain, particularly when one's life is at stake. We can look to people like John Fisher as models when we are called upon to yield on what we believe in.

Have you compromise your principles for a gain in power, influence, or wealth? Do you have the strength to stand up for your beliefs?
