Taking the Journey TOGETHER

The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a person took and sowed in a field. It is the smallest of all the seeds, yet when full-grown it is the largest of plants. - Mt 13

From Father Mark | July 16 & 23, 2023

Greetings.

I am writing with a few updates:

- Our statue of the Blessed Mother is back in the church. It has been repaired, refurbished, and painted. It looks like new. Many people noticed when it was back. The St. Joseph statue is now away to be refurbished. It should be back by the end of the month.
- As I write this letter, the roof of the church is being replaced. This is the first time in 30 years so it was overdue and was leaking significantly when we got heavy rains. It should be completed by the time you read this.
- Also, we have been having some drywall damage and cracks in the church repaired and those areas repainted. So far, both entry ways have been completed and work is continuing in other areas of the church.
- Finally, we have gone over our assessment for the annual appeal in gifts and outstanding pledges. If you are paying your pledge over time, please make every effort to complete this. Thank you again for all of your support this year! We are currently about 50 pledges short of where we have been the past few years, but it is not too late. Any pledges received now will stay here for our use at Holy Trinity.

Thanks!

Have a good week

FR. Mark

Our Blessed Mother Statue returned to Holy Trinity!

We are so grateful to the artist, Kris, for safely transporting and restoring her to our Parish.

Thank you to everyone for contributing to the restoration of our Blessed Mother and St. Joseph's statues. Your generosity is greatly appreciated!

Register for Baptism Class The next class is at 6 p.m. on Monday, July 31. If you want to baptize your child at Holy Trinity, you must attend Baptism Class first! Call the Parish Office at 515.255.3162 ext.128 to register. We look forward to celebrating with your family!

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

This Is My Body* Book Distribution A 2019 Pew Forum survey of Catholics revealed that only one-third believe the official teaching that Jesus is truly and substantially present in the bread and wine, and two-thirds believe Eucharistic elements are merely symbolic of Jesus' presence.

Minnesota Bishop Robert Barron responded by writing a book, This Is My Body, to clarify the church's teaching. One hundred copies of This Is My Body are available at Holy Trinity by the doors on the weekend of July 22. Strengthen our belief in the true presence of the Eucharist!

The National Eucharistic Revival is a movement to renew our devotion to the great mystery of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. Learn more at eucharisticrevival.org.

Garage Sale Help Needed Do you know your way around the kitchen? Help serve lunch to our volunteers while they prepare for the garage sale! Don't worry, you get to eat lunch too! Volunteers are needed starting Sunday, July 30. Contact Teresa Parmenter at parmentert13@gmail.com or the parish office at 515.255.3162 ext. 128 to get involved.

Donate to the Food Pantry More people need assistance with food security than ever! Join Des Moines Area Religious Council (DMARC) and Eat Greater Des Moines to support people in need.

Donate food, diapers, wipes, and personal products to the green collection tubs located at church entries, OR donate cash and checks. DMARC purchases items in bulk for big discounts. Thank you for your kind consideration!

Steve Angrisano Concert Series Postponed Due to unforeseen circumstances, the Steve Angrisano Concert on August 8 is postponed until 2024. We look forward to an awesome event next year!

Job Opportunities Contact Principal Monica Morrison at 515.255.3162 or mmorrison@htschool.org to apply.

Fifteenth & Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

For a large part of the liturgical year, we devote ourselves to listening to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects unfolded as we seek God's truth and understanding.

Reading I : Isaiah 55:10-11 - My word shall accomplish my will.

- The prophet Isaiah tells us that God's word is effective.
- Just as the rain does not stop before it has fallen to water the earth, so God's word achieves the end for which God sent it.
- The word of God is life-giving.

Reading II : Romans 8:18-23 - We bear our suffering in light of Christ.

- The reading from the Letter to the Romans speaks of the promised harvest of God's word in people and in all creation.
- Human beings have not yet arrived at the fullness of their creation, becoming children of God.
- Paul stresses that at the end, all creation will arrive at its fullness and God's word will have achieved the end for which God sent it.

Gospel : Matthew 13:1-23 - A sower went out to sow.

- In the parable of the sower Jesus was talking about the Kingdom of God.
- The seed is the word of God; the various kinds of soil represent different dispositions in the hearers. The growth is still growth of the Kingdom of God.
- The Kingdom of God grows best in willing hearts.

Reading I : Wisdom 12:13, 16-19 - Your might is the source of justice.

- The lesson for God's people in the reading from the Book of Wisdom is twofold.
- As God is merciful, so should the people be merciful to those who offend them.
- Because God is merciful, the people may live in hope that God will forgive their sins.

Reading II : Romans 8:26-27 - The Spirit helps us pray.

- Paul, in the Letter to the Romans, continues his proclamation of the power of God's Spirit.
- It is God's Spirit who understands and is divine Wisdom.
- That Spirit has been given to Christians that they might be children of God, like God.

Gospel : Matthew 13:24-43 - The Reign of God is among us.

- The two parables of the weed seed planted among the crops, and the leaven in the woman's bread, make the point that the Kingdom of God may look small in Jesus' ministry and preaching, but its growth will be rapid and thorough.
- The parable of the weeds in the wheat makes the point that good and bad cannot be separated without harming the good.
- God's people must trust divine wisdom as they face the evil in the world.

Bring Home the Gospel | July 16, 2023

Reading I Isaiah 55:10-11 | Psalm 65:10-14 | Reading II Romans 8:18-23 | Gospel Matthew 13:1-23

Question For The Children Who helps you to grow deeper in your faith?

Question For The Youth When the sower, in this week's Gospel, sowed his seed, not all of it fell in "good soil." What can you do in the coming week to make sure that you are open to God in your life? What is getting in the way of your being "good soil?"

Question For The Adults Using the parable of Jesus in this reading, describe how faith has been planted in your life? How long did it take for that seed to land "on good soil?"

Activity Of The Week Gather for family prayer around a small bowl of soil. Use this week's responsorial psalm for the refrain. "The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest." Ask each family member to name one action he or she has done or has seen another family member do during the week that proclaimed God's word of love, justice, and peace.

St. Bonaventure.—From a Fresco Painting by John of Florence, in the Chapel of Nicholas V. at the Vatican (Fifteenth Century).

Saint Of The Week Bonaventure 1221-1274

Saint Bonaventure entered the Franciscan order at the age of twenty-two and was sent to Paris to complete his studies. It was in Paris that his reputation for genius manifested itself, and here that he became a close friend of Thomas Aquinas. He was elected to govern the Franciscans and did so for seventeen years. For this he is called the "second founder" of the Franciscan order. Once when the pope was looking for him, he sent a delegation to find him. Bonaventure was found at a Franciscan monastery, washing the dishes. The saint asked them to hang the hat on the bough of a tree because, he explained, he couldn't decently take it up with his greasy hands. Only when he had finished his work did Bonaventure take up the hat and go out to greet the legates.

Bonaventure's message today:

Many of us tend to take ourselves too seriously from time to time. We sometimes see ourselves as better, smarter, richer, more successful than others, and look down on them. Bonaventure recognized that whatever gifts he had received came from God. They did not make him a better person than his "brother and master."

Do you sometimes feel that you are superior to another? Have you used your riches and power to accomplish good in the world or merely to indulge yourself and your family?

Reading I Wisdom 12:13, 16-19 | Psalm 86:5-6, 9-10, 15-16 | Reading II Romans 8:26-27 | Gospel Matthew 13:24-43

Question For The Children What are the things that keep you from being a friend of Jesus?

Question For The Youth The good and the bad have the same opportunity to rule our life. What are you doing (bad habits, poor choices, etc.) that you need to weed out? Who can help you with that?

Question For The Adults How would you describe “the weeds” which have polluted your own faith, or the faith of people whom you know.

Activity Of The Week Nurturing growth and goodness is one way to overcome evil. Name the evil that you see in society around you. Discuss how you as a family can provide an example of kindness and how you can nurture growth in your neighborhood, school, parish, community, or world.

Saint Of The Week Bridget, c. 1303-1373

Saint Bridget lived in Sweden and was born to a royal family there. She had many visions throughout her lifetime. She and her husband had eight children whom they raised with love and faith. Early on, the couple became heavily involved in charitable work and brought their children up to maintain a sense of humility and obligation. She once wrote a candid letter to Pope Clement VI urging him to bring peace between Edward III of England and Philip IV of France and spelling out the consequences to the kings of a failure to achieve peace. When the pope's lukewarm effort fell short, the results which Bridget foretold occurred. She continued to criticize Church and public leaders and she spared no one—rulers, popes, priests, or people—in her criticisms when their transgressions and the punishments they would merit. She cared for the poor and regularly fed pilgrims from Sweden who visited Rome. She was, in the words of a companion, “kind and meek to every creature, and had a laughing face.”

Bridget's message today:

In response to her visions, Bridget criticized some very important people during her lifetime. Not trusting solely to her own judgment, however, she first checked with her confessor or pastor before judging others. When we feel compelled to scold someone, we may not always be so prudent.

Have you rushed to judge a family member or someone you know? Perhaps your prayers can have a greater effect on their lives.
