Taking the Journey TOGETHER

*“How lovely is your dwelling place, Lord,
mighty God!” - Ps. 84*

From Father Mark | July 28, 2024

Greetings.

As you may have heard, the diocese has embarked on a process of pastoral visioning for our diocese and our parishes. All parishes will be participating. Through a survey conducted by the diocese, the following areas of focus were uncovered for this three-year cycle. They are: creating a culture of welcome and hospitality, inviting people into an encounter with Jesus, accompany our youth into discipleship with Christ, engage our young adults more fully, prepare disciples for the domestic church, communicate our message more boldly and clearly. More information can be found at this link: <https://www.dmdiocese.org/about-us/toolkits>. The tool kits are what we will use to guide us in each area but they can also give you a good idea of what each area focuses on. We are able to use these resources as we see fit.

In consultation with our pastoral council, we would like to begin here at Holy Trinity with the following areas: accompany our youth into discipleship with Christ and Engage our young adults. We may also do some work on the welcoming and hospitality goal. It was felt we do pretty well here, but we can certainly do better. All of the areas are, of course, important and we will get to all of them during this process.

I now invite you to take a closer look at the areas and provide your input to the process as well as you own suggestions as to how we might do this here at HT. The diocese has given us much leeway. For now, input can be sent to me at fmneal@holyltrinitydm.org. As this progresses more information will be shared as we develop a process to use here at HT and decide how we will proceed with engaging the parish in this initiative.

I will continue working with the pastoral council, but would like to have as much input as possible from the parish at large so we can put together a good process here at Holy Trinity and go forward together as a parish community. More to come.

Have a good week

Fr. Mark Neal

Pardon of Assisi. This upcoming First Friday, August 2nd, 2024, take advantage of the Plenary Indulgence that the Church provides every August 2nd. It is called the "Pardon of Assisi". It is the very first indulgence ever granted by the Church by way of Pope Honorius III, as requested by St. Francis of Assisi, HIMSELF! It dates back to the time of St. Francis in the 1200's.

August 2nd, is the historical date for the Feast of Our Lady of the Angels. This August 2nd, 2024, also happens to be the First Friday for the Month of August! To be sure, I have alerted all the members of the First Friday Mass League (of which I have made you all members) of this glorious event.

No Coffee & donuts on July 28th. Coffee & donuts will resume August 4. Reach out to Gigi W. in the parish office if you are interested in hosting coffee and donuts this fall!

Seventeenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Ordinary Time For a large part of the liturgical year, we devote ourselves to listening to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects unfolded as we seek God's truth and understanding.

Reading I : 2 Kings 4:42-44

Give it to the people to eat.

- In the first reading, the prophet Elisha shows great faith in the power of God.
- Elisha insists that everyone will be fed with an obvious insufficient amount of food.
- The true nourishment of the prophets is God's word which overflows and nourishes all around them.

Reading II : Ephesians 4:1-6

Bear with one another lovingly.

- The unity given to Christians through one Baptism in Christ is the subject of today's passage from the Letter to the Ephesians.
- Christians are one Body in Christ.
- This unity is exemplified by Christians living in peace.

Gospel : John 6:1-15

Jesus gave the people all the food they wanted.

- The miraculous feeding in today's Gospel provides a glimpse of the heavenly banquet, where there will never be hunger again.
- The early Christians recognized in this miracle that hunger for life is the hunger that Jesus satisfies.
- This story of the multiplication of the loaves becomes the symbol for Jesus' Eucharistic feeding of his disciples through the ages.

Bring Home the Gospel | July 28th, 2024

Reading I 2 Kings 4:42-44 | Psalm | Reading II Ephesians 4:1-6
| Gospel John 6:1-15

Question For The Children How do you share with others what you have?

Question For The Youth Generosity is key to today's Gospel. What do you have that you should be sharing with others? Think of your possessions, your talents, and your time. How can you use these for the good of others?

Question For The Adults In what ways do you generously provide for the needs of others who have little or nothing?

Activity Of The Week To help your family provide for the needs of others, place a "love offering" jar in your home. When anyone has a few pennies, they could put them in the jar. When the jar is full, the money could be given to the local Catholic Relief Services to help feed hungry people.

Saint Of The Week James the Greater, Apostle, First Century

This James is called "the Greater" because his vocation to serve Jesus preceded that of the other apostle with the same name. James the Greater was the brother of John and the son of Zebedee. One tradition, derived from the information in several of the Gospels, tells us that James and John were first cousins of Jesus. With his brother, James was a fisherman working in his father's business until called by Jesus.

Neither James nor John fully understood at first what they were being called to do. Matthew tells us that their mother asked Jesus to give James and John the places of honor, one at his left hand, the other at his right hand, when his kingdom was established (Mt. 20:20-21). We can assume that James was held in high esteem by Jesus. He, John, and Peter were the only apostles present for the raising from the dead of Jairus' daughter, as well as the Transfiguration of Jesus, and these three were in the garden of Gethsemane with Jesus.

James and John were noted for their hot temperament, which was probably the basis for the nickname "sons of thunder" (Mk 3:17), which Jesus gave them. One story illustrates that temperament well. When Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem, he and his disciples passed through a Samaritan town. (The animosity between the Samaritans and the Jews at that time were roughly equivalent to that between the Jews and Palestinians today.) When the Samaritans learned that Jesus' destination was Jerusalem, a city hated by the Samaritans, they refused to house him and the disciples. James and John, still not fully understanding Jesus' mission, asked him, "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them? Jesus turned and rebuked them...." (Lk 9:54-55)

James was the first of the apostles to be martyred at Jerusalem around the year 42. The story is told of his accuser who, seeing the great and unwavering faith of James before King Herod, became a Christian on the spot and was condemned to be killed together with James. As they were approaching the place where they were to be beheaded, the accuser turned to James and asked his forgiveness for testifying against him. James turned to his accuser, kissed him and said, "Peace be with you, brother."

A doubtful tradition, which sprang up in about the eighth century, had this saint preaching in Spain. It is unlikely that James would have traveled to Spain to preach and then return to martyrdom in Jerusalem. Nevertheless, James has become the patron saint of Spain as well as the patron of laborers, pilgrims, and those suffering from rheumatism.

This saint is celebrated by a Feast on July 25.

James' message today: "Peace be with you, brother." What a wonderful offering by James to one who has falsely testified against him. The man who testified against James knew that he was giving false testimony, yet, when he realized his error, James forgave him.
