Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ordinary Time

For a large part of the liturgical year, we devote ourselves to listening to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects unfolded as we seek God's truth and understanding.

Reading I : Sirach 27:30-28:7 | Forgive your neighbor's faults, and when you pray, your sins will be forgiven.

- The Book of Sirach is concerned with anger and quarreling.
- If we refuse to forgive, then who will forgive us?
- Refusal is a deliberate choice and it shapes a sinner's life.

Reading II : Romans 14:7-9 | Whether alive or dead, we belong to the Lord.

- We belong to God, not to ourselves.
- We live not by our own power, but by the creative power of God and the mercy given us through Christ's Resurrection.
- We have no right to judge one another.
- Judgment belongs to God alone. By God's mercy we have been granted the power to forgive.

Gospel : Matthew 18:21-35 | I did not say to forgive seven times but seventy times seven.

- Vengeance must not be multiplied, but instead forgiveness should be multiplied.
- God is forgiving; we are made in God's image.
- God will judge us by the measure of our forgiveness of one another.
- Our mutual forgiveness will reveal how the image of God lives in us.

Question For The Children Jesus says we should forgive from our heart. When did you ask forgiveness of someone you hurt? How did you feel?

Question For The Youth Jesus challenges us to forgive. Who needs your forgiveness? From whom do you need to ask forgiveness?

Question For The Adults Jesus tells us to forgive seventy times seven, which means always and forever. Name a time this past week when you forgave someone. Name, too, a time when you accepted another person's forgiveness.

Activity Of The Week Consider stories or movies where one of the characters seeks vengeance. What was the outcome of this story? Consider also stories or movies where one of the characters is humble and forgiving. What was the outcome of this story? Discuss the natural consequences of humility.

Saint Of The Week John Chrysostom

- Born the son of an imperial military officer, John studied rhetoric and theology under the best Roman scholars before converting to Christianity in 369. John preferred the simple life of a monk, and in 374, he became a hermit under the guidance of Saint Basil. He had a great reputation for his preaching and he was noted for the eloquence of his sermons. In his sermons, John called for justice and charity, enjoining the rich to share their wealth with the poor. He practiced what he preached and made his own household follow Christian values. He opposed the evils practiced by the rulers of his day and suffered exile because of it.
