Taking the Journey TOGETHER

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me..." Mt 16

From Father Mark | September 3, 2023

Greetings.

For the last few months, we have been working on a possible art piece for our church. I contacted Timothy Schmaltz, the artist who created the St. Peregrine shrine in our church. The piece I proposed to him is an artistic representation of the Trinity. This is a difficult concept to visualize, as you know. So, it was big ask. I did get a design mockup back and it is included here. Due to the subject matter and out of respect and reverence for it, Mr. Schmaltz was only willing to do the sculpture himself in bronze. This was beyond our budget. In working with his associate, we came up with another option. The same design would be sent to a foundry and be made of fiberglass. It would then have a faux bronze coating applied and would still look like bronze. The picture below is not the color that the finished project would be. Since it would be in a bronze finish, the art would look similar in color to the St. Peregrine shrine. It will be approximately 8 feet in length.

As you can see, the design incorporates both traditional and more contemporary elements. To the left are the hands of the Father in a gesture of giving, then we see the welcoming Jesus with arms extended. Finally, we have the traditional symbol of the Holy Spirit, a dove. This is reminiscent of the gospel account of the Baptism of Jesus when the voice of the Father is heard from the heavens saying, “this is my beloved son in whom I am well pleased.” In the art, we see the Father giving us his only son as well as making it clear that the Holy Spirit has descended upon him as He begins his ministry in our world. As with any work of art, what each person sees and experiences is very individual.

As for placement, I am thinking the south wall of the church (opposite the stations of the cross on the north wall) as it is currently a large empty space. Also, this is the location that the artist thought would work best. It would arrive ready to be hung. Since people can get right up close, I believe it would be used for both reflection and prayer. It will also be large enough to be seen from a distance.

I have been working to arrange funding for this project. We have a parishioner who has generously offered to cover about half of the cost. I am working with the Holy Trinity Parish Foundation to secure the rest of the funds needed.

I believe this would be a great addition to our church. Not only would it be a beautiful and a thought provoking piece, but also a welcoming piece for those who come to pray with us. I welcome your thoughts on this project as well.

Finally, an update on our parish staff. We have hired both a new administrative assistant for the parish office and a facilities director. Mercedes Steinkamp, one of our parishioners and a school parent is our new administrative assistant. Mercedes is active in the parish and brings a wealth of experience in promotions, event planning, and general organizing; all necessary traits for the position. Brad West has been hired as our new facilities director. Brad comes with a wealth of experience in all areas of facilities management and excellent maintenance skills. Welcome to Holy Trinity Mercedes and Brad! Please take a moment to welcome them when you have a chance.

Have a good week

DIOCESE OF DES MOINES

Seminarian Collection Next Weekend Help seminarians radiate the freedom and joy that comes when Jesus claims our hearts. As a priest, they will accompany, guide, and support you as they find and fulfill their own vocations.

The diocesan-wide Special Collection for Seminarians is September 9 and 10. This year, our thirteen seminarians need more than $600,000 for academic formation.

Look for donation baskets at Mass for your convenience. Registered households will receive a brochure and return envelope in the mail from Bishop Joensen. Gifts to this collection cover tuition, room and board, and provide a small monthly stipend for pre-theologians and theologians.

Heartfelt thanks for your prayers and charitable donation to support the seminarians.

Taking the Journey
TOGETHER

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ordinary Time

For a large part of the liturgical year, we devote ourselves to listening to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects unfolded as we seek God's truth and understanding.

Reading I : Jeremiah 20:7-9 | I suffer for the sake of doing God's work.

- The first reading refers to a time when the prophet Jeremiah has just come out of hiding in fear for his life.
- Jeremiah is mocked and scorned for preaching against the sins of Israel.
- Even at the cost of such suffering, preaching God's word is better for Jeremiah than suppressing it.

Reading II : Romans 12:1-2 | Be transformed.

- Paul proclaims self-surrender in the Letter to the Romans.
- When we offer God our whole life, our prayer and rituals are meaningful.
- Paul urges Christians to let their lives be transformed in the image of eternal life.

Gospel : Matthew 16:21-27 | Take up your cross.

- In a series of three passages, Jesus announces his imminent suffering and death, which is to be followed by his being raised from the dead.
- In today's passage, a misunderstanding of the prediction is voiced by Peter. It becomes clear that fidelity to Jesus would ultimately cost the disciple life itself.
- The paradox here is that the one who willingly gives up mortal life for Jesus' sake gains eternal life.

Bring Home the Gospel | September 3, 2023

Reading I Jeremiah 20:7-9 | Psalms 63:2-6, 8-9 | Reading II Romans 12:1-2 | Gospel Matthew 16:21-27

Question For The Children Jesus tells us that we each called to follow him. What is hard for you to do to follow Jesus?

Question For The Youth In order to follow Jesus, we have to do hard things, to carry our own crosses. What is a cross that you are carrying right now? In what ways can you ask Jesus to help you with your cross?

Question For The Adults Jesus gives us the core truth to life and eternal happiness — the cross. Name the cross that you carry. How is it bringing you closer to God?

Activity Of The Week This Sunday, Jesus tells us: “Deny yourself, take up your cross, and begin to follow in my footsteps.” Make footprints on paper using the outlines of each family member’s foot. Cut the footprints out, and ask each person to print on his or her foot one way he or she will follow the way of Jesus this week.

Saint Of The Week Rose of Lima

Isabel de Santa Maria de Flores was the daughter of wealthy Spanish parents, but lived much of her life in Peru. Because of her beauty, she was called Rose by her parents and took this name at her Confirmation. Rose wished to live an austere life, and did so, but also spent much of her time consoling the poor, the sick, the Indians, and slaves. For this she has come to be regarded as the originator of social service in Peru. Rose was so well known that when she died on August 24, 1617, senior officials of Peru and of Lima took turns carrying her casket to burial.

Rose of Lima’s message today:

All of us are called to help those less fortunate than ourselves, whether they be the poor, the sick, those uneducated in their faith—any person or group to which injustice has been done. While it may not be possible to help all of these people except through prayer, we can and should do what we can.
