Taking

the Journey

TOGETHER

God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor. – Ps: 68

Join us in-person or worship online at <https://bit.ly/37n4LAu>

ALTAR SERVER TRAINING All students entering Grades 4 through 7 are invited to serve during Mass. To become a server, please attend our Altar Server Training after 10:30 a.m. Mass this Sunday, September 18. RSVP by emailing parishoffice@holytrinitydm.org. Donuts will be served for our new servers. Thank you for your help with this ministry!

SIGN UP FOR WEDNESDAY NIGHT FAITH FORMATION NOW Holy Trinity's Faith Formation Program supports and enriches the faith development of public school students in Grades 1 through 8. The Holy Trinity Faith Formation Program meets Wednesday evenings from 6:30 p.m. to 7:45 p.m. in the Holy Trinity School Building from. Classes begin September 14.

We are honored to walk with your child on their faith journey. Contact Director of Faith Formation John Mertes at 515.255.3162 ext. 224 or johnm@holytrinitydm.org if you have any questions.

Registration forms can be found on the next page! Submit your form to the Parish Office or put it in the collection baskets during Mass.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTER TRAINING The formal title for a layperson who distributes the Eucharist is "Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion," also known as Eucharistic Minister, EMHC, or EM. It is a beautiful honor to serve and assist the priest and deacons in the distribution of the Body of Christ during Mass. Ministers of Communion show the greatest reverence for the Most Holy Eucharist through manner and demeanor when handling the Eucharist.

You are invited to be a Eucharistic Minister! Please attend EM training on Sunday, September 11 after 10:30 a.m. Mass.

If you feel called to serve in this way, please contact the Parish Office at parishoffice@holytrinitydm.org or call 515.255.3162 ext. 128. We especially need help at 4:30 p.m. Mass. Thank you!

UNIQUE SERVICE OPPORTUNITY We have one essential, yet mostly unknown, opportunity to serve Holy Trinity Parish. Altar Linens Caretakers are parish volunteers that wash, iron, and care for the altar linens.

Usually, a different parishioner volunteers to do this job at their home every month. We have enough linens to allow caretakers to wash just two times per month, making this opportunity flexible for any schedule. Training is provided.

If this interests you, please contact the Parish Office at 515.255.3162 ext. 128 or parishoffice@holytrinitydm.org.

WANT TO JOIN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH? YOU ARE INVITED! Learn what Catholics believe in an open and welcoming environment. These sessions are an opportunity to ask confusing and difficult questions about the Church.

We begin our journey together on Tuesdays at 6:30 p.m. in the Church. The first session is on September 6. If you have questions, contact the Parish office or Deacon Doug Renze at 515.710.4168 or dougr@holytrinitydm.org.

JOB OPENING AT ST. THOMAS MORE CENTER: HOME OF CYC
The Executive Director of the St. Thomas More Center is responsible for maintaining, implementing and developing resident camping and retreat programs that are responsive to the spiritual needs of youth and young adults primarily within the Diocese of Des Moines.

As the leader of an affiliated nonprofit corporation, the Executive Director fosters a comprehensive and holistic approach to youth ministry in conjunction with diocesan and parish ministries, which recognizes cultural, developmental, and spiritual diversity among adolescents and young adults. The Executive Director will maintain a faith-filled, nurturing, safe and fun community that promotes Gospel values and the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church.

Please see our website www.dmdiocese.org for more info.

Qualified candidates should send their cover letters and resumes to hr@dmdiocese.org.

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Let Love Live

It is said that we are made in the image and likeness of God. Sometimes this doesn't seem very likely.

Look at the "images and likenesses" that can settle into our hearts. Think about marriage, that institution which cradles the future of—not just of its delicate offspring—but also of the whole society, and which has become just a temporary arrangement, "just for the time being," followed by divorce.

And wouldn't you agree that sexual mores in the Western world are in the process of firmly and finally divorcing themselves from consideration of commitment, responsibility and care?

Aren't we tempted to addict ourselves to convenience, entertainment, internet, drinks, drugs, pleasures, pornography, and so on?

And how about the increasing number of very well known people—even priests and even bishops—who have wrecked the lives of children, some well-knowns still reaping pleasure from youths while still professing to be dedicated to the one who said "there is no greater love than to give up your life for your friend"?

I know, I know, the good has to be factored in as well. But with so much powerful evil stirred into the mix, what can be left of the image of God in human beings?

The poet E. E. Cummings wrote a particularly strong poem that includes the following lines:

King Christ, this world is all a-leak,
and life preservers there are none,
and waves that only he can walk who dares to call himself a man.

By "man," Cummings means "human being," of course, and the one he refers to in this poem did in fact become a man, one named Jesus. He let his "boat" be rocked and wrecked and finally sunk. Then he arose and walked and continues to walk the waves of our rough, drowning world.

He is a man in the image and likeness of God.

Within himself, in the place where it matters most, Jesus has complete openness to love. He lets it come in and he lets it go out to others.

Do you and I dare to unite with the image of such a human being? Deep within our own selves, in imitation of Jesus, are we capable of making room for such love? Can love-incarnate come to life in us if we gradually allow it to? Yes.

Love-incarnate wants to unite with us in the deep image and likeness of God. You and I have been created in it. This is the "image and likeness" we are made for.

If we addict ourselves instead, if we "exalt" ourselves, as Jesus puts it in the Gospel, we will wrap our souls in layer after layer of fraud. We will try to become our possessions, we will try to become what other people think of us, what culture manipulates us to be.

But our tiny boats of life actually are ship-worthy after all. If only we do not think they are ocean liners, able to grab whatever we want, we will "conduct our affairs with humility" (First Reading); we will allow God to love us and live in us.

And then we will be able to make a difference in the world. We will become the image and likeness of God's tolerance shining forth.

John Foley, SJ

BRING HOME THE GOSPEL | AUGUST 28, 2022

Reading I Sirach 3: 17-18, 20, 28-29 | Psalms 68: 4-7, 10-11 | Reading II Hebrews 12: 18-19, 22-24a | Gospel Luke 14: 1, 7-14

Question For The Children Jesus tells us that we should treat everyone as a guest. Who do you tend to shun or not be nice to?

Question For The Youth God asks us to do for others without hope of repayment. This past week, what did you do for someone else for which you won't be repaid? Who are the people most in need of your generosity?

Question For The Adults Who are the people living near you that you would find it most difficult to invite to a meal in your home? Or to invite to be part of your life?

Activity Of The Week Invite family members to create placemats and name cards for the dinner table using colored paper and markers. Have family members place their name cards on the table. Go around the table and write on the name cards the gifts and talents that each person has to give. Then discuss the virtue of humility. When we are humble, we recognize our special gifts and the gifts of others. Let each person read his or her name card before the family meal.

Saint Of The Week Teresa of Avila, Doctor

Teresa lived at a time of tremendous social change—the discovery of America and the Protestant Reformation. But she pointed the way to inner peace, even in the midst of turmoil. Throughout her young life, she struggled to pray and to keep God central in her life. Nonetheless, she did remain strong in her desire for God and eventually became an example for us all. She once said, "...prayer in my opinion is nothing else than an intimate sharing between friends; it means taking time frequently to be alone with [God] who we know loves us. The important thing is not to think much but to love much and so do that which best stirs you to love. Love is not great delight but desire to please God in everything."

Teresa's message today:

What a magnificent combination of characteristics this saint possessed: charm, wit, humility, courtesy, all combined with sanctity. Too often, we picture cloistered nuns as rather grim, but Teresa shows us that this does not have to be. We too should maintain a cheerful demeanor even as we practice penance and sacrifice.
