CELEBRATIONS AT THE CHURCH MARCH 20 2022

CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR CONFIRMATION!

God our Father, we ask you to open these young people's hearts to the power of your Spirit. Open their eyes to the wonders that you seek to do in their lives. Grant them a deep trust in your Spirit's presence with them each day. Bless them with the Spirit's joy and peace, so that everything they are and do gives glory to you.

COMMON QUESTIONS ABOUT THE IGNITE! CAMPAIGN

If the parish does not reach their monetary goal, is it responsible for the difference? Parishes will not be assessed penalties if they do not reach their fundraising goal. The expectation is that parishes put forth a good faith effort to follow the recommendations of the campaign office in conducting the campaign.

Will funds for the Ignite! Campaign reduce offertory support for the parish? It is important to emphasize that all gifts to this campaign should not reduce other giving commitments to the Church. A gift to the campaign is an generous gift made freely and faithfully to meet the challenges and opportunities presented through the campaign.

HT PATCH PROGRAM NEEDS YOUR HELP Holy Trinity's PATCH Apartment program supports a family transitioning from New Directions homeless shelter into an apartment. We pay rent and utilities for up to 6 months and provide mentoring and moral support during their stay. Currently, our account balance is lower than what 6 months of rent will cost. If want to support a family trying to get back on their feet, please visit bit.ly/3liqBSa to donate online or drop a check marked for HT PATCH in the donation basket or parish office. Thank you all for your support. For more information, contact Molly Pigneri at htpatch@gmail.com.

PROVIDE LUNCH AT CONNECTION CAFE Holy Trinity Parish is committed to provide and serve lunch during the last Thursday of each month at the Connection Cafe. FAITH & FRIENDSHIP IS BACK Faith & Friendship will meet the first Wednesday of each month from 7-9PM in the 6th grade classroom. Our first meeting will be on April 6. What is Faith & Friendship? Faith & Friendship is a group of women of all ages who are looking for a safe place to share their love of Christ, share experiences on motherhood and adulthood, and enjoy the company of one another in friendship. No need to bring anything to a meeting other than a welcoming heart. We look forward to meeting you or seeing you again if it's been a while.

NOTES ON THE MASS MARCH 20 2022

AN ANGRY SAVIOR?

Jesus, in the Gospel for Sunday, sounds angry and threatening and we must talk about that. “Repent or you will perish,” he says. The tower at Siloam fell on eighteen people. Cursing a fig tree, etc.

Is the loving Lord whom we have known actually furious and offended?

Let us look.

The closer you come to the real center of God, the more your fear turns to gratitude.

News comes to Jesus that Pilate has murdered a number of Galilean people. Still worse, Pilate has mixed their blood with that of sacrificed animals. This is a terrible, gruesome story, worthy of denunciation. Is it like Putin and Ukraine?

Well, Jesus draws a point from it: Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were greater sinners than all other Galileans? By no means! But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did!

What is the logic here? It seems you don’t have to murder people in order to get punished. You can qualify just by failing to repent!

Why is Jesus so harsh? Is he a truly an angry savior? Was he angry in the same way a lot of people think the God of the Old Testament was? Unforgiving, warlike, furious, demanding an infinite sacrifice to make up for humankind’s sins against an infinite God?

No.

On the contrary, when we look at the First Reading, we do not find an irate God at all. Instead, we find a tender one, grieving over the troubles of his people.

I have witnessed the affliction of my people in Egypt and have heard their cry of complaint against their slave drivers, so I know well what they are suffering. Therefore I have come down to rescue them.

God speaks these words miraculously to Moses from the midst of a burning bush that is not consumed by its own flames! He begins to instruct Moses about how to rescue God’s people. Great compassion from the depths of the transcendent God.

Didn’t Jesus have the same kind of compassion for his own people?

Yes.

He tells a parable in the second half of the Gospel that might help us understand.

An orchard owner orders his gardener to chop down a sadly unproductive fig tree. The gardener advises him to leave it one more year and see if, with some tending, it will bear fruit. Give it one more chance.

Who does the heartless orchard owner represent? We always assume that it is God. We half-remember the story in Mt 21:18-19 of Jesus actually cursing a fruitless fig tree.

But, on the contrary, Jesus is not the orchard owner but the gardener, asking mercy for the disobedient fig tree.

Isn’t this exactly what he is doing when he warns that they will perish if they don’t repent? Isn’t he shouting at all of us to turn back to God in order to avoid destruction?

Yes.

He is “startling the poor sheep back” from the edge of the cliff (to paraphrase the poet Hopkins here) and you and I are the sheep.

There is still reason to fear God, of course, since he is infinite and infinitely more fiery than the burning bush. But the closer you come to the real center of God, the more your fear turns to gratitude. You are not scalded or consumed by the divine fire—you are warmed and gentled at its welcoming hearth.

Jesus’ tough love leads us to that heart.

John Foley, SJ

QUESTION FOR THE CHILDREN God wants your faith to result in good living. What steps can you take during Lent to make sure that happens?

QUESTION FOR THE YOUTH What needs changing in your life right now? How will you invite God into that change?

QUESTION FOR THE ADULTS What steps are you taking this Lent to make sure that your faith bears fruit in good works?

ACTIVITY OF THE WEEK Lent provides us with an opportunity to change our hearts. Encourage family members to spend quiet time listening to God this week. Reflect on the question: Are we living as God intended, or do we need to change some things in our life? Take time later in the week to discuss the changes family members need to make in their lives.

LENT

is like a long 'retreat' during which we can turn back into ourselves and listen to the voice of God, in order to defeat the temptations of the Evil One.

It is a period of spiritual 'combat' which we must experience alongside Jesus, not with pride and presumption, but using the arms of faith, prayer, listening to the word of God and penance.

In this way we will be able to celebrate Easter in truth, ready to renew the promises of our baptism.

Pope Benedict XVI

Anastpaul/18

SAINT OF THE WEEK Paul, Apostle and Martyr

This saint was originally called by a Jewish name, Saul. He was born in the year A.D. 5 and studied under a renowned rabbi in Jerusalem. He became a rigid adherent of Jewish law, and an obsessed persecutor of the Christians. But one day, Christ appeared to Saul and his heart and life were turned around forever. He took on the name Paul and became a great missionary for the early Church, writing many letters to support or challenge new Christians, and helping expand the faith around the Mediterranean Sea.

PAUL'S MESSAGE TODAY None of us are likely to have as strong an influence on the Church as Paul has had through history. However, we are all capable of influencing our community and those with whom we live and work.

Ask yourself: what kind of an influence have I been on my family? My neighbors? My co-workers?
