Third Sunday of Advent

Advent

The twofold character of Advent calls us to prepare for the remembering of the Word made Flesh at Christmas, and directs us to wait with alertness for Jesus' second coming.

Reading I : Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10

The desert will rejoice and bloom!

- The prophet Isaiah encourages the Jewish people living in exile in Babylon, to believe that God has the power and the desire to save them.
- The images in the first reading convey new life and hope. This foreshadows what Christians will see in Christ.
- The prophet's message brings comfort to those in need of liberation.

Reading II : James 5:7-10

Be patient.

- The Letter of James urges patience in awaiting the second coming of Christ.
- Just as the farmer needs to be patient, trust God, and cooperate with the natural elements, so must the Christian.
- We are called to wait with patience and to hasten the Kingdom through works of mercy.

Gospel : Matthew 11:2-11

The blind recover their sight, cripples walk, lepers are cured, and deaf hear.

- Today's Gospel describes what kind of Messiah Jesus is.
- By listing his works of healing and restoration in response to John's question, Jesus shows how he fulfills the prophecies of the Old Testament regarding the Messiah, as suggested in today's first reading.
- Jesus identifies John as his forerunner.

Reading I Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10 | Psalm 146:6-10 | Reading II James 5:7-10 | Gospel Matthew 11:2-11

Question For The Children Why is Christmas such a time of happiness for people?

Question For The Youth God speaks to you every day: Isaiah tells us our ears and eyes will be opened in Christ to hear God's voice. What do you hear God saying to you?

Question For The Adults What is there in this promise from the Prophet Isaiah that gives you hope? How have you seen this promise fulfilled in Christ?

Activity Of The Week Discuss with your family what it means to live as a follower of Jesus in the world today. Using the newspaper, discuss for each major story how a Christian would respond. What would Jesus do?

- Saint Barbara -

www.CatholicPlayground.com

Saint Of The Week Barbara

St. Barbara may have been the daughter of a pagan official in the time of the Emperor Maximian. At one point, she requested that three windows be built into her house, to represent the light of the Trinity. Her Christian faith was stronger than her father's lack of faith. But this enraged her pagan father who had her killed, and she is considered a martyr today.

How much would you suffer to witness to your faith? What kind of suffering for our faith do modern boys and girls have to do?

Barbara's message today:

While most parents would not treat their children as harshly as did Barbara's father, many of us do not consider the strong and lasting effects of our words on our children. Gentle guidance, understanding, and prayers can often accomplish much more than harsh words.

When you have a disagreement with one of your children, do you try to resolve it with arguments and anger? Or do you try to talk out the problem, with kindness and understanding as your guide?
