Letter From Father Mark

Greetings-

As I mentioned last week at the weekend Masses, Bishop Joensen has granted me a sabbatical. This is an extended time away from the parish and is intended for recharging, refreshing, resetting, etc. it can also be a time for more in depth study of a chosen topic. I will be taking my sabbatical at St. Meinrad Archabbey and Seminary in St. Meinrad, Indiana. I was a student at St. Meinrad in the 80's.

At present, it looks like my sabbatical will begin July 3, 2026 and I will return to the parish on November 24, 2026. While I am away, Fr. Ray McHenry, one of our retired priests will be here.

Have a good week,

Father Mark Neal

PARISH INFORMATION

Ministries at Holy Trinity

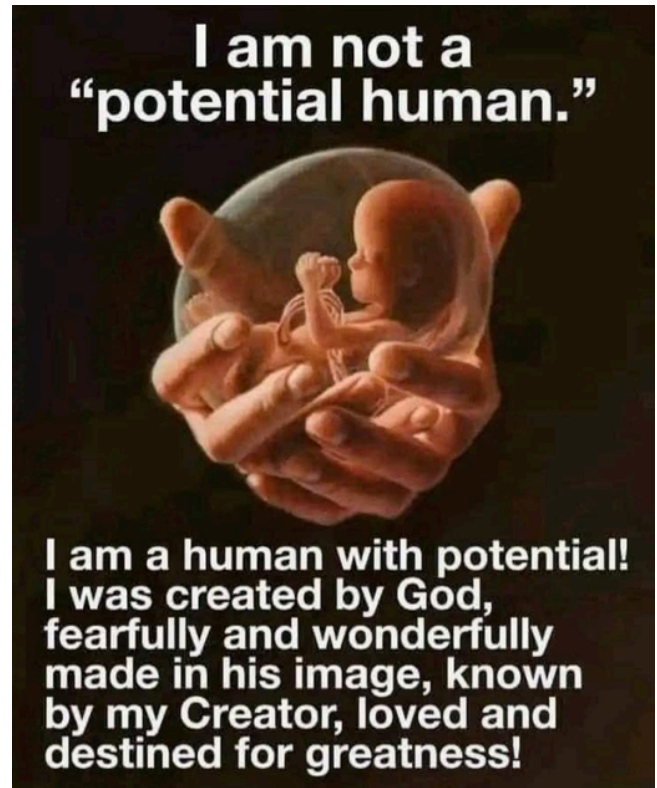

Coffee and Donuts: We appreciate everyone who has volunteered to assist with serving coffee and donuts. If you would like to participate, please sign up here! You may also get in touch with Jan Swinton at jans@holytrinitydm.org in the parish office.

Baptism: Do you want to celebrate your child's baptism at Holy Trinity? The next Baptism Class is Monday, May 18 at 6pm in the Media Center. Contact Jan Swinton in the Parish Office at jans@holytrinitydm.org with questions.

Pastoral Care. Nourish for Caregivers is for anyone juggling the challenges of life, health and career while caring for an aging parent, grandparent, or spouse, either in your home, in town or at a distance. Nourish provides family caregivers practical and emotional supports, shared experiences and useful tools, all with a Christ-centered view.

In the chaotic hustle of the day-to-day juggling of work and home life, caregivers often forget that they don't have to do it all. Asking for help is not easy. We tend to want to go it all alone, taking burdens on our shoulders, or maybe expecting others to read our mind, knowing we desperately need help. There is help, and hope, available.

Nourish for Caregivers meets on May 11th at St. Pius. Locations for Nourish for Caregivers sessions are Holy Trinity in Des Moines (using the parish main entrance) and St. Pius X (using east entrance). Questions? Contact Deacon Troy Thompson at troyt@holytrinitydm.org, or Deacon Jim Houston at pastoralcare@saintpiuschurch.org.

OUR FAITH EXPLAINED

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Damien, Priest, 1840-1889

Joseph De Veuster was born in Belgium in January 1840. As a boy, Joseph worked on his father's farm where he learned not only farming skills but carpentry and, from his devout mother, a love for God. All of this knowledge would be put to good use in his later life. He entered a religious community and became a priest. Eventually he was sent to Hawaii as a missionary, where he began his work among the lepers who were exiled to Molokai. Recognizing that Catholics in the colony had no priest except for an occasional visitor, the bishop brought the problem to his priests. It was suggested that several priests rotate to the island, each staying a few weeks or months at a time. Fr. Damien volunteered to be the first.

Leprosy (Hanson's Disease) is curable and no longer the scourge that it was in the nineteenth century. Today, there are other sufferings that afflict the human race: hostilities, hunger, and, in our country, homelessness, to name but a few. Each of us is called upon to do whatever we can do to alleviate the pain of others.

Damien De Veuster was beatified by Pope John Paul II in 1995 and he is honored on May 10 by an optional memorial.

Damien's message today: Leprosy (Hanson's Disease) is curable and no longer the scourge that it was in the nineteenth century. Today, there are other sufferings that afflict the human race: hostilities, hunger, and, in our country, homelessness to name but a few. Each of us is called upon to do whatever we can do to alleviate the pain of others.

- What are you doing to ease the hurting in your family? ...your town? ...your world?

VIRTUES, EXPLAINED!

Peace Explained

Peace, Explained! Peace. There may be no other word in the English language, writes Msgr. Stuart Swetland in Catholic Answers, "more susceptible to sloganeering, and thus misunderstanding." But what is peace, in the context of Catholic virtue?

The peace of God, writes Paul in his Letter to the Philippians, "surpasses all understanding." (Phil. 4:7) Peace is both a fruit of charity (CCC 1829) and a fruit of the Spirit (CCC 1832). Our modern Catholic understanding of peace is derived from the Hebrew concept of shalom, or wholeness, and it refers not just to an absence of violence (mandated by the fifth commandment) but to a personal reconciliation with one's Creator. Peace is a spiritual effect of the Sacrament of Reconciliation (CCC 1496).

Our search for interior peace in our hearts parallels the historic struggle of mankind to realize peace in the world by practicing justice. "When we hear the Gospel, dear brothers and sisters," said Pope Benedict, "we learn to build peace on the truth of a daily life inspired by the commandment of love."
