PARISH INFORMATION

Ministries at Holy Trinity

Pastoral Care. Nourish for Caregivers is for anyone juggling the challenges of life, health and career while caring for an aging parent, grandparent, or spouse, either in your home, in town or at a distance. Nourish provides family caregivers practical and emotional supports, shared experiences and useful tools, all with a Christ-centered view.

In the chaotic hustle of the day-to-day juggling of work and home life, caregivers often forget that they don't have to do it all. Asking for help is not easy. We tend to want to go it all alone, taking burdens on our shoulders, or maybe expecting others to read our mind, knowing we desperately need help. There is help, and hope, available.

Nourish for Caregivers meets monthly on the 2nd Monday of the month. Locations for Nourish for Caregivers sessions are Holy Trinity in Des Moines (using the parish main entrance) and St. Pius X (using east entrance). Questions? Contact Deacon Troy Thompson at troyt@holyltrinitydm.org or Deacon Jim Houston at pastoralcare@saintpiuschurch.org.

Coffee and Donuts: We appreciate everyone who has volunteered to assist with serving coffee and donuts. If you would like to participate, please sign up here! You may also get in touch with Jan Swinton at jans@holyltrinitydm.org in the parish office.

Rosary: Join us as we pray the rosary together. The next date is Monday, February 2nd at 7pm at Sarah Sullivan Bigelow's house: 403 42nd street. The Rosary is a form of contemplative prayer that draws people into deeper relationship with Jesus Christ by meditating on key events in His life.

Baptism: Do you want to celebrate your child's baptism at Holy Trinity? The next Baptism Class is Monday, March 16 at 6pm in the Media Center. Contact Jan Swinton in the Parish Office at jans@holyltrinitydm.org with questions.

OUR FAITH EXPLAINED

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Agnes, Virgin and Martyr

Agnes may have been a young girl when she died. Legend has it that she was very beautiful and from a wealthy Roman family. Many young men wanted to marry her, but she decided to commit herself only to God. One of the men who wanted her eventually reported her to the authorities for being a Christian, which was then against the law. She was eventually martyred for her faith and is honored today for that.

When we dedicate ourselves to God as the most important thing in our lives, we have to give up some other things. What would you give up in order to dedicate yourself entirely to God?

St. Agnes (her name is derived from the Greek word for “pure”) has become the great Christian symbol of virginal innocence. She is honored by mention in the Mass and is the patron of the children of Mary and of young girls. A memorial to this saint is celebrated on January 21.

Agnes' message today: Agnes dedicated herself to God. None of the threats or the prospect of death could turn her from this course. Like many martyrs, indeed, like Jesus himself, Agnes prayed for her persecutors.

- How do you treat those who persecute you: the person at work who spreads gossip about you, the neighbor who constantly complains, or the merchant who tries to cheat you?

OBEDIENCE, EXPLAINED!

Virtues, Explained

Disobedience was humanity's original sin. Conversely, obedience became the instrument of humanity's reconciliation to God.

Scripture calls man's submission of his own intellect and will to God, the author of revelation, “the obedience of faith.” (CCC 143) “To obey in faith is to submit freely to the word that has been heard, because its truth is guaranteed by God, who is Truth itself,” we read in the Catechism (CCC 144).

We see perfect obedience shown by Christ amidst his agony in the Garden of Gethsemane. His human will dreads what will come — “My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me” — but his divine will, which is never at odds with his human will, submits to the Truth: “Yet, not as I will, but as you will.” (Matthew 26:39). Despite his fear, he embraces the divine will for man to be redeemed, and so we say that he was “obedient unto death.” (Philippians 2:8)

PRAYER & READINGS

READINGS

BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Reading I : Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

I, the Lord, have called you.

Reading II : Acts 10:34-38

God anointed Christ with the Holy Spirit.

Gospel : Matthew 3:13-17

We must do what God wants.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Question for Children: What does God want you to do? To forgive? Be generous? To love?

Question for Youth: As you grow, how do you know what God wants you to do? How do you hear the voice of God saying, "you are one of mine, of my chosen?"

Question for Adults: Today's readings lead to a core question: As you follow God and do what he wants, how do you experience his loving words: "You are my own. My favor is upon you."?

HOLY TRINITY PRAYER

Gracious God, the perfect love and communion of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit together makes the Most Holy Trinity; one God. God the Father, who created us; Jesus God the Son who gave His life to save ours; God the Holy Spirit who guides us each day.

Help us follow the example of the Most Holy Trinity as we seek to faithfully walk the path that you lay before us; to love and serve others; build a more caring and respectful world and answer your call in our lives as we take this journey together as one people of God.
