Pastoral Care. Nourish for Caregivers is for anyone juggling the challenges of life, health and career while caring for an aging parent, grandparent, or spouse, either in your home, in town or at a distance. Nourish provides family caregivers practical and emotional supports, shared experiences and useful tools, all with a Christ-centered view.

In the chaotic hustle of the day-to-day juggling of work and home life, caregivers often forget that they don't have to do it all. Asking for help is not easy. We tend to want to go it all alone, taking burdens on our shoulders, or maybe expecting others to read our mind, knowing we desperately need help. There is help, and hope, available.

Nourish for Caregivers will recess for the summer months and will begin again in the Fall.

Letter From Father Ray

Hello.

For those of you who do not know me, I am Father Ray McHenry. I am a retired priest. Most recently I was the pastor of St. Francis of Assisi Parish in West Des Moines. Before that I spent seven years as the pastor of St. Thomas Aquinas Parish in Indianola.

We will be on a faith journey together for the next five months. While Fr. Mark is on a much-deserved sabbatical Bishop Joensen has asked me to serve you. I will not be your pastor; Fr. Mark remains your pastor even on sabbatical. Officially, I am the Parochial Administrator.

According to Canon Law #540 I am "bound by the same obligations and [have] the same rights as the Pastor but may not do anything which could prejudice the rights of the Pastor or do harm to parochial property (c540 §2) and must give an account to the Pastor once [I have] been discharged from this office" (c540 §3).

Basically, it means that I am to take care of the day-to-day operations of the parish, celebrate the Eucharist and other sacraments but I can't make any long-term decisions and I report to Fr. Mark what happened over the five months of his absence. So, let's work together as I keep the chair warm for him and we can present the parish to him just as he left it.

Thank you.
Fr. Ray

OUR FAITH EXPLAINED

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Bridget, Wife, Mother and Religious, c. 1303-1373

Saint Bridget lived in Sweden and was born to a royal family there. She had many visions throughout her lifetime. She and her husband had eight children whom they raised with love and faith. Early on, the couple became heavily involved in charitable work and brought their children up to maintain a sense of humility and obligation. She once wrote a candid letter to Pope Clement VI urging him to bring peace between Edward III of England and Philip IV of France and spelling out the consequences to the kings of a failure to achieve peace. When the pope's lukewarm effort fell short, the results which Bridget foretold occurred. She continued to criticize Church and public leaders and she spared no one—rulers, popes, priests, or people—in her criticisms when their transgressions and the punishments they would merit. She cared for the poor and regularly fed pilgrims from Sweden who visited Rome. She was, in the words of a companion, “kind and meek to every creature, and had a laughing face.”

In response to her visions, Bridget criticized some very important people during her lifetime. Not trusting solely to her own judgment, however, she first checked with her confessor or pastor before judging others. When we feel compelled to scold someone, we may not always be so prudent.

Bridget's message today: In response to her visions, Bridget criticized some very important people during her lifetime. Not trusting solely to her own judgment, however, she first checked with her confessor or pastor before judging others. When we feel compelled to scold someone, we may not always be so prudent.

- Have you rushed to judge a family member or someone you know? Perhaps your prayers can have a greater effect on their lives.
- spiritual journey takes a difficult turn?

VIRTUES, EXPLAINED!

Serenity, Explained!

The word “serenity” is only found once in the Catechism of the Catholic Church: in the section describing the effects of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, quoting the Council of Trent when it declared that a good confession “is usually followed by peace and serenity of conscience.” (CCC 1468)

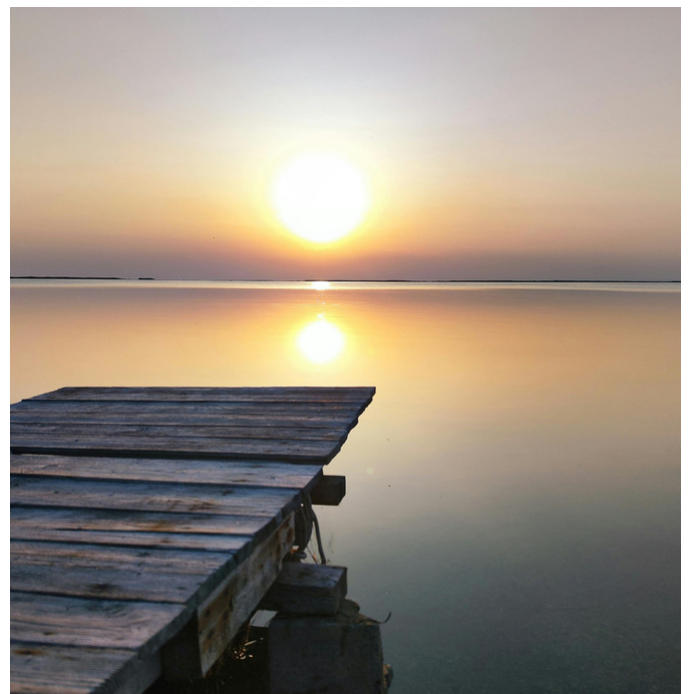

This may give the impression that serenity is not a foremost Catholic virtue, but the succinctness of the Catechism's reference is actually proof of serenity's importance.

What is serenity? It is an attitude of calm, one that can only be identified when contrasted with turmoil. It is stillness in a storm. It is Christ, walking steadily across the raging waves.

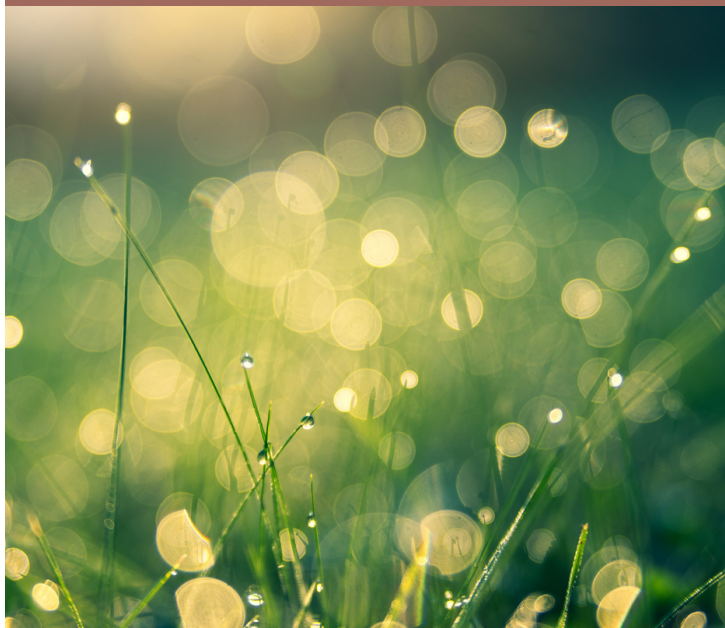

That the Catechism links it exclusively with reconciliation to God tells us all we need to know about this virtue. Where can we find calm in turmoil, stillness in storm? Where can we find serenity?

There is only one place: the merciful embrace of God in His sacraments.

HOLY TRINITY PRAYER

Gracious God, the perfect love and communion of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit together makes the Most Holy Trinity; one God. God the Father, who created us; Jesus God the Son who gave His life to save ours; God the Holy Spirit who guides us each day.

Help us follow the example of the Most Holy Trinity as we seek to faithfully walk the path that you lay before us; to love and serve others; build a more caring and respectful world and answer your call in our lives as we take this journey together as one people of God.
