FROM FATHER MARK SEP 27 2020

GREETINGS.

I have an update for the parish. As I mentioned in the last Bulletin, we have been looking into permanent live-streaming equipment for the church. As I am the only one handling the livestreaming at present, when I am away, there is none. So, we have gathered more details and had a consultant in to advise on what we will need. This week we are expecting a formal proposal for our church and what equipment will be needed. We do not have the final cost estimate yet, but I suspect it will be several thousand dollars. This is not something we budgeted for, so any help will be greatly appreciated. Many thanks to those that have already stepped up and donated for this parish project.

You may have noticed our bells have stopped ringing. We are looking into this. Our current system was a memorial gift from the Frueh family following the death of Don, Mary, and Katie Frueh in an accident in 1994. It has been an important part not only of Holy Trinity, but also the greater Beavertdale neighborhood as the music can be heard for blocks. We hope to be able to continue this legacy. Due to the age of the system, we have not been able to find anyone who can look at it. As it stopped working during the derecho, we feel it may have been irreparably damaged. We are looking into some new systems. I will keep the parish updated on this.

Finally, an update on the Annual Appeal. We have gone over our assessment in gifts and outstanding pledges! It is very important that those with outstanding pledges continue making these payments so that we can meet our obligation to the diocese. A reminder: as we have now gone over our assessment, additional gifts and pledges will stay right here at Holy Trinity. We are currently 40 pledges short of the number we had last year, so if you have not yet been able to make a pledge or one-time gift, there is still time to participate and anything that comes in now will stay here for our use in the parish. Thank you for your continued support of Holy Trinity!

Finally, as you know we have been working on our Sacramental celebrations and getting caught up. On October 3-4, we will celebrate Confirmation with our Confirmation class of 2020. We are so glad to be able to celebrate the Sacrament with the confirmation students and their families. We're having to do it over two days because of capacity restrictions in our church. Please keep our Confirmation candidates in your prayers in these coming days.

May God bless us all, and may God bless Holy Trinity.

HT PIANO After several decades of talented piano playing, Mary Keck has decided to retire from the Schola group as the accompaniment. We thank Mary from the bottom of our hearts for all the time she has given Holy Trinity Church Schola. She will certainly be missed. Holy Trinity Church is looking for permanent and fill-in piano players. Our music at Holy Trinity is very important to all and plays a large part of our masses. If you are interested or have ??, please contact Andy andyn@holyltrinitydm.org in the parish.

If you or a family member desire God's healing grace, come to the Healing Mass Thursday October 15 at 9AM. Father Mark and Father Greg Leach will offer the Sacrament of the Sick during this liturgy. Anyone experiencing pain or distress whether mental, physical, or spiritual, is a candidate for the Sacrament of the Sick. We are requesting that parishioners make a reservation with Sandy Stacy, Pastoral Care Minister. Please call the Parish office at 255-3162 ext 124 and let us know how many will be attending in your family. We want to allow for the safety of all individuals attending this Mass. Physical distancing will be in place and we request you wear a mask.

WE STILL NEED HELP!! We need ushers and cleaners after the 8:30 and 10:30 Sunday Masses. Please contact Andy Negrete 255-3162 ext. 129 or andyn@holyltrinitydm.org

DIOCESE of  DES MOINES

OFFICE of the BISHOP

September 14, 2020
Feast of the Triumph of the Cross

Dear Friends in Christ,

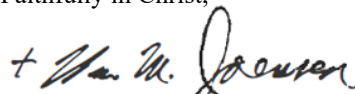

As you recall, the pandemic brought our observance of the Sacred Triduum to a halt earlier this year. With Good Friday services in our churches not open to the public, there was no opportunity for the traditional Holy Land Collection to be gathered. However, the need for support of Christians in the Holy Land remains great. It is my hope that you will respond to that need as we focus on a collection on September 26-27, 2020. This is the opportunity when we respond to the direction of the Holy Father and reach out to assist our sisters and brothers in the Holy Land.

The Franciscans have been in the Holy Land since 1209, walking in Jesus' footsteps, caring for the poor, educating young people, providing scholarships, protecting the holy shrines, conducting pastoral ministries and keeping Christianity alive. In countless ways, their ministry gives voice to the voiceless.

Through this collection, we are united in a special way to the land that was made sacred by Our Savior's redemptive mission. The flourishing of Franciscan ministries in the Holy Land depends on the support they receive from each of us. The daily news reminds us of the violence and instability plaguing the Middle East, but we rarely hear of the shrinking Christian community there, a tenacious community that strives to provide unbroken witness to apostolic faith.

I urge you to be generous in your support of the Holy Land Collection. May God bless you as you respond with generous hearts to this special appeal.

Faithfully in Christ,

Most Rev. William M. Joensen, Ph.D.

NOTES ON THE MASS SEP 27 2020

SPIRITUALITY OF THE READINGS

Motivation

Sometimes God appeals to people’s self-interest to get them to do what is right. Many of us need it, so that, through self-interest, we can overcome our self-interest.

We are shown this in the First Reading, where we find a straight-out argument between the people and God. They claim that “The Lord’s way is not fair!” They quote the famous saying, “The parents eat sour grapes, but the children’s teeth are set on edge” (Ez 18:2). Apparently their argument is that sin belongs to their fathers or mothers, not to them. So, God is punishing unjustly.

God’s reply in this reading is as follows:

The house of Israel says, ‘The Lord’s way is not fair!’
Is it my way that is not fair, house of Israel?
Is it not your ways that are not fair?

Then he shows them that punishment comes to those who actually commit an iniquity, not to those who just happen to be born of sinful parents. It is your own actions that matter. If you sin, it is fair that I punish you. If you do virtue, it is fair that I give you life.

Jesus’ parable in the Gospel takes it one step further. There we hear about a man whose father asks him to go work in the vineyard. The man says, rudely, “I will not.” Surely he would be counted as one of the sinful people described above. Or maybe he just had a headache, or was not a morning person, or whatever. But when his father leaves the house he changes his mind and goes out to work hard on the vines.

He has a brother. This one says in effect, “Yes, of course I will go out and do your will!” Isn’t this exactly what God had been telling the people in the First Reading? I am sure the father in the present parable was pleased, especially after the rude reply he had gotten from his first son. Of course, as we know, this brother changed his mind and did not bother to go at all.

This second brother’s selfish interests were served by saying “yes, yes” to his father. It made him look good. But he did not trouble himself to actually do what he had promised. Self-interest did not get him to do good, but only to seem to do good.

So finally God decided to show us motivation that cannot be reduced to self-interest.

If we want motivation, as well as encouragement, solace in love, participation in the Spirit, compassion, and mercy, St. Paul says to look at what Christ did (Second Reading). Then you will not act out of selfishness, but will serve others humbly, as Christ did. This is the ultimate motivation in Christianity.

Have in you the same attitude
that is also in Christ Jesus,
Who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God something to be grasped.
Rather, he emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
coming in human likeness;
and found human in appearance,
he humbled himself,
becoming obedient to the point of death,
even death on a cross.
Because of this God greatly exalted him.*

Self-interested motives are not the only ones. Just look at Christ—when you are at prayer and at Mass—and let him form you in humility.
Let God make you good.

John Foley, SJ

Sts. Cosmas and Damian

READING I: Ezekiel 18:25-28

PSALM: 25:4-9

READING II: Philippians 2:1-11

GOSPEL: Matthew 21:28-32

Question for Children: How do you show your love for Jesus by doing what he asks, even when it is difficult for you?

Question for Youth: Today's parable reminds us that it isn't what we say that counts as much as what we do. How would someone know you are a Christian through your actions?

Question for Adults: How and when were you like each of the sons in the Gospel?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Cosmas and Damian, Physicians and Martyrs, early Fourth Century

According to legend, Cosmas and Damian were twin brothers born in Arabia. They studied medicine in Syria and later became widely known for their medical skills which they offered, without charge, to all. Because of their charities, they were known in their time as the "moneyless ones." They gained the love and respect of the people to whom they ministered, both for their medical assistance and the zeal of their Christian faith.

During the persecution under the Emperor Diocletian, Cosmas and Damian, together with three brothers, Anthimus, Leontius, and Euprepus, were arrested, tried, and beheaded for their faith. Over the years following their deaths, many people reported miracles that occurred in the names of Cosmas and Damian. Among them was the Emperor Justinian I, who attributed his cure from a serious illness to these saints. In thankfulness, the emperor enlarged a church which had been built on the site of the saints' burial place.

Cosmas and Damian's message today: The two brothers completely embraced and lived the Christian life. This was particularly exemplified by their unselfish behavior in caring for the sick. We are not asked to give nearly so much of ourselves as Cosmas and Damian did, but we are asked to give something.

Think about volunteering some of your time to a local hospital or nursing home.
