THANK YOU ALL FOR SUPPORTING THE ADVENT GIVING TREE

We are so grateful for your support this past Christmas!

In the midst of what has been a very difficult year, it's reassuring to know that there are some things we can count on. I'm making reference to this year's Advent Giving Tree, and the overwhelming generosity of our parish and school families. The Advent Giving Tree is a staple here at Holy Trinity, and we as a parish and school always provide a lot of joy and hope by sharing our financial gifts and blessings with others. Children and Family Urban Movement (CFUM) is a local organization that provides meals to those in need, along with providing other services like reading programs for young children. We were able to raise $1570 to support their outreach. Another organization we support is Connection Cafe. Connection Cafe is run by Rob Hoover, who is a parishioner at Holy Trinity. Connection Cafe provides warm meals for those in need, but they also help people with warm clothing and boots during the winter months, as well as helping folks who don't have cars get around town with bus fare. We were able to donate over $1500 along with a number of warm stocking caps and gloves. St Vincent de Paul is also recognized for all the good work they do here in the Des Moines metro, and Holy Trinity has supported them and their outreach for a number of years. This year we donated over $1200 in Grocery and Gas Gift Cards to their ministry. And last, but certainly not least is Catholic Charities. The number of hairbrushes, personal hygiene products, boots, hats and gloves, household cleaning supplies, pillows and sheets, laundry detergent, and so much more that we were able to donate was absolutely massive. All four of these worthy charities were so grateful, especially in a year when the need was even greater than it usually is, they all wanted to extend their deepest thanks to the people of Holy Trinity. Your generosity made this Christmas Merry and Bright for a great number of people who are living right here in our own neighborhoods. Happy New Year, and Blessings to you and yours in 2021! John Mertes

NOTES FROM THE CHURCH JAN 17 2021

FAMILY PROMISE OF GREATER DES MOINES NEEDS VOLUNTEERS Friends—We’ve had a great response from Holy Trinity to help Family Promise Greater Des Moines (FPGD) the week of January 24. Meals for that week have been covered but we still have openings for overnight volunteers at that time. These volunteer opportunities all take place at Westminster Presbyterian Church, 4114 Allison Ave, DSM. Overnight duties are simple and limited. Social distancing with our guests is strictly enforced to ensure limited exposure. Your primary job is to sleep on air mattresses provided by FPGD. Details can be found in this video link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Vkc6i5rClag> Please let me know if you can help and of the following evenings:

YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH

The Year of St. Joseph has begun! And Bishop Joensen is reflecting on this humble saint who displayed a great trust in God, allowing him to be used for a higher purpose. Bishop explains the virtues of creative courage and chastity of St. Joseph, and encourages us to better know Jesus' father figure during this time. He also asks for prayers for our two seminarians, Max Carson and Nick Stark, who will be respectively ordained to the transitional diaconate Dec. 26 in Rome and Dec. 30 in Urbandale.

THE THIRD OPTION

A marriage enrichment ministry for couples, is still up and running in the diocese! This program is for all couples whether they are facing obstacles in their marriage or just trying to make a good thing better!

The Third Option will meet every 2nd and 4th Monday on "Zoom" until conditions allow us to safely meet in person. The workshop is held from 7-9 p.m. and participants are welcome to join anytime. If you have questions or would like to register contact Adam Storey at 515-237-5056. JUST FAITH OPPORTUNITY-HUNGER: A FAITH AND JUSTICE RESPONSE is an 8-session, prayerful process that includes study, rich dialogue, and an immersion experience. This program inspires and equips participants to take concrete action to end hunger and food insecurity. The course may challenge your thinking about food insecurity, its causes, its impact, and viable steps to eliminate it. The class explores issues such as food deserts, underemployment and food insecurity, food waste, public policy around farming, and COVID-19's impact on hunger. Our hope is that the program will guide participants in discerning how they are called to action in addressing this issue. This JustFaith Ministries program is being offered online through the Center for Social Ministry on Tuesday Evenings, 6:30-8:30PM beginning January 19, 2021. $80 per person and includes all materials. Scholarships are available. Register Online

NOTES ON THE MASS JAN 17 2021

SPIRITUALITY OF THE READING

Called by Name

We now begin what the Church calls “Ordinary Time.” Christmas season is over, and we begin to see Jesus at work.

We begin with a significant story, found in the First Reading for this Sunday. A young man named Samuel is sleeping in the temple. He wakes up instantly when he hears his name spoken out loud. He cries out, “Here I am!” and runs to his master, Eli, who is sleeping in another place in the temple. “You called me, what do you want?”

“I didn’t call you,” Eli rasps. “Go back to sleep.” But the same thing happened again. Samuel runs to Eli, with the same result.

On the third time, the old man at last understands. Wisely, he says “Samuel if this happens again, say these words: ‘Speak, Lord, your servant is listening.’”

Samuel goes back to sleep. He hears his name again, “Samuel, Samuel!” Following instructions, he says, “Speak, Lord, your servant is listening!” God speaks, and Samuel grows up accompanied by the Lord’s presence.

So much for the First Reading. Another naming is represented in the Gospel. John the Baptist points to Jesus. Jesus is waiting for standers-by to notice him and get interested. They follow and Jesus says bluntly, “What are you looking for?”

There are several layers to this question. The plain meaning is, “What’s up? Why are you following me?” But the depth charge is there too, the same one that finally shook Samuel loose: “Are you looking for God? Is that your hunger? Is there something about me that answers the deep desire of your heart?”

They stammer. They give some kind of reply. “Well, uh, well, um, where, where are you staying?” Jesus replied as he does to you and me: “Come and see.”

They do go and see, spending the day with him. One of them, Andrew, runs to get his brother Simon, shouting, “we have found the Messiah”! They run back to Jesus and the most important event in Simon’s life takes place: Jesus gives him the name Cephas (Peter), a new deep identity for him. The word Cephas’ base meaning is “the rock.” Jesus must have seen innermost stability in him.

Peter could never have become fully himself if someone had not named him all the way to his depths. The same goes for Samuel. God can call any of us by a name that reaches all the way down into our souls, to a place that we do not even know about! Our job is to begin hearing and to grow.

Must it always be God or Jesus who calls our name in order for us to become ourselves? Couldn’t a psychologist do it, or a spouse, or a dear friend who believes in us? Yes, of course, each of these know us and beckon us to be ourselves.

But only God can know our very deepest desires, and only God can satisfy the one that is the most precious in each of us: the reaching out for that person we want most and for whose sake we love others.

Jesus God.

Do you sense in your insides a kind voice whispering such an invitation, calling you by your real name, calling you to be an ally of the Christ of God?

John Foley, SJ

QUESTIONS TO ASK

Question for Children: What can you do this week to show that you are a follower of Jesus?

Question for Youth: Andrew seemed to know immediately that he should follow Jesus. Do you have that same sense of confidence in your faith in Jesus? What helps? What makes it hard?

Question for Adults: In what ways do you experience being called by Jesus? What does he want you to do?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Timothy, Bishop and Martyr

Timothy was living in Lystra when St. Paul visited there around the year 47. He joined that saint for the second and third of his missionary journeys and is frequently mentioned in the Bible in both the Acts of the Apostles and in Paul's letters. Timothy was with Paul at the founding of the church in Corinth. He was probably with Paul when the apostle was imprisoned in Caesarea and, later, in Rome. Timothy was himself imprisoned but was later set free.

In the second letter to Timothy, the most personal of all his writings, Paul is nearing the end of his life ("I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." 2 Tm 4:7). He gives Timothy further advice on how to conduct his ministry and tells him to "be strong in the grace which is ours in Christ Jesus."

Timothy's message today: Tradition tells us that Timothy followed Paul's advice and used his gifts well. He was indeed "strong in the grace which is ours in Christ Jesus." Jesus asks us to do the same, that is, to use our gifts well and be strong in the grace that God gives us.

How are you using the gifts that God gave to you? Do you sometimes forget that Jesus is with you, giving you the grace that will help you to be strong?
