FROM FATHER MARK JULY 12 2020

GREETINGS.

I have brief update for the parish this week.

A reminder, beginning this week, our weekday Mass schedule has changed. Our weekday Masses will be Tuesday and Wednesday at 8 AM, Thursday at 6 PM, and Friday at 8 AM. We will maintain the once-a-week evening Mass for the time being. Our weekend schedule will be the normal schedule for now of 4:30 PM on Saturday and 8:30 AM and 10:30 AM on Sunday morning.

Our weekend public Masses have gone well. Our numbers were as follows for July 4-5: Saturday 4:30PM, 52 people, Sunday 8:30 AM, 72 people, and Sunday 10:30 AM, 68 people. There is ample room for more people with very good social distancing in effect for those interested. Thank you for your cooperation with new procedures. I know the distancing and masks are not convenient, but they are currently the best method for mitigating the spread of the virus. Your consideration for others is greatly appreciated. It is great to see people in the church again and the music was excellent! Though, at the advice of the Diocese, we are still encouraged to keep congregational singing to a minimum at present as an added precaution. We look forward to seeing you soon.

An update on the annual appeal: We currently have 287 pledges for a total of $99,475. This is out of 1250 parish households. Our assessment this year is $108,155. Again, thank you so much to all those who have made such a generous gift thus far. If you've not yet had a chance to make a pledge, please give this your most prayerful consideration. We do need everyone's help if we are to make our assessment. A reminder, if we don't make our assessment, the difference will have to be made up out of our operating funds. If we go over our assessment, that difference then stays here at Holy Trinity for our use.

May God continue to bless us all and may God bless Holy Trinity.

FR. Mark

We have begun to plan for Communion Home Visits for those who find themselves isolated due to the Covid-19 pandemic. Please inform Sandy Stacy, Pastoral Care Minister if you desire to receive Communion in your home.

It is our plan to offer Communion Visits once a month to our Parishioners. The Homebound ministers will be required to wear a mask. The Parishioners are strongly encouraged to wear a mask, with the exception of the reception communion. We will practice the use of hand sanitizer and six-foot distancing with the exception of the reception of communion. When possible, the communion service should be practiced outside. Depending on the number of Home visit requests we may need to recruit Communion Ministers. Sandy Stacy will help individuals discern if they feel comfortable engaging in this ministry. Contact Sandy at 255 3162 ext 124.

Tuition Assistance

The application for CTO tuition assistance for 2020-21 just got easier! Submit your application along with your 2018 Tax Returns plus your 2019 W-2s (or 1099s, if self-employed)! Round 2 applications are due July 31; apply today and you'll know your tuition assistance before school starts this fall!

CTO
CATHOLIC TUITION
ORGANIZATION

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS - MORE AFFORDABLE THAN YOU MAY THINK

Considering a Catholic school for your child but concerned about the cost of tuition? Catholic education is more affordable than you may think. Every year the Catholic Tuition Organization (CTO) provides tuition assistance to eligible families whose children attend one of the sixteen Catholic schools in the Diocese of Des Moines. The criteria for receiving assistance is based on family size and income. Last year, CTO provided scholarships to nearly 2,000 students throughout the Diocese of Des Moines. The next deadline to apply for CTO is Friday, July 31, 2020. Visit www.ctodsmdiocese.org to learn more and apply. You can apply at fairapp.com before the deadline to find out how much you have been approved for the 2020-21 school year. The school code is 450 and the password is CTO450.

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION AT HOLY TRINITY What is Early Childhood Education (ECE)? Early Childhood Education (ECE) is a continuum of programs, services, and classes designed to support brain development, cognitive function and the social-emotional growth of children ages 3-5 (before they begin kindergarten). Holy Trinity offers a full continuum of ECE classes. We offer full-day Preschool (3-year-olds), Pre-Kindergarten (4-year-olds), Transitional Kindergarten (5-year-olds not yet ready for kindergarten), and Extended Care (care provided before the school day begins and after the school day ends). Our ECE curriculum is aligned with Iowa Common Core and our K-12 school curriculum. Coursework includes faith-formation, academic growth, social skills development, and enrichment activities like art, PE, library and computer classes. Our focus on literacy development helps ensure students are at or above grade level across all disciplines by third grade. How Can ECE Benefit My Child? One of many benefits of ECE is socialization. Students are provided opportunities to interact and move toward associative and cooperative play with same age peers. You can't get that learning in the same way at home as an only child or with multi-age siblings. Moreover, ECE programs build school readiness skills such as following directions, sustained attention during group time, self-care skills, response to peer conflict, and more. Want to Give Your Little One a Jump Start? There's still time to register for Early Childhood Education at Diocese of Des Moines Catholic Schools, but space is limited. Visit www.dmdiocese.org/catholic-schools to find a Catholic school near you today!

www.smile.amazon.com provides Holy Trinity PTO with .5% of all of your eligible Amazon purchases back in cash! Thank you to all who designated Holy Trinity as their charity of choice.

BRING THE GOSPEL HOME JULY 12 2020

READING I: Isaiah 55:10-11

PSALM: 65:10-14

READING II: Romans 8:18-23

GOSPEL: Matthew 13:1-23

Question for Children: Who helps you to grow deeper in your faith?

Question for Youth: When the sower, in this week's Gospel, sowed his seed, not all of it fell in "good soil." What can you do in the coming week to make sure that you are open to God in your life? What is getting in the way of your being "good soil?"

Question for Adults: Using the parable of Jesus in this reading, describe how faith has been planted in your life? How long did it take for that seed to land "on good soil?"

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Bonaventure, Bishop and Doctor

Saint Bonaventure entered the Franciscan order at the age of twenty-two and was sent to Paris to complete his studies. It was in Paris that his reputation for genius manifested itself, and here that he became a close friend of Thomas Aquinas. He was elected to govern the Franciscans and did so for seventeen years. For this he is called the "second founder" of the Franciscan order. Once when the pope was looking for him, he sent a delegation to find him. Bonaventure was found at a Franciscan monastery, washing the dishes. The saint asked them to hang the hat on the bough of a tree because, he explained, he couldn't decently take it up with his greasy hands. Only when he had finished his work did Bonaventure take up the hat and go out to greet the legates.

Many of us tend to take ourselves too seriously from time to time. We sometimes see ourselves as better, smarter, richer, more successful than others, and look down on them. Bonaventure recognized that whatever gifts he had received came from God. They did not make him a better person than his "brother and master."

Bonaventure's message today: Many of us tend to take ourselves too seriously from time to time. We sometimes see ourselves as better, smarter, richer, more successful than others, and look down on them. Bonaventure recognized that whatever gifts he had received came from God. They did not make him a better person than his "brother and master."

Do you sometimes feel that you are superior to another? Have you used your riches and power to accomplish good in the world or merely to indulge yourself and your family?

NOTES ON THE MASS JULY 12 2020

SPIRITUALITY OF THE READINGS

Yearning for God's Goodness

The readings for this nearly mid-summer Sunday reflect the beauties of the earth: its golden harvests, its astonishing Spring, its delicate birds, beasts, mountains, hills and plains. Even in this time of virus, those whose eyes can see will find infinite surprise!

I must be fully myself and allow God to do the rest.

Yes, even in this time of virus and troubles.

I want to quote a complete poem in this space, hoping that I am not just indulging my attachment to poetry. The Jesuit poet Hopkins was so filled with the world's beauty that I want him to speak here, in the poem called "Pied Beauty."*

*Glory be to God for dappled things—
For skies of couple-color as a brindled cow;
For rose-moles all in stipple upon trout that swim;
Fresh-firecoal chestnut-falls; finches' wings;
Landscape plotted and pieced—fold, fallow, and plough;
And all trades, their gear and tackle and trim.
All things counter, original, spare, strange;
Whatever is fickle, freckled (who knows how?)
With swift, slow; sweet, sour; adazzle, dim;
He fathers-forth whose beauty is past change:
Praise him.**

Some of the language is unusual, I admit. I hope the footnote below will help you, especially when you read the poem out loud. If you spend time with these glorious images you will come to love our ever-evolving blue planet like someone bathing in the gentle tide of ocean swirl. All of it luxuriant, all of it precious.

In the First Reading the Lord uses this ebb and flow of seasons to show the workings of his visceral love for the earth. He says,

*"Just as the rain and snow come down to earth,
and do not return there till they have watered the earth,
making it fertile and fruitful, ...
so shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth.
It comes to the world and does not return until it has moistened and nourished life in every single creature that will receive it."*

A fruitful harvest, the Psalm calls it.

Then, in the Second Reading, St. Paul speaks of all creation groaning in labor pains. Human beings too groan within themselves like seeds which break open and push their way through tough ground and evolve into full trees that stretch up for Christ's light.

Can such rich images apply to you and me? How is our own soil? God pours his grace into it always. Do you and I groan and yearn for the goodness of God which is already lavished upon us? Do we take time each day to let love in? Or when we listen to the Word on Sunday, perhaps with some interest, do we then forget everything by Monday?

Jesus lists a number of things we might have to correct in order to accept the gifts he has ready for us (Gospel).

We might be shallow ground, he says. Or rocky soil. Weeds might choke us. Discouraging, isn't it? Must I pretend to be rich soil, though I know my shallowness? No. I must be fully myself and allow God to do the rest.

The Indian poet Tagore put it this way:
The cloud stood humbly in a corner of the sky.
The morning crowned it with splendor.
(Tagore, Stray Birds, #100)

Let us be humble and join in the revolving refreshment of all earthly things. Can't we open our leaves, and allow the sun to come in?

John Foley, SJ
