FROM FATHER MARK OCT 11 2020

GREETINGS. As fall begins and the seasons start to shift, heading toward the month of thanks and giving, we may find ourselves asking: What does it mean to be Holy and giving people? People, places, things and events can be holy. But true holiness means to be set apart for the work of God. In a world that does not always honor holiness, stewardship can help us learn how to see our personal resources: our time, our talents, our treasures, as a holy gift to and from God. Each year we ask you to pray about your stewardship to your Parish community: how much good it does for you and your family and how much good you can give back through tithing.

The biblical understanding of tithing comes from the idea that God made us with a desire to give of ourselves. We give out of a sense of gratitude for our many gifts and out of a desire to reach out to others. Giving out of gratitude to God can help us to keep our gifts in proper perspective.

The Bible shows us that God will not be outdone in generosity. As we reflect on the holiness of our own gifts, we are also invited to reflect upon the holiness of God's gifts to us. When we see all that we have as a gift, we gain a new perspective on our call to be giving people.

"Tell the rich in the present age not to be proud and not to rely on so uncertain a thing as wealth but rather on God, who richly provides us with all things for our enjoyment. Tell them to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous, ready to share, thus accumulating as treasure a good foundation for the future, so as to win the life that is true life." - 1 Timothy 6:17-19

Throughout sacred scripture we learn that everything ultimately belongs to God. He made the world and all that is in it. He made us and blessed us with absolutely every gift we have. Our lives, our families, our health, our education, our unique talents and skills, our job and our income are all blessings from God, entrusted into our care for the good of all peoples. Thus, when we tithe we are returning a portion of our gifts to the One who has given to us so generously.

Our Parish Needs your support to pay the expenses and financial obligations it incurs as it operates in a commercial society. Salaries, benefits, insurance, maintenance, utilities and all the other expenses incurred in maintaining our parish's many programs and ministries. Additionally, we are called to care for the poor among us and spread the Gospel message as best we can. Your support is needed to carry out this mission.

Often, those who tithe report that the practice of giving to a worthy cause brings a sense of joy, peace, contentment, and more holiness to their lives.

"Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver". 2 Corinthians. 9:7

Please look for your annual tithing letter coming soon. Thank you, God Bless you and God Bless Holy Trinity.

Fr Mark

Please go to <https://holytrinitydm.org/school/enroll/enroll-now> to sign up today

This week our students have been enjoying and exploring the changing of the seasons. Many parents, like you, have also been exploring changing schools and have a lot of great questions we know you may be asking as well. Here are some of the most FAQ:

- Do students have the option to be 100% online? If so, how many students currently have selected that option? Yes, they can be 100% online -- we have about 5% of the school learning online for the first trimester.
- What type of devices does HT use? iPads? Chromebooks? Etc? What is the ratio for students/devices? Both iPads and Chromebooks with a 1:1 ratio in Middle School, 2:1 in elementary, 4:1 for early ed and for 1:1 for online learners.
- What type of technology does HT use? Schoology? SeeSaw? Zoom? Etc? Seesaw, Google Classroom and Zoom.
- Average class size per grade? 19-20 students per class with two classes per grade band except in early education which maxes out at 16 per class.
- Are sports/clubs/etc. still being offered in light of COVID? Yes, many of them are.
- Is HT still accepting new students for the 2020 - 2021 school year? We have limited space in Pre-School 3s, Pre-Kindergarten 4s, Transitional Kindergarten, Grades 1, 3, 6, 7 and 8. We have online only openings until January for Grade 4.
- What sets HT apart from other local Catholic schools? Holy Trinity has a history of graduating students who are well-prepared to do well in high school and beyond. There is an authentic feeling of community and connection within the students and the families who attend, with a rich tradition of alumni returning to send their students as well. We concentrate on ensuring we have exceptional teachers, innovation in our curriculum and classrooms, a safe and nurturing space, plus parent partnership within an environment where children grow and learn in wisdom and faith.

NOTES ON THE MASS OCT 11 2020

SPIRITUALITY OF THE READING

All Good Gifts

You probably saw Babette's Feast, or at least have heard about it. An impoverished fine cook from Paris makes her way into a small Danish town where the religion of the area made people hard and cold to each other, at least according to this movie, afraid to enjoy or even to relate to each other. Babette had only a small stash of possessions, but she was a top chef. So she prepared, over many days, a huge, delectable, exquisite feast, serving after serving, all for the uptight townspeople. As they began to taste and enjoy, they began also to communicate in kindness to each other. They even danced!

Food is meant to be enjoyed, not refused.

I have heard people say that the movie promoted self-indulgence, and I do not endorse such a thing. But I do notice similarities to the huge feast we hear about in the First Reading.

It is the famous invitation from the Lord of Hosts, full of unstinting promise. "A feast of rich food and choice wines," Isaiah says. A great feast, a "groaning board" in medieval England, just like the banquet in Babette's Feast.

Sunday's Gospel has a sumptuous feed too. The king gets his very best livestock fattened up, seasoned, readied for cooking, with invitations sent out. If you thought the people in Babette's town were reluctant, look what happened here. Some people refused outright to come. Others simply ignored the invitation as if it had not been given, and a number "laid hold of his servants, mistreated them, and killed them." The king punished these and then invited in street people. Food is meant to be enjoyed, not refused.

But with so many people starving in today's world, how dare we fatten ourselves up with rich food and every other kind of riches? Shouldn't we much more becomingly abstain and deny ourselves? Isn't the "First World" currently fattening itself on food far more lavish than the ancient world could ever have imagined? Advertisements in the United States tell us we should luxuriate, should pamper ourselves, should not hold back. "Who says you can't have it all," they say.

How are we to respond, we who try to be faithful to God and God's promises?

But remember that Jesus both fasted and feasted. He abstained from food for forty days at the beginning of his public ministry. But later on he said, "The Son of Man came eating and drinking and they said, 'Look, he is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners' (Mt. 11:19)."

How would he have gotten such a reputation except by enjoying his times with others at meals?

Which is it for us, then, fasting or feasting?

I think the answer is simple yet difficult to grow into. I think we are meant to receive humbly and to give to others as well. The mistake is to adopt a stance of only receiving (getting, grabbing) or on the other hand, only giving (giving, with nothing in return). Sunday's readings invite us to come into the kingdom, to open up, eat, enjoy what is there.

To receive as Jesus did.

He went deep, accepting all things as coming from God's hand. Then, when it was time to let go of it all—life, friends, peace and possessions—he did that with love. Receive and give. Jesus wants us to receive his life and then give it out to the world.

John Foley, SJ

The Lord Almighty will prepare a feast of rich food for all peoples, a banquet of aged wine—the best of meats and the finest of wines.

Question for Children: Why is it important for you to do what Jesus asks of you?

Question for Youth: Each week we are invited to participate in Mass. When you are at Mass, how well do you really participate? How could you be more present in heart, mind, and spirit?

Question for Adults: Using Jesus' parable as your starting point, describe in your own words who will be welcome and why they will be welcome, at the eternal banquet of God.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Margaret Mary Alacoque, Religious

Born the fifth of seven children to the family of an official in France, Margaret was a good child, but she was not particularly smart or clever. When she was old enough, she entered a convent of the Visitation nuns. At the time, this order had two classes of nuns. The choir nuns were the cultivated, educated nuns who did the teaching and sang in the choir, while the lay nuns were the unschooled women who did the menial chores in the convent. Margaret Mary was a part of this second group. Hers was not an easy life, and she suffered the scorn and ridicule of some of the learned nuns because of her piety. Strongly devoted to Christ, Margaret Mary accepted her suffering in the name of Jesus. The Lord made himself known to her several times throughout the years, and based on this, she promoted devotion to the Sacred Heart which we still have in the Church today.

Margaret Mary's message today: Many of the saints were scorned because of their lives of devotion and prayer; Margaret Mary was one of these, although her sanctity was eventually recognized by those in her community. Likewise, we may experience the same reaction when we try to live out our Christian beliefs. Jesus encourages us to persevere, however, as he did in his visions to Margaret Mary.

Was there a time when you were rebuffed because of what you believe in? Were you able to persevere? How?
