Taking the Journey TOGETHER

"The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. The foolish ones said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise ones replied, 'No, there may not be enough for us and for you.'"

FROM FATHER MARK NOV 8 2020

GREETINGS

Holy Trinity School Families, We're so glad you have chosen to give your students the gift of a Catholic Education at Holy Trinity School. Part of that gift is giving back to your parish family through tithing. This is what keeps in-parish tuition affordable.

You should have received your 2021 tithing letter and pledge card in the mail. Please take the time to fill them out and return them to the parish office. All families who enjoy the in-parish tuition rate are asked to have a current pledge card on file so that we can better budget for the upcoming year's expenses and accurately set tuition each year.

We ask that if you can, to give a little more than last year. We ask that if you can only give a little, to consider giving more of you: your time and talent. With your help and God willing, 2021 can be a year filled with faith, service and respect for all as we all continue to take this journey together here at Holy Trinity.

Thank you for whatever your family can give.

May God continue to bless us all, and may God bless Holy Trinity.

Fr Mark Neal

COMMUNITY & DIOCESE NOV 8 2020

At the Hy-Vee Ron Pearson Conference Center in West Des Moines featuring top musical talent, including Gina Gedler and Tony Valdez, backed by a 20 voice choir and orchestra. In addition, you will experience a fabulous meal and hear a great pro-life talk by Bishop William Joensen. The expansiveness of the Ron Pearson Center allows IFL to easily accommodate social-distancing protocols.

THANK YOU Many thanks to everyone who participated in the planning study for the Diocese of Des Moines. Over the next few weeks, the Steier Group will analyze its findings and prepare recommendations for Bishop Joensen regarding the ability of the diocese to conduct a successful capital campaign, and what our fundraising potential might be. Once Bishop Joensen reviews the report and discerns how to move forward, conclusions will be communicated to the entire Diocese of Des Moines family. Thank you again! We're grateful for your feedback and your prayers.

Reminder from the Diocese of indulgences available through December.

1. The Plenary Indulgence applicable for visiting a cemetery & praying for the dead between Nov 1-8 is extended through the entire month of Nov.
2. The Plenary Indulgence applicable for visiting a Church on All Souls Day and praying for the dead by recitation of the Lord's Prayer & Creed is extended through the entire month of November.
3. The aged, the sick, and those who cannot leave their homes, or those who do not wish to visit these places due to the practice of social distancing, may, instead of visiting these places, obtain these indulgences by praying in front of a sacred image in their homes, with the intent to fulfill the usual obligation for an indulgence as soon as possible, and reciting a prayer of their choice, reading from scripture, or offering their present sufferings to God as a spiritual sacrifice.

For those unfamiliar with indulgences, the word "indulgence" can make people feel a little uncomfortable. The reality is that the Church's practice of giving indulgences are a great gift to us and are spiritually backed. Basically, an indulgence is the grace we receive from the Treasury of the Church through performing a specific good act or praying specific prayers specified by the Church. The grace is specifically for the freeing of us from temporal punishment. Indulgences have been divided into two kinds: Partial – gives one a partial remission of temporal punishment Plenary – gives one a full remission of temporal punishment. In the past, the Church used to attach a number of days or years off purgatory to each partial indulgence. But now she wants us to understand that the amount of freedom we receive from temporal punishment is based on our own level of devotion. The more charity and devotion we have in prayer, the greater the remission we receive. For further research on indulgences, go to the Vatican Website.

NOTES ON THE MASS NOV 8 2020

SPIRITUALITY OF THE READING

Be Watchful, Be Ready

The theme of the Gospel is: "Be watchful and ready." We are in a condition of awaiting something or someone important, and we don't know when the arrival will take place. Hence the advice: "keep your eyes open, for you know not the day or the hour."

The liturgy combines this reading with a passage from Wisdom, suggesting that what we are awaiting is the arrival of wisdom: "he who watches for her at dawn shall not be disappointed."

When will we finally understand what we need to know in order to live together as brothers and sisters?

When will we get the wisdom to place the one true God ahead of our petty gods of power, possessions, and pleasure? When will we be inspired with the wisdom to overcome our social ills? We do not know when, and so we must be watchful and ready, otherwise the moment will pass us by.

One thing we do know: wisdom "makes her own rounds, seeking those worthy of her." Those will not be found worthy who do not listen to the Scriptures, or to their own experiences, or to the sufferings of those around them. The message to them will be tragic: "I tell you I do not know you."

We do not know the time for the consummation of the earth and of humanity, nor do we know how all things will be transformed. As deformed by sin, the shape of this world will pass away; but we are taught that God is preparing a new dwelling place and a new earth where justice will abide, and whose blessedness will answer and surpass all the longings for peace which spring up in the human heart.

BRING THE GOSPEL HOME NOV 8 2020

READING I: Wisdom 6:12-16

PSALM: 63:2-8

READING II: 1Thessalonians 4:13-18

GOSPEL: Matthew 25:1-13

Question for Children: If Jesus came to your house today, what would you do to get ready for him?

Question for Youth: Even though you are still young, what strategy do you have to make sure you are “ready” for the inevitable moment when you will die?

Question for Adults: How are you preparing to be ready for that moment that no one escapes, the moment when you come to the end of your life as you know it now?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Margaret of Scotland, Queen and Mother, 1045-1093

Margaret was born in Hungary, the daughter of royal parents. Brought to the court of King Edward the Confessor in England when she was twelve, she and her family were forced to flee after the Battle of Hastings in 1066. Shipwrecked off Scotland, they were befriended by King Malcolm of Scotland who married Margaret in 1070.

Margaret and Malcolm had six sons and two daughters. Contrary to the general practice of royalty in that time, Margaret took charge of raising and educating her children. The youngest son, Saint David of Scotland, succeeded his father and two older brothers as king. One daughter, who became known as Good Queen Maud, married King Henry I establishing a line which runs through the present royal family of England. It was said that the main goals of Malcolm and Margaret were to maintain justice, to establish religion, and to keep their subjects happy. Margaret encouraged arts and education in her adopted country and instigated religious reform. With her husband, she founded several churches. Despite her heavy involvement in the affairs of her household and her country, Margaret led an austere private life. She ate sparingly and slept little in order to have time for her devotions. She and her husband kept two Lents - one before Easter and one before Christmas. Margaret was always surrounded by beggars and never refused them. Especially during Advent and Lent, Margaret and her husband often fed hundreds of poor people, serving them the same food that they had for their own meal.

Margaret's message today: A heavy responsibility falls on those who have been given exalted positions. Margaret and her husband recognized the need to provide for those who were less fortunate than themselves. We too must do the same.

Have you accepted the responsibility of caring for those who need your assistance?
