FROM FATHER MARK AUG 30 2020

GREETINGS.

I have an update for the parish. Our parish school opened this week. So far, so good. We are offering our families a choice of either remote learning or in person learning. It will take some time to get it just the way we want it. Safety is our top priority at this time. For those choosing in person learning, we are taking all recommended precautions to keep our students and staff safe.

On August 15-16, we were able to have our two family First Communion Masses. They didn't quite look like they normally do, but we were glad to be able to celebrate with our students and families. Congratulations to all of our First Communicants! Our Confirmation Masses are currently scheduled for October 3-4. As with first Communion, they will not look quite like before, but we are doing our best to have family Confirmation celebrations here at Holy Trinity.

An update on the annual appeal: At present, we have 315 pledges for a total of $108,055 in gifts and outstanding pledges. We are almost to our assessment in pledges! Please keep the pledges coming. Last year, we had just over 360 pledges and would like to do our best to reach this number or more this year. Thank you so much to all those who have made such generous pledges thus far. I know this is a difficult time for all and your support is inspiring. If you have not yet had a chance to make a pledge or gift, please give this your most prayerful consideration. We do need your help. Thank you again for your continued support of Holy Trinity!

May God continue to bless us all and may God bless Holy Trinity.

Fr Mark

NOTES FROM THE DIOCESE AUG 30 2020

DIOCESE of  DES MOINES

Serving twenty-three counties in Southwest Iowa

OFFICE of the BISHOP

August 24, 2020

Dear Friends in Christ,

Derecho & Beirut Disaster Relief

On August 10, 2020, a straight-line windstorm, called a derecho, hit Iowa with hurricane-force winds. The storm caused severe damage to crops, businesses, and homes. Tens of thousands of individuals and families, more than a week afterwards, are still without power, assessing damages, and removing debris from their properties.

Six of the 23 counties within the Diocese of Des Moines are part of Governor Kim Reynolds' Proclamation of Disaster Emergency including Audubon, Cass, Dallas, Guthrie, Madison, and Polk. Out of these six counties, Polk and Dallas counties have been declared Federal Disaster Areas. The recovery process it expected to be lengthy and costly.

The Diocese of Des Moines is working with our local Catholic Charities to help the individuals and families most severely affected by the derecho. A Derecho Relief Fund has been established for this work of mercy. If you are able to help, your donation will provide direct relief to those in most need. If our collective generosity meets the scope of need in the Diocese of Des Moines, we will be contacting neighboring dioceses with significant damage such as the Archdiocese of Dubuque and the Diocese of Davenport to share these relief funds. We are in the process of exploring a further collaboration with the three other dioceses in Iowa to provide statewide assistance to all the affected peoples and areas.

In addition to the foregoing, our Church mourns the terrible suffering of those impacted by the tragic explosion in Beirut, Lebanon that killed so many without warning in early August, 2020. 2,750 tons of ammonium nitrate detonated at the city's port resulting in the deaths of at least 160 people. Thousands of people remain injured or homeless and the scope of suffering has only begun to be grasped. We have been asked by the bishops of the United States to offer a response of prayer, fasting, almsgiving, and advocacy.

In response to these local and global disasters, I ask that a special collection be taken up at our parishes the weekend of August 29-30. Donations can be made directly to the Diocese with the notation they are for Beirut disaster relief and/or derecho disaster relief. Gifts can also be made online at dmdiocese.org/giving. Contributions to disaster relief efforts in Beirut will be sent to Catholic Relief Services.

May the God who is never outdone in generosity bless you as you reach out to those in need – locally and globally. Faithfully in Christ,

Most Rev. William M. Joensen, Ph.D.

NOTES ON THE MASS AUG 30 2020

SPIRITUALITY OF THE READINGS

What's in a Name?

This week, Peter is in for a big surprise.

In last week's Gospel Jesus retired the name "Simon" and replaced it with the name Peter.

"And so I say to you, you are Peter and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it (Mt 16:18)."

We heard that, at root, the name Peter meant "rock." Simon is to be a "Rock," the foundation of the church.

Surprise, surprise, the name Jesus gives Peter this week has a very different flavor: he calls him "Satan" (Gospel). If this name were to stick, Peter would be the leader of the very "netherworld" which Jesus promised could not prevail against the church.

What has happened?

First, it is quite clear that Jesus' emotional state has changed. He is obviously dreading the suffering and death he will soon have to face. His rebuke to Peter is so sharp, so instant, so contradictory, that its emotional roots are showing. He knows what a terrible toll human misery and affliction will take on him. He snaps at Peter and even resorts to name-calling.

Second, Jesus had been gradually schooling the disciples about who he really is. Not just a great teacher, or good friend, or magnetic preacher, but the complete revelation of divine love. They had achieved their first high mark last week when Peter said, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." (Gospel, 21 Ord A 20)

Up until now he had not spoken a word to them about the crucifixion. At this stage, they should be able to begin to understand what it means for Jesus to be the Christ. Shouldn't they? So this week he shows the real meaning of Christly love: for the good of the world he must suffer greatly under the elders, chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised.

Do the Apostles get it? No. The Gospel reports that Peter "rebukes" Jesus. Something like this:

No, no, no, no, Lord, we will protect you—this will not happen to you, please don't worry so much. Everything will be ok, you'll see. We need you to be alive. You are the Christ! Use your powers!

It is an impulsive response. Very human. But notice that Peter is telling Jesus to avoid pain by selfish use of his divine powers.

This is just what the devil had recommended in the desert temptations (Matthew 4:1-11)! When Jesus was hungry, Satan had said, stealthily, you are Messiah! Why don't you simply turn these stones into bread? After that, have your angels save you from all danger. And then, be a real Messiah, be in charge of all the lands there are. Why not?

Because all of this would require bowing down and worshipping Satan.

To put it another way, Jesus would have to act according to the self-seeking, self-interested part of human nature. Go for the wealth, the power and the reputation. Forget Godly love.

Since he was human, Jesus must have felt within himself the rewards that would come with such desert temptations. And he must feel it now as Peter gives him the same enticement.

So he reacts strongly.

Does he really mean that Peter is Satan? No. But surely he remembers with pain the devil's temptations.

No wonder that name slips out.

John Foley, SJ

BRING THE GOSPEL HOME AUG 30 2020

READING I: Jeremiah 20:7-9

PSALM: 63:2-9

READING II: Romans 12:1-2

GOSPEL: Matthew 16:21-27

Question for Children: Jesus tells us that we each called to follow him. What is hard for you to do to follow Jesus?

Question for Youth: In order to follow Jesus, we have to do hard things, to carry our own crosses. What is a cross that you are carrying right now? In what ways can you ask Jesus to help you with your cross?

Question for Adults: Jesus gives us the core truth to life and eternal happiness — the cross. Name the cross that you carry. How is it bringing you closer to God?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Rose of Lima, Virgin

Isabel de Santa Maria de Flores was the daughter of wealthy Spanish parents, but lived much of her life in Peru. Because of her beauty, she was called Rose by her parents and took this name at her Confirmation. Rose wished to live an austere life, and did so, but also spent much of her time consoling the poor, the sick, the Indians, and slaves. For this she has come to be regarded as the originator of social service in Peru. Rose was so well known that when she died on August 24, 1617, senior officials of Peru and of Lima took turns carrying her casket to burial.

All of us are called to help those less fortunate than ourselves, whether they be the poor, the sick, those uneducated in their faith—any person or group to which injustice has been done. While it may not be possible to help all of these people except through prayer, we can and should do what we can.

Rose's message today: All of us are called to help those less fortunate than ourselves, whether they be the poor, the sick, those uneducated in their faith—any person or group to which injustice has been done. While it may not be possible to help all of these people except through prayer, we can and should do what we can.

What are you doing to help those who need your help? Do you ever pray for guidance and opportunities to give of yourself to those in need?
