FROM FATHER MARK APR 19 2020

GREETINGS

I wanted to provide you with another update.

First, I hope all had a happy and Holy Easter! Thanks to all those who joined our Easter liturgies and all who join us each day. I hope you had chance to connect with family and friends in some fashion on Easter. For my family, my siblings and I had a video chat. It was interesting, in that as I was the "host", I had the ability to mute the others. As the youngest in the family that was rarely the case growing up. I was usually the one being "muted." I was able to restrain myself from muting anyone....this time.

Here at Holy Trinity, Distance eLearning continues for our parish school students. Our faculty, administrators, students, and all of our families are doing a great job! Our faith formation team continues pushing information out to our families, as well as our parishioners who must now stay home as much as possible. Thanks to all for your continued efforts to help keep our parish family connected!

We also ask our higher risk parishioners to take advantage of our Shopping and Delivery Services: we have volunteers who can physically shop for and deliver groceries or pharmaceuticals. Contact us at 255-3162 if you need help.

We continue with online Masses. I am also continuing with my bible corner segments on Facebook and will also continue with some more lighthearted pieces as I try more recipes.

We continue to conduct parish business. Thanks to all who have been able to continue their tithing support. Your generosity is deeply appreciated! Thanks also to our school families who are continuing to support our school. Our teachers are working hard every day to provide all our students with a high-quality education in this very trying time.

As you have probably seen in the news, there are new government assistance programs available for small businesses during this emergency. We are working with the diocese on this and are pursuing a number of avenues to help us through this time. We do not yet know if we will be able receive any of this aid, as so many organizations are in serious need and there is only so much aid to go around. This is a work in-progress and I will keep you updated. At present, our finances are stable here at Holy Trinity.

In our Gospel passage this coming Sunday we will hear that the apostles were locked in a room out of fear. Sounds familiar. But we will also hear that Jesus came through the locked door with a simple message... "Peace be with you." We are clearly being told that nothing can keep us from God, and nothing can keep God from us. I hope we can all take comfort in this knowledge as we await the "all clear."

Take care and stay healthy

God bless us all and God Bless Holy Trinity.

Fr. Mark

Easter Unbelief

So what was the trouble with Thomas?

His doubts have echoed through history. We often assume that he was just a tough guy who had trouble trusting. But it would help you and me in our own doubts if we could understand more about this man who wouldn't believe the resurrection.

Doubting Thomas.

First, who was he? The Aramaic name Te'oma (Thomas) meant twin, and he was also called Didymus, which meant the same thing in Greek, twin. So he probably was an actual twin.

What else?

Well, he might have been a bit glum. For instance, he gave a practical but gloomy response when Jesus' wanted to go back to Judea after Lazarus died. None of the disciples wanted to return because they knew the Jewish leaders had tried to stone Jesus there (John 10:24-30). Jesus gave them some high-minded talk about what the disciples might learn by going, but Thomas ignored these reasons and said to the others, "Alright, let us also go die with him." A dour and cynical statement (John 11:16).*

Here Thomas reminds me a bit of Joe Btfsplk, the famous Al Capp cartoon character who walked around with a perpetually dark rain cloud over his head!

Just before the passion Jesus had said, "Where I am going you know the way." This was a spiritual statement about going to the Father, but Thomas took it literally. "Master, we do not [even] know where you are going; how can we know the way?" (John 14:3-6). Again, a very matter-of-fact question, but with an emotional backdrop. "You haven't even told us anything! Are you going to leave us like this?" Thomas loved Jesus doggedly but moped about the dangerous situations Jesus was always walking right into. Thomas' practical nature looked frankly at these and drew out the pessimistic conclusion. He had twin emotions, as his name implies. Love and loss.

Is it any wonder, then, that in this Sunday's Gospel Thomas laid down his requirements for believing in the resurrection? His worst misgivings had come true on the cross: Jesus actually was killed. To deal with his sorrow Thomas resolved to accept the death stolidly, no matter what it felt like. He would never slip and talk about his departed friend in the present tense, as people sometimes do when a beloved friend has died. Thomas the pragmatic knew that beloved Jesus was dead and gone. Suddenly the apostles reversed the field. "Didymus, Jesus is alive! When the doors were locked, suddenly he stood there among us!

He talked to us!"

NO. NO. Thomas' heart could not accept it. Too much was at stake.

"Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

This is exactly in character for Thomas/Didymus. The tough words are really a protection for a heart that would break in half if given still another false hope. "The only way I would believe such nonsense is if you give me very practical proof." Jesus gave it. Fingers in nail marks. Hand into side.

In spite of his cynicism, Thomas had always belonged to Jesus. When he got the practical proof he needed, he sank to the ground. "My Lord and my God."

What a great story for Eastertide.

BRING THE GOSPEL HOME APR 19 2020

READING I: Acts of the Apostles 2:42-47

PSALM: 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24

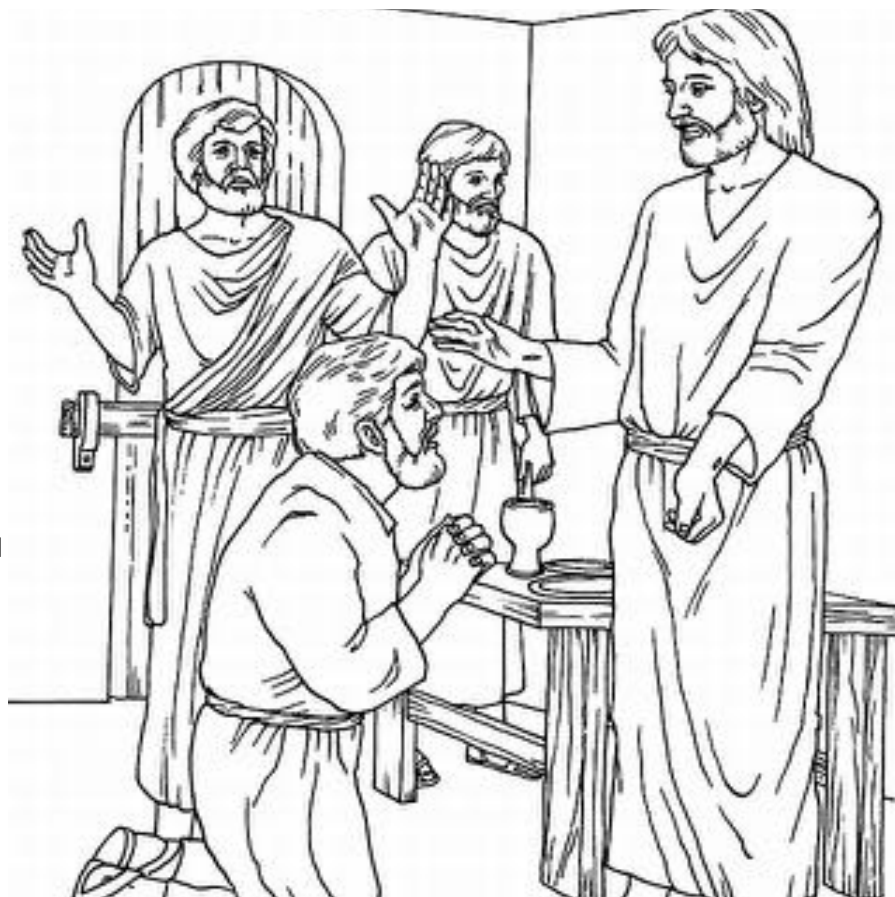

READING II: 1 Peter 1:3-9

GOSPEL: John 20:19-31

Question for Children: Even though you can't see him with your eyes, how do you "see" Jesus in others?

Question for Youth: Jesus gave us the gift of the Holy Spirit and gave us the power to forgive sins. How do you offer forgiveness to your friends and family? How do you seek forgiveness for yourself?

Question for Adults: When and how do you experience the "new birth" which we are given in Christ? When someone has forgiven you? When you have forgiven others? When you celebrate reconciliation? At other times?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Philip, Apostle and Martyr, First Century

Philip was from Bethsaida in Galilee and is thought to have been a disciple of Saint John the Baptist when Jesus called him. He is listed as an Apostle in the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke, but these make no further mention of Philip. In John's Gospel (1:43), we are told that Jesus "found Philip" and instructed him to "Follow me." Several other times, John mentions Philip. Philip, for example, was responsible for bringing his friend, Nathaniel (believed to be the Apostle, Bartholomew), to Jesus. Philip was present at the marriage feast at Cana and at the feeding of the five thousand. It was here that Jesus tested Philip when he saw the large crowd who had come to hear him. "Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?" (Jn 6:5), he asked Philip. Philip, not recognizing that Jesus was about to perform a sign for all of them, replied, "Six months wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." Jesus then took the five barley loaves and two dried fish and fed the crowd after which the disciples gathered twelve baskets of fragments of the barley loaves. Again, Philip is the Apostle at the Last Supper who asks Jesus to show them the Father, a tribute to his, as well as the other Apostles' earnestness. Jesus responded to Philip, "Whoever has seen me has seen the Father," (Jn 14:9), a message to all of us. Early Church Tradition was recorded by Eusebius the historian, as well as other writers. This tradition states that Philip preached the Gospel at Phrygia and later died at Hierapolis. He is said to have had three daughters, one of whom recounted to Papias, a later bishop of Hierapolis, the story of a miracle performed by the saint, in this case, raising a man from the dead. Depending on the account--and here some confusion between the two Philips may have entered--Philip either died a natural death or was crucified at Hierapolis. It has been stated that the remains of Saint Philip were eventually brought to Rome and have been preserved in the basilica of the Apostles since the time of Pope Pelagius (A.D. 561).

Philip's message today: Just as he tested Philip about feeding the crowd, Jesus sometimes tests our faith with adversity. While these trials can seem overwhelming, we should remember that God is with us even when we cannot feel his presence. Do you trust that God is with you when you experience hard times in your life? Renew your trust that God is always with us.
