ALL PUBLIC MASSES CANCELED – WATCH ONLINE HERE

FROM FATHER MARK MAY 17 2020

GREETINGS. I have heard from a number of people asking when public Masses will resume. You should now have received a letter (email) from Bishop Joensen regarding our return to public Masses and gatherings. No date has been set at this time as we must first develop a plan. When the bishop announces that we will begin phase one, it will not look like we are normally accustomed to. We will still need to practice social distancing and the church will have to be cleaned and disinfected after each Mass. Due to social distancing requirements, there will be a limit to how many people can be in the church at one time. Mass times will likely need to be adjusted during this time and there will be other adjustments we will need to make for some time. As we return to Mass, you might not be able to sit in your customary seat. I am asking for your patience and cooperation as we plan to reopen our parish churches while trying to keep everyone as safe as possible. More specific procedures will be coming as our plans begin to take shape.

As we do look to return to public Masses, we will begin with weekday Masses to see what the issues will be and what other adjustments might need to be made. When we do begin this process, weekend Masses will still be online. Those in vulnerable populations (65 years old and over and those with underlying health conditions) will still be strongly encouraged to stay home. The dispensation from the Sunday Mass obligation will remain in effect. Even after we begin public Masses at some level, we will continue to offer Mass virtually also. I will keep the parish updated as this process begins to take shape.

An important note: in order to be able to return to public Masses, we will need volunteers for such ministries as usher to help people get seated, lectors, and Eucharistic ministers. As many of those who normally perform these functions are in the vulnerable population and will be encouraged to continue to stay home, we will need for more people to step up. If you will be willing to help, please contact me or you may contact the parish office. Once we have received a specific date from the bishop to begin public Masses, direction and instruction will be provided. We will try to schedule Masses so that as many as possible can participate. The safety of all will be of utmost concern.

An update on the Annual Appeal. Our latest totals are as follows: 231 pledges for a total of $86,744 in gifts and outstanding pledges. Our assessment is $108,155. If we come up short, we will need to make up the difference out of our operating funds. Please consider a gift to our parish effort. Thanks to all those who have made such generous gifts and pledges thus far. With your help, we will make our assessment again this year.

This past weekend, we had our annual auction online. It was a great success! Our budget calls for a minimum of $65,000 to be raised. You raised over $72,000. Thanks so much to all those who bid and all those who donated such great items! A special thanks to Lisa Scolatti and Rick Anderson for their $10,000 matching donation! Thanks to all who got us to the full match! Without all who donated and bid, the auction could not have been the success that it was. A big thanks to our auction co-coordinators Andy Negrete and Delaney Lynch. Thanks also to Jenith Burry, our former chairperson, for all of her assistance and all those who chaired and worked on all of the committees. Thanks also to Valerie Hopp for her assistance in setting the auction up. A big thanks also to Dr. Anne Franklin for helping to co-host the livestream portion of our evening. Without all of these people, the auction could not have happened. Thanks!

Thanks again to all those who continue their regular tithing. The generosity of the people of Holy Trinity, is truly inspirational. Thank you!

FR. Mark

Take care and God bless us all and God bless Holy Trinity.

FROM BISHOP JOENSON MAY 17 2020

Dear Friends in Christ,

For these weeks of pandemic self-discipline practices, we may have at times felt left out of the community where sacraments are celebrated. Yet my hope is that we all have come to deeper belief that God's Spirit—the Spirit of the Risen Jesus—seeks out where we are, as we are.

The coronavirus contagion has afforded us plenty of chances to give witness that we are a prophetic people in Christ. But let's be honest: the live-streaming Masses, even more than the Zoom and FaceTime encounters with loved ones and colleagues—are far from fully satisfying. Nothing less than actual reception of Holy Communion in the context of the Mass that is both source and summit of Christ's abundant life can allow us to sigh and say, "Ah, home at last!"

At this writing, and with the Feast of God's Spirit at Pentecost approaching on the last day of May, it remains uncertain when that glorious day when we are able to regather and participate in public Mass—and celebrate baptisms, weddings, funerals, confirmation and other sacraments as a full community--will occur. God willing, it will arrive very soon, based on a reasonable decline in the incidence of COVID-19 in our part of Iowa. Our regathering task force composed of both priests and lay people has been hard at work to help outline the preparations and conditions in our churches that we must prudently observe in order to protect as much as reasonably possible the physical and spiritual well-being of our Des Moines Diocese family.

Following this letter is a brief information document from the task force that should give you an overall sense of our Phase 1 plan for regathering for Mass. Note well that after I make the determination, and with your local pastor's discernment and decision that appropriate precautions are in place, we will first resume periodic weekday Masses (Monday-Saturday morning). Further details about liturgical practices have been shared with the priests, and will be communicated to everyone in the near future. Eventually, we will move into Phase 2 and resume Saturday evening and Sunday Masses. Even when we do so, please know that with respect to the vulnerable members of our communities whom we want to protect and not spread the virus, the SUNDAY MASS OBLIGATION REMAINS SUSPENDED.

I pray that all of us—myself included—will charitably embrace the gradual manner in which we resume a Eucharistic rhythm of life, for reasons of necessary social distancing and due diligence in cleaning and restoring our churches to a safe environment each time we gather for Mass. We cannot all rush the altar at the same time, heedless of our neighbor whose holy longing is equal to our own.

May God's Spirit, the Spirit of charity and abundant life, the Spirit of a prophetic, priestly people, be with us where we now are, and where God will have us be: united as one Body, more than ever before.

Faithfully in Christ,

Most. Rev. William M. Joensen, Ph.D.
Bishop of Des Moines

FROM BISHOP JOENSON MAY 17 2020

Information for the public:

While we continue to wait for a time when it is safe to resume publicly celebrated Masses, we are making preparations.

1. The diocese has developed a plan for the resumption of public weekday (Monday- Saturday morning) Masses. This plan has been distributed to all parishes so that they can prepare. Public weekday and Sunday Masses currently remain suspended. The diocese and parishes will communicate clearly when we deem it appropriate to resume public weekday Masses.
2. All diocesan parishes will most likely not resume public weekday Masses at the same time. This is due to various situations in our counties, and the fact that some parishes may not be able to meet all required safety guidelines at the same time.
3. Individual parishes will only be allowed to resume public weekday Masses when all required criteria are met. As a general summary, our plan consists of the following:
 - a. Social distancing must be maintained throughout the Mass.
 - b. The worship space must be thoroughly disinfected between every Mass, following the cleaning guidelines prepared by the diocese, which are based on CDC guidance.
 - c. Efforts are made to make the Mass as hygienic as possible, while respecting the integrity of the liturgy.
4. The diocese is tracking county specific data, to try to discern when it is prudent to resume public weekday Masses. We are being guided by the national guidelines for reopening, which direct us to watch for a 14 day decrease in positive COVID-19 tests, or a 14 day decrease in the percentage of positive COVID-19 tests.

It is everyone's earnest desire to resume public worship together as soon as prudentially possible. When public worship does resume, please remember:

1. Participating at Mass is a health risk for any individual. For those who do not attend Mass during this time God's infinite grace and mercy remain abundantly available.
2. The Sunday obligation remains suspended, and that the elderly, vulnerable individuals, individuals who live with vulnerable individuals, and those who are ill or have been exposed to someone with COVID-19 like symptoms should not attend Mass.
3. For those who will attend Mass, please cultivate an occasional presence, and not a daily presence. This is an act of charity toward others, as it can allow more people to participate in daily Mass and better serves the common good.
4. Only attend Mass at their own parish. Traveling to neighboring parishes creates a greater health risk for all and hinders the diocese in its efforts to make the sacraments publicly available in the safest way possible.

COMMON SENSE MEDIA

One of the most frustrating aspects of pandemic life is having absolutely no road map for how to parent through this. If the digital world feels alien, there's nothing like TikTok, Zoom, and remote learning to make you feel like a stranger in a strange land. Right there with you! To help you keep up with the million-and-one things coming out of left field, we're trying something new this week: highlights of the hottest topics, smartest tips, best resources, and more of what you need to know right now.

What should I know about TikTok?

With more than 100 million users, TikTok has emerged as a kind of unifying force during the quarantine with trending challenges from global dance-offs to the Quarantine Olympics (with events like sock-sliding on a wooden floor). TikTok was weird before, but in pandemic times it's truly a global phenomenon worthy of a deep dive. Read more

DO YOU NEED ASSISTANCE? Please call the Parish Office at 255-3162 x124 or email parishoffice@holyltrinitydm.org if you are an individual that could use assistance.

- We have volunteers ready to make deliveries of groceries or essentials for parishioners who should not be exposed to this virus at the stores.
- We also have volunteers available to pray with parishioners or just chat on the phone or by Facetime...whichever you prefer. This is a way for our community to catch up and stay close
- If you are a parishioner that would like a pen pal, we have families that are looking to connect. So many wonderful stories have been shared.

FOOD PANTRIES REMAIN OPEN... BUT WE NEED YOUR HELP!!

During this time of closures and social distancing we have established a protocol allowing us to continue providing pantry essentials to those in need.

Both pantries are open for business by appointment only. Pantry appointments and pickup times are Monday-Friday, 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.

As needs run high, supplies run low. We would like to ask that as a friend of SVdP that you participate in our #foodpantrychallenge. Just think, if you donate $10 then either tag on social media or challenge 3 friends to do the same, we will generate enough funds to not only keep the pantries open during this dangerous time, but also continue with our mission to provide healthy food choices to our clients.

Donations can be made on our website at www.svdpdsm.org.

If you know someone in need, appointments can be scheduled by calling the numbers below:

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Justin, Martyr

Justin, a layman, lived in the very early years of the Church. He was a great teacher and his writings remain with us today. He was an historian who wrote about the Christian faith. He explained the Eucharist and other celebrations, to help many people come to the faith. He often debated pagan scholars of the day and was eventually tortured and killed because of that. We honor him today for this great contribution to the Church.

Justin searched for a time before finding God. Once he had found God, he kept the faith even to death. Although martyrdom may not be the fate of any of us, we should be prepared to defend our faith at any given moment.

Justin's message today: Justin searched for a time before finding God. Once he had found God, he kept the faith even to death. Although martyrdom may not be the fate of any of us, we should be prepared to defend our faith at any given moment.

All of us face temptations daily which would lead us away from God. Ask God to help you to grow in faith and you will be able to stand up to the temptations.

NOTES ON THE MASS MAY 17 2020

SPIRITUALITY OF THE READINGS

Remembering the Truth

It is a human thing to remember the past. We do it in part to understand better who we are now and how we got that way.

That is why remembering is one definition of liturgy. Under God's impetus we remember what it means to be a follower of Christ today. Especially in this Easter season, the Church is recalling its experience in the weeks after Jesus died and rose again.

Let us pretend that we are the historical disciples of Jesus, calling to mind what happened. It is as if we sit around a memory campfire, telling stories.

Remember when Philip said to Jesus, 'Just show us the Father and that will be enough for us?' Of course he was at that very moment of seeing Jesus and therefore of seeing the Father, but did not know it!

Maybe someone moves closer to the fire and says, Do you remember the words he said just before his passion and death? That he would send the Spirit of Truth into our hearts! And that we would not be left orphans!

"Go over it one more time," Someone else whispers. Bravely, one of them tries to.

"God the Abba is so much within Jesus that every time we see him we are seeing God."

Philip nods, reluctantly.

"Then Jesus said":

I will be so much within you—yes, you normal people—that when anyone sees you it will be the same thing as seeing me! And of course, since the Father is in me, they will know the Father too!

Philip gulped. "I ... I almost have it ... maybe ... or maybe not. ... Please say it another way."

"Ok. If I boil it down, this is what I understood of what I remember. Jesus said, I am going back to the Father, back to the one who sent me. The world will not see me any more. But that doesn't make me absent from you. I and the Abba will be within you so that your very insides will be at one with my Spirit and the Father's Spirit.

"Then he put it very simply:

Who sees me
sees the Father.

Who sees you--sees me.

Philip somehow caught a glimpse of daylight.

At least, we find him in the First Reading running from place to place doing miracles and preaching about the Messiah! As scripture puts it,

With one accord, the crowds paid attention to what was said by Philip, when they heard it, and saw the signs he was doing: Unclean spirits, crying out in a loud voice, came out of many possessed people, and many paralyzed or crippled people were cured. There was great joy in that city.

Do you also see daylight, at least on some days?

Do you remember to say yes to Christ's presence within you? Do you touch and receive communion at Mass and let yourself evolve into Christ, in the world today? Is your life an increasing process of saying "yes," or is there too much "no"?

If the latter, read Sunday's readings again.

Remember.

Simple? Not really.

Well, maybe it is simple.

Just receive and love.

John Foley, SJ

Fatima Prayer

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins and save us from the fires of hell. Lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of thy mercy.

Hail, Holy Queen

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God, that we be made worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Glory Be (Doxology)

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
