FROM FATHER MARK JUNE 28 2020

GREETINGS.

As you know, we will begin in person weekend Masses this coming weekend, June 27th and 28th. All health precautions will continue to be in effect. As a reminder, all those coming to Mass, age 5 and up, are strongly encouraged to use a face mask or other face covering during Mass. All are also strongly encouraged to receive Communion in the hand. I know this is difficult for some, but this is an act of charity toward others. We also need to observe all social distancing guidelines. The church is laid out with social distancing in mind. We will help you to find a seat, but all rows are also labeled with the number of people that can fit into the indicated space. Those in the same household do not need to be distanced. We are excited for public weekend Masses and I'm looking forward to welcoming you back! For now, we will have our normal weekend schedule. If adjustment is needed, we will adjust.

We are looking for additional volunteers to be lectors, Eucharistic ministers, and ushers for our weekend Masses. Also, as the church will need to be disinfected after each Mass, we are also looking for anyone who is willing to help with this. It is not difficult, it will not take very long, and instruction will be provided. Please contact the parish office for more information.

If you have been participating in our live stream Masses lately you've noticed that we've had a sound issue. We have found a temporary solution that is working quite well. But we are also looking at more long-term solutions as we want to continue live streaming Mass moving forward even after the pandemic has subsided. I will keep you apprised of our progress as we continue providing remote opportunities for our parish.

An update on the annual Appeal: we currently have 274 pledges for a total of $95,165 in gifts and outstanding pledges from our 1250 registered Parish households. Our assessment this year is $108,155. Thank you so much to all those who have made such generous pledges thus far. If you have not yet had a chance to make a pledge or gift, I ask that you give this your most prayerful consideration. All pledges and gifts, no matter the amount, are deeply appreciated and do help us to meet our assessment. If we don't make our assessment, the difference will be having will have to be made up out of our operating funds. Thank you again for your continued support of Holy Trinity Parish.

Take care and may God bless us all and may God continue to bless Holy Trinity!

FR. Mark

SUMMER GARAGE SALE UPDATE -- PLEASE HELP

Many people have been asking...Are we going to have the August Garage Sale? As you may remember, we did not have the Spring Garage Sale. Our two garage sales have been factored into our 2020 budget so not having a summer garage sale would be an even bigger hit to our budget. At the present time, the past organizers and the majority of volunteers fall within the vulnerable category for COVID19. Unless we can get a group that does not fall within vulnerable categories, there will not be a garage sale in 2020. Working at the Garage Sale is not only fun but a wonderful service to your Parish. Set up for the garage sale will begin on August 1st. The actual sale would be Aug 6th, 7th and 8th. If you are interested in volunteering, chairing or co-chairing, and you are not in the vulnerable group, please contact the parish office at 255-3162 or parishoffice@holymtrinitydm.org by July 3rd if possible.

HELP FOR HT PARISHIONERS

We are so appreciative to all those volunteers who helped their fellow parishioners during this COVID-19 Pandemic. DO YOU NEED ASSISTANCE? Please call the Parish Office at 255-3162 x124 or email parishoffice@holymtrinitydm.org if you are an individual that could use assistance or go to our website <https://holymtrinitydm.org/coronavirus-updates> for more info. ## Saint Junipero Serra

READING I: 2 Kings 4:8-16

PSALM: 89:2-19

READING II: Romans 6:3-11

GOSPEL: Matthew 10:37-42

Question for Children: How can you live as a follower of Jesus?

Question for Youth: What does Jesus demand of his followers?

Question for Adults: What does this Gospel teach you about the cost of discipleship and how does it relate to your experience so far?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Junípero Serra, Priest

No person had more influence on the settlement of California than Padre Junípero Serra. He was born Miguel José Serra to parents of humble means, living in Petra on the Mediterranean island of Majorca. His early education took place on the island at the Franciscan convent of San Bernardino. Miguel was ordained in 1737, and took the name Junípero at that time. In the same year, he was named a professor of philosophy at the university in Palma, Spain as well as to other posts. He could have worked at this the rest of his life, but since he was a boy, Junípero Serra had dreamed of becoming a missionary in the New World. He accepted an appointment to help establish the church in Mexico and the United States and spent the rest of his life doing so with great vigor and many good results.

Junípero Serra undertook a bold journey in coming to the New World. Our physical travels may not be as far-reaching as Serra's, but we are all on a spiritual journey whose course can often be as dramatic. We, too, can hold steadfast to our goal of reaching God's kingdom.

Padre Serra's message today: Junípero Serra undertook a bold journey in coming to the New World. Our physical travels may not be as far-reaching as Serra's, but we are all on a spiritual journey whose course can often be as dramatic. We, too, can hold steadfast to our goal of reaching God's kingdom.

How do you stay on course when your spiritual journey takes a difficult turn?

NOTES ON THE MASS JUNE 28 2020

SPIRITUALITY OF THE READINGS

He Said What?

Had you ever noticed the number of flat-out contradictions in scripture? For example:

- the last shall be first;
- lose your life to find it;
- take the lowest seat if you want to have the highest;
- the Son of Man came to serve, not to be served;
- a virgin will conceive; and,
- if you are an old woman with an old husband, you will have a child

...and so on.

To begin with, if we want to be first, we would have to get to the front of the line, not the end of it. And, if we want to be alive, we must make some moves not to lose our lives. These are common sense.

Instead, this Sunday's readings are introducing us, gently and partially, to ways in which such common sense opinions do not go deep enough.

In the First Reading a distinguished lady in the little village of Schunem shows great hospitality to the prophet Elisha, even to the point of building and furnishing a little room on the roof of her house with a bed, table, chair, and lamp for him for whenever he visits. She is childless, yet Elisha promises that in one year she will be fondling her own baby son. She is shocked. But the promise comes true.

Then, when the boy becomes a young man, he suddenly dies (2 Kings 4:18-37). Elisha comes from twenty miles away and brings him back to life.

Life is given twice where there was no hope of life; death triumphing but life restored. Contradictory. Is this the way of the Lord?

Then in the Second Reading, St. Paul writes to the Church in Rome that they are baptized into Christ's death and are buried with him!

A grim statement. But then he says, if we die with Christ, we shall also live with him, shall live a life in God (Second Reading).

Die in order to live?

In the Gospel Jesus makes a most enigmatic statement: "Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it."

No matter how we try to explain that statement away and neuter its content, it still means what it says. Losing your life is the only way to possess it. Letting go is the only way to hold on. How can such contrary claims simultaneously be true?

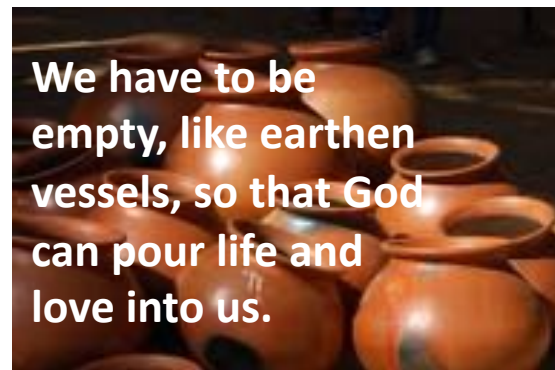

I want to suggest a metaphor. A glass has to start out empty in order to succeed as a glass. If it is sealed up, or if it is solid, or if it is already full, nothing can be poured in.

Does this sound like one more contradiction? No. A container has to be empty if it is to be filled.

The same goes for us. We have to be empty, like earthen vessels, so that God can pour life and love into us. This is the source of all the "contradictions" in the Gospels and certainly in the readings this Sunday.

We have to empty out if we are to be filled up with God's gifts.

John Foley, SJ
