GREETINGS

Part of the visioning work our parish has undertaken in recent years included ensuring that Holy Trinity remains a welcoming community. Our recent plaza project was initiated and completed with this in mind. As I mentioned at Masses last weekend, we are currently seeing an increase in young families with young children. This is a good thing for us as it indicates we continue to attract new generations to our parish.

As we celebrate our first hundred years and embark on our second hundred years, we want to see this continue. As those who have been here for some time will remember, we used to have a cry room. It seems we once again have need of such a space. I truly believe this is a good need to have. To that end, we are planning to put a cry room in the currently open space near the St. Peregrine statue. There is room there for a small room and will not require a reconfiguring of the church other than locating one pew in the new space. We will not lose any overall seating capacity and will likely gain a few seats overall. We will keep you informed as this progresses.

A reminder, next Sunday we begin Catholic Schools Week. We will kick off the week next Sunday at our parish school with our Preschool and Kindergarten Roundup from 11:15-11:30 and an Open House from 11:30am-1:00 PM.

On a personal note, as a graduate of Holy Trinity School, I can say that I received an excellent education academically and in the faith. I was prepared for high school and beyond. But, I also have so many fond memories of growing up at Holy Trinity and of my time at Holy Trinity School. These memories were the main reason that I requested to return to Holy Trinity to serve as pastor. Please drop by to see what our school has to offer. It is through your continued generosity that we are able to continue offering this ministry.

Have a good week!

FR. Mark

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Francis de Sales, Bishop and Doctor, 1567-1622

Despite the opposition of his father and an offer of a high government position, Francis chose to become a priest and was ordained in 1593. The pope appointed Francis to this academic post and, somewhat reluctantly, Francis took up these duties. Francis' first love, however, was ministering to the poor and preaching. His preaching style was very simple, and thus won a large following. Francis volunteered to go to Chablais and win back the people to Catholicism. He began writing tracts which set forth the teachings of the Church versus the errors of Calvinism. These papers—the originals are still preserved in the archives—were copied many times and distributed widely. Pope Clement VIII, having heard of the good works of Francis. He and others put thirty-five complex theological questions to Francis. These he answered knowledgeably, yet with simplicity and modesty, and his appointment was confirmed. As bishop, Francis continued to live in an austere manner. With Jane Frances de Chantal he founded the order of the Visitation nuns. Francis continued to write. In his Treatise on the Love of God, he wrote, "The measure of love is to love without measure."

Francis' message today: Despite the clear danger to himself, Francis did not hesitate to volunteer to help bring back the "lost sheep" of Chablais. Each of us probably knows some lost sheep, family members or neighbors who no longer go to church. We can encourage them to return to the faith by prayer, our example, and a quiet word or two.

Have you prayed for those people who have fallen away? Invite someone who has left the fold to attend church with you.

QUESTIONS TO CONSIDER

Question for Children:

If someone were to ask you, "who is Jesus?" how would you answer?

Question for Youth:

How are you able to see through all the busyness, the distractions, and the din of today's world to really see Christ as he makes himself present today? Where do you see him or experience his presence?

Question for Adults:

In the gospel today, John tells us who Jesus is for him. If someone were to ask you, how would you answer this question: Who Jesus is for you?
